WHOLE BOOK
OF PSALMS:

Collected into English
Meeter, by Thomas Sternhold
John Hopkins and others. x

Set forth and allowed to be sung in all Churches, of all the people together, before and after Morning and Evening Prayer; and also before & after Sermons, and moreover in private houses for their godly solace and comfort: laying apart
all ungodly songs and ballades, which tend onely to the nourishing of vice,
and corrupting of youth.

JAMES V.

¶ If any be afflicted, let him pray, and if any be merry let him sing Psalmes.

COL. 3. 16.

¶ Let the word of God dwell plenteously
in you, in all wisdom, teaching and exhorting one another in Psalmes, Hymns and spirituall songs, singing un-
to the Lord with grace in your hearts.

THE PSALMS OF DAVID IN MEETER.

PSALM i. T. S.

THe man is blest that hath not bent
to wicked read his ear:
Nor led his life as sinners do,
nor sat in scornful chair.
But in the law of God the Lord
doth set his whole delight:
And in that law doth exercise
himself both day and night.
He shall be like the tree that grows
fast by the rivers side:
Which bringeth forth most pleasant fruit
in his due time and tide:
Whose leaf shall never fade or fall,
but flourish still and stand:
Even so all things shall prosper well
that this man takes in hand.
So shall not the ungodly men,
they shall be nothing so:
But as the dust which from the earth
the wind drives to and fro.
Therefore shall not the wicked men
in judgement stand upright:
Nor yet the sinners with the just,
shall come in place or sight.
For why? the way of godly men unto the Lord is known:
And eke the way of wicked men shall quite be overthrown.

PSALM ii. T. S.

Why did the Gentiles tumult raise?
what rage was in their brain?
Why did the Jewish people muse,
seeing all is but in vain?
The Kings and Rulers of the earth
conspire and are all bent, Against the Lord and Christ his Son,
which he among us sent.
Shall we be bound to them, say they?
let all their bonds be broke:
And of their doctrine and their law
let us reject the yoke.
But he that in the heaven dwells,
their doings will decide:
And make them all as mocking Rocks, throughout the world to stride.
For in his wrath the Lord will say,
so then upon a day
And in his fury trouble them,
and then the Lord will say:
I have appointed him my King
upon my holy hill:
I will therefore Lord preach thy law,
and eke declare thy will.

For in this wise the Lord himself
did say to me I wor,
Thou art my dear and only Son,
to day I thee begor.
All people I will give to thee,
as heirs at thy request.
The ends and coasts of all the earth
by thee shall be posses.
Thou shalt them bruise even with
as men under foot tread:
And as the potters shards shall break
them with an iron rod.
Now ye O Kings and Rulers all,
be wise therefore and learn'd:
By whom the matters of the world
be judged and discern'd.
See that ye serve the Lord above
in trembling and in fear:
See that with reverence ye bow
to him in like manner.
See that ye kiss and kiss
his blessed Son, I say, Lest in his wrath ye suddenly perish in the mid way.
If once his wrath never so small,
shall kindle in his breast:
Oh then all they that trust in Christ
shall happy be and blest.

PSALM iii. T. S.

O Lord how are my foes increas,
which vex me more and more:
They kill my heart whereas they say,
God can him not restore.
But thou O Lord art my defense
when I am hard beset:
My worship and mine honour both,
and thou holdst up my head.
Then with my voice upon the Lord
I did both call and cry:
And he out of his holy hill
did hear me by and by.
I laid me down and quietly
I slept and rose again:
For why I know assuredly,
the Lord will me sustain.
If ten thousand had hent me in
I could not be afraid:
For thou art still my Lord and God,
my Saviour and mine aid.
Rise up therefore, save me, my God,
for now so thou I call:
For thou hast broke the chains of
of these wicked men.

Salvation only doth belong to thee O Lord above : Thou dost bestow upon thy folk thy blessing and thy love.

PSALM liij. T.S.

O God that art my righteousness,
Lord hear me when I call,
Thou hast set me at liberty,
when I was bound and thrall.

Have mercy Lord, therefore on me,
and grant me my request :
For unto thee unceasingly,
to cry I will not rest.

O mortall men how long will ye
my glory thus despise ?
Why wander ye in vanity,
and follow after lies ?

Know ye that good and godly men
the Lord doth take and chuse :
And when to him I make my plaint,
he doth me not refuse.

Sin not, but stand in awe therefore,
examine well your heart :
As in your chamber quietly,
see you your selves convert.

Offer to God the sacrifice
of righteousness, I say :
And look that in the living Lord
you put your trust alway.

The greater sort crave worldly goods,
and riches do embrace :
But Lord grant us thy countenance,
thy favour and thy grace.

For thou thereby shalt make my heart
more joyfull and more glad,
Than they that of their come and wine
full great increase have had.

In peace therefore lie down will I,
taking my rest and sleep :
For thou only wilt me, O Lord, alone in safety keep.

PSALM v. T.S.

Incline thine ears unto my words,
O Lord my plain consider :

And hear my voice, my King, my God,
to thee I make my prayer.

Hear me besime, Lord carry not,
for I will have respect,
My prayer early in the morn
to thee for to direct.

And I will trust through patience
in thee my God alone :
Thou art not pleas'd with wickedness
and I ill with thee dwells none.

And in thy fight shall never stand
these furious fools O Lord :
Vain workers of iniquity,
thou hast alwaies abhor'd.

The lyars and the flatterers
show shall destroy themselves :
And God will have the blood-thirsty,
and be desol'd all men.

Therefore will I come to shine forth
trusting upon thy grace :
And reverently will worship thee,
toward thine holy place.

Lord lead me in thy righteousness,
for to confound my foes :
And eke the way that I shall walk,
before my face disclose.

For in their mouths there is no truth,
their heart is foul and vain :
Their throat an open sepulchre,
their tongues do glose and faine.

Destroy their false conspiracies,
that they may come to nought :
Subvert them in their heaps of sin,
which have rebellion wrought.

But those that put their trust in thee
let them be glad alwaies :
And render thanks for thy defence,
and give thy Name the praise.

For thou with favour wilt increase the just and righteous still :
And with thy grace as with a shield,
defend him from all ill.

PSALM vi. T.S.

Lord in thy wrath reprove me not,
though I deserve thine ire :
Ne yet correct me in thy rage;
O Lord I thee desire.

For I am weak, therefore O Lord,
of mercy me forbear :
And heal me Lord, for why thou know'st
my bones do quake for fear.

My soul is troubled very sore,
and vexed vehemently,
But Lord how long wilt thou delay,
to cure my misery ?

Lord turn thee to thy wonted grace,
my silly soul up take :
O save me, not for my deserts,
but for thy mercies sake.

For why ? no man among the dead
remembereth thee one whit :
Or who shall worship thee (O Lord)
in the infernal pit ?

So grievous is my plaint and mone,
that I wax wonderous faint :
All the night long I wail my bed
with tears of my complaint.

My sight is dim, and waxeth old
with anguish of my heart :
For fear of those that be my foes,
and would my soul subvert.

But now away from me all ye
that work iniquity :
For why? the Lord hath heard the voice
of my complaint and cry.

He heard not only the request
and prayer of my heart :
But is received at my hands,
and cook it in good part.

10 And now my foes that vexed me,
the Lord will soon confound:
And suddenly confound them all
to their rebuke and shame.

PSALM vij. T. S.

O Lord my God, I put my trust,
and confidence in thee:
Save me from them that me pursue,
and eke deliver me.

2 Left like a Lion he me tear,
and rend in pieces small,
While there is none to succour me
and rid me out of thrall.

3 O Lord my God if I have done
the thing that is not right:
Or else if I be found in fault,
or guilty in thy sight,
Or to my friend rewarded ill,
or left him in distress,
Which me pursu'd most cruelly,
and harod me causeless.

4 Then let my foes pursue my soul,
and eke my life down thrust Unto the earth, and also lay mine honour in the dust.

5 Start up O Lord now in thy wrath,
and put my foes to pain:
Perform the Kingdom promised
to me which wrong sustain.

6 Then shall great nations come to thee
and know thee by this thing,
If thou declare for love of them,
thy self as Lord and King.

7 And as thou art of all men Judge,
O Lord now judge thou me
According to my righteousness,
and mine integrity.

The second Part.

8 Lord cease the hate of wicked men,
and be the just mans guide:
By whom the secrets of all hearts
are searched and descri'd.

9 I take my help to come of God
in all my pain and smart:
That doth preserve all those that be
of pure and perfect heart.

10 The just man and the wicked both
God judgeth by his power:
So that he feels his mighty hand
even every day and hour.

11 Except he change his mind, I die,
for even as he should smile,
He whets his sword, his bow he bends,
aiming where he may hit.

12 And doth prepare his mortal darts,
his arrows keen and sharp,
For them that do me persecute,
whilst he doth mischief warp.

13 But lo though he in travell be
of his devilish fore-cast:
And of his mischief once conceiv'd,
yet brings forth nought at last.

In hope so have his brother
But he shall fall into the pit
that he dig'd up for other.

14 Thus wrong returneth to the face
of him in whom it bred:
And all the mischief that he wrought,
shall fall upon his head.

15 I will give thanks to God therefore,
that judgeth righteously:
And with my song will praise the Name
of him that is most high.

PSALM viij. T. S.

O God our Lord how wonderfull
are thy works every where:
Whose fame surmounts in dignity
above the heavens clear.

2 Even by the mouths of sucking babes
thou wilt confound thy foes:
For in those babes thy might is seen,
thy graces they disclose.

3 And when I see the heavens high,
the works of thine own hand:
The Sun, the Moon, and all the starres,
In order as they stand:

4 What thing is man (Lord) think I thy that thou dost him remember:
Or what is man posterity,
that thou dost it consider.

5 For thou hast made him little less than Angels in degree:
And thou hast crown'd him also
with glory and dignity.

6 Thou hast prefer'd him to be Lord
of all thy works of wonder:
And at his feet hast set all things,
that he should keep them under.

7 As sheep, and wear, and all beasts else
that in the fields do feed:
8 Fowles of the ayr, fish in the sea,
and all that therein breed.

9 Therefore must I say once again,
O God that art our Lord:
How famous and how wonderfull
are thy works through the world.

PSALM ix. T. S.

With heart & mouth unto the Lord
will I sing laud and praise:
And (peak of all) thy wondrous works,
and them declare aloud.

2 I will be glad and much rejoyce,
in thee O God most high:
And make my songs enshall thy Name
above the starry skie.

3 For that my foes are driven back,
and turned unto flight:
They fall down flat, and are destroy'd
by thy great power and might.

4 Thou hast revenged all my wrong,
my grief, and all my grudge:
Thou dost with justice, Lord, my cause
most high a righteous judge.

5 Thou dost rebuke

When shouldst thou be found
of these enemies he found thy foes thou hast made good dispatch,
and all their coves destroyed:
thou hast their name with them defac'd,
through all the world so wide.

7 Know now that he which is above
for evermore shall reign,
and in the fear of equity
true judgement will maintain.
8 With justice he will keep and guide
the world and every wight:
And so will yield with equity
to every man his right.

9 He is protector of the poor,
what time they be oppress'd:
He is in all adversity
their refuge and their rest.
10 And they that know thy holy Name
therefore shall trust in thee:
For thou forsakest not their suit
in their necessity.

The second Part.

11 Sing Psalms therefore unto the Lord,
that dwells in Sion hill:
Publish among all nations,
his noble acts and will.
12 For he is mindfull of the blood
of those that be oppress'd:
Forgetting not th afflicted heart
that seeks to him for rest.

13 Have mercy Lord on me poor wretch
whose enemies still remain:
Which from the gates of death are wont
to raise me up again.

14 In Sion shall I mighten forth
thy praise with heart and voice:
And that in thy salvation Lords
my soul might still rejoice.

15 The heathen stick fast in the pit
that they themselves prepar'd:
And in the net that they did set,
their own feet fast are shar'd.

16 God shews his judgments & were good for every man to mark.

When as ye see the wicked man
he is rap'd in his own war.

17 The wicked and deceitfull men
go down to hell for ever:
And all the people of the world,
that will not God remember.

18 But sure the Lord will not forget
the poor mans grief and pain:
The patient people never look for help of God in vain.

19 O Lord arise lest men prevail
thru be of worldly might:
And let the heathen folk receive their judgement in thy sight.

20 Lord strike thine enemies foot
that they be not so bold:
Thou shalt break down their strength
that they be not so bold.

What is the cause that thou O Lord
art now so far from thine
And keepen close thy countenance
from us this troublous time?
2 The poor do perish by the proud
and wicked mens desire:
Let them be taken in the craft
that they themselves conspire.

3 For in the last of his own heart
cheerfully doth delight
So doth the wicked praise himself and doth the Lord despight.

4 He is so proud that right and wrong
he seereth all apart:
Nay, nay, there is no God, saith he,
for thus he thinks in heart.

5 Because his wayes do prosper still,
he doth thy laws neglect:
And with a blast doth puff against such as would him correct.

6 Tush, tush, saith he, I have no dread,
lest mine estate should change:
And why? for all diversity
to him is very strange.

7 His mouth is full of cursednets
of fraud, deceit and guile:
Under his tongue doth mischief sit
and travell all the while.

8 He lieth hid in waies and holes
to slay the innocent:
Against the poor that pass him by,
his cruell eyes are bent.

9 And like a Lion privily
lies lurking in his den:
If he may snare them in his net,
to spoil poor simple men.

10 And for the nonce full easily
he croocheth down, I say:
So are great heads of poor men made
by his strong power his prey.

The second Part.

11 Tush, God forgotte this, saith he,
therefore I may be bold:
His countenance is cast aside,
he doth it not behold.

12 Arise O Lord, O God in whom the poor mans hope doth rest:
Lift up thy hand, forget not Lord
the poor that be oppress'd.

13 What blasphemy is this to thee,
Lord dost thou not abhor it?
To hear the wicked in their heart
say, tush thou art not for it?

14 But thou seest all their wickedness,
and well dost understand,
That friendless and poor fatherless
are left into thy hand.

15 Of wicked and malicious men
thou breakest the power for ever:
Thou shalt with their iniquity
men with a scourge.

14 The Lord shall raise for evermore,
as King and God alone:
And he will chafe the Heathen folk,
out of the land each one.

17 Thou heard'st (O Lord) the poor mans
their prayer and request: (plaint)
Their hearts thou wilt confirm untill
these ears so hear be prest.

18 To judg the poor and fatherless,
and help them to their right:
That they may be no more opprest
by men of worldly might.

PSALM xi. T. S.

Trust in God, how dare ye then
say thus my soul untill?
Fly hence as fast as any fowl,
and hide you in your hill.

2 Behold the wicked bend their bows,
and make their arrows prest,
To shoot in secret, and to hurt
the sound and harmless breast.

3 Of worldly hope all stays were shrunk,
and clearly brought to nought:

Alas the just and righteous man,
what evil hath he wrought?

4 But he that in his Temple is,
most holy and most high:
And in the heavens hath his seat
of royal majesty.

The poor and simple mans estate
considereth in his mind:

And searcheth our full narrowly
the tangles of mankind:

5 And with a chearfull countenance
the righteous man will use:

But in his heart he doth abhor
all such as mischief use.

6 And on the sinners fathens fumes,
as thick as any rain:

7 Fire and brimstone he whirlwinds thick,
appointed for their pain.

8 Ye see then how a righteous God
doth righteousness embrace:

And to the just and upright men
shews forth his pleasant face.

PSALM xii. T. S.

Help Lord, for good and godly men
do perill and decay:

And faith and truth from worldly men
is parted clean away.

2 Who so doth with his neighbour talk,
his talk is all but vain:

For every man bethinketh how to flatter, lie and faine.

3 But flattering and deceitfull lips,
and tongues that be so fowre,

To speak proud words, and make greas
the Lord soon cuts them out. (brags)

4 For they say still we will prevail,
our tongues shall us extoll:

Our tongues are ours, we ought to speak,
the Lord shall us controul:

5 But for the great sorow plait and
of poor and men opprest:
Arise will I, now catch the Lord,
and them restore to rest.

6 Gods Word is like to silver pure,
that from the earth is tri'd:
And hath no less than seven times
in fire been purifi'd.

7 Now fish thy promise: Is to help,
Lord keep thy promise then:
And save us now and evermore,
from this ill kind of men.

8 For now this wicked world is full of mischief's manifold:
When vanity with worldly men
so highly is extoll'd.

PSALM xiii. T. S.

How long wilt thou forget me Lord
I shall I nere be remembered?

How long wilt thou thy visage hide,
as though thou wert offended?

2 In heart and mind how long shall with care tormented be?

How long shall my deadly foe
thou triumph over me?

3 Behold me now, my Lord my God
and hear me sore opprest:

Lighen mine eyes, lest that I sleep,
as one by death possesst.

4 Lest that mine enemies say to me,
behold I do prevail:

Lest they also that hate my soul,
rejoyce to see me quail.

5 But from thy mercy and goodness,
my hope shall never faine:

In thy relief and saving health
might glad shall be my faine.

6 I will give thanks unto the Lord,
and praise to him sing,

Because he hath heard my request,
and granted my wishing.

PSALM xiv. T. S.

There is no God, as foolish men
affirm in their mad mood:

Their drifts are all corrupt and vain,
not one of them doth good.

2 The Lord beheld from heaven high
the whole race of mankind:

And saw not one that sought indeed
the living God to find.

3 They were all wide and were corrupt
and truly there was none,

That in the world did any good,
I say, there was not one.

4 Is all their judgment so far lost,
that all work mischief still?

Eating my people even as bread,
not one to seek Gods will?

5 When they thus rage then suddenly great fear on them shall fall:

For God doth love the righteous men,
and will maintain them all.

6 Ye mock the things of the poor,
to their reproach and shame:

Because they put their trust in God,
and call upon his name:

But who shall give thy people health,
and when wilt thou fulfill Thy promise made to Israel,
from out of Zion hill?

Even when thou shalt restore again
such as were captive led:
Then Jacob shall therein rejoyce,
and Israel shall be glad.

PSALM xv. T. 5.

Lord within thy Tabernacle,
who shall inhabit still!
Or whom wilt thou receive to dwell
in thy most holy hill?

The man whose life is uncorrupt,
whose works are just and straight:
whose heart doth think the very truth,
whose tongue speaks no deceit.

Nor to his neighbour doth none ill,
in body, goods, or name:
Nor willingly doth move false tales,
which might empaire the same.

That in his heart regardeth not malicious wicked men:
But those that love and fear the Lord,
he maketh much of them.

His oath and all his promises
that keepeth faithfully:
Although he make his covenant so,
that he doth lose thereby.

That putteth not to usury
his money and his coyne:
Nor for to hurt the innocent,
doth bribe or else perloyne.

Who so doth all things as you bid
that here is to be done:
shall never perish in this world,
nor in the world to come.

PSALM xvi. T. 5.

Lord keep me, for I trust in thee,
and do confesse indeed
thou art my God, and of my goods
O Lord thou hast no need.

I give my goods unto the Saints,
that in the world do dwell:
and namely to the faithfull flock
in vertue that excell.

They shall heap sorrows on their heads
which run as they were mad
To offer to the idol gods,
alas it is too bad.

As for their bloody sacrifice,
and offerings of that sort,
I will not touch, nor yet thereof
my lips shall make report.

For why? the Lord the portion is
of mine inheritance:
And thou art he that dost maintain
my rent, my lot, my chance.

The grace wherein my lot did fall,
thou hast not hid from mine eyes.

Myne heritage assign'd to me,
doth please me wondrous well.

I thank the Lord that caused me
to understand the right:
For by his meane my secret thoughts
do teach me every night.

I fet the Lord still in my sight,
and trust him over all:
For he doth stand on my right hand,
therefore I shall not fall.

Wherefore my heart and tongue alway
do both rejoyce together:
My flesh and body rest in hope,
when I this thing consider.

Thou wilt not leave my soul in grave,
for Lord thou lovest me:
Nor yet wilt give thy holy one,
corruption for to see.

But wilt me teach the way to life,
for all treasure and store
Of perfect joy are in thy face,
and power for evermore.

PSALM xvii. T. 5.

Lord give ear to my just cause,
attend when I complain:
And hear the prayer that I put forth,
with lips that do not faine.

And let the judgment of my cause,
proceed alwaies from thee:
And let thine eyes behold and clear
this my simplicity.

Thou hast well tri'd me in the night,
and yet couldst nothing finde
That I have spoken with my tongue,
that was not in my minde.

As for the works of wicked men,
and paths perverse and ill,
For love of thy most holy Name,
I have refrained still.

Then in thy paths that be most pure
stay me Lord and preserve:
That from the way wherein I walk,
my steps may never swerve.

For I do call to thee O Lord,
surely thou wilt me aid:
Then hear my prayer & weigh right well
the words that I have said.

O thou the Saviour of all them
that put their trust in thee:
Declare thy strength on them that spurn against thy Majesty.

O keep me as thou wouldst keep
the apple of thine eye:
And under covert of thy wings
defend me secretly.

The second Part.

From wicked men that trouble me,
and daily me annoy:
And from my foes that go about my soul to destroy.

Which wallow in their worldly wealth,
to sell us they and buy.

Psalm xvii).

Thar in thair pride they do not care
to speak they care not what.

21 They lie in wait where I should pass,
with craft me to confound :

And musing mischief in their mind
to cast me to the ground.

22 Much like a Lion greedily
that would his prey embrace :

Or lurking like a Lions whelp,
within some secret place.

23 Up Lord, in haste prevent my foe,
and cast him at thy feet :

Save thou my soul from the ill man,
and with the sword him smite.

24 Deliver me Lord by thy power,
out of these tyrants hands :

Which now so long time reigned have,
and kept us in their bands.

25 I mean from worldly men, to whom
all worldly goods are rise :

Thar have no hope nor part of joy,
but in this present life.

26 Thou of thy store their bellies fill with pleasure to their mind :

Their children have enough and leave
to theirs the rest behinde.

27 But I shall with pure conscience
behold thy gracious face :

So when I wake I shall be full of thine image and grace.

PSALM xviii. T.S.

O God my strength and fortitude,
of force I must love thee :

Thou art my castle and defense
in my necessity.

2 My God my Rock in whom I trust,
the worker of my wealth :

My refuge, buckler and my shield,
the horn of all my health.

3 When I sing hand unto the Lord,
most worthy to be serv'd :

Then from my foes I am right sure,
thar I shall be preserv'd.

4 The pangs of death did compass me,
and bound me every where :

The rowing waves of wickedness
did put me in great fear.

5 The sie and subtil snares of hell
were round about me set :

And for my death there was prepared
a deadly trapping net.

6 I thus beset with pain and grief,
did pray to God for grace :

And he forthwith did hear my plaint
out of his holy place.

7 Such is his power, thar in his wrath
he made the earth to quake :

Yea the foundation of the mount
of Basan for to shake.

8 And from his nostrils came a smoke,
when kindled was his ire :

And from his mouth came kindled fire.

9 The Lord descended from above,
and bowed the heavens high :

And underneath his feet he cast
the darkness of the sky.

10 On Cherubs and on Cherubims
full royally he rode :

And on the wings of all the winds
came flying all abroad.

The second Part.

11 And like a den most dark he made his hid and secret place :

With waters black and airy clouds
environed he was.

12 But when the presence of his face
in brightness shall appear :

Then clouds consume, and in their stead
come hail and coles of fire.

13 The fiery darts and thunder bolts
disperse them here and there :

And with his often lightnings
he puts them in great fear.

14 Lord, at thy wrath and threatenings,
and at thy chiding cheer,

The springs and the foundations
of all the world appear.

15 And from above the Lord sent down
to fetch me from below :

And pluck'd me out of waters great,
thar would me overflow.

16 And me delivered from my foes,
thar would have made me thrall :

Yea from such foes as were too strong
for me to deal withall.

17 They did prevent me to oppress
in time of my great grief :

But yet the Lord was my defence,
my succour and relief.

18 He brought me forth in open place,
whereas I might be free :

And kept me safe, because he had a favour unto me.

19 And as I was an innocent,
so did he me regard :

And to the cleanness of my hands
he gave me my reward.

20 For thar I walked in his waies,
and in his paths have trod :

And have not sinned wickedly against my Lord and God.

The third Part.

21 But evermore I have respect
to his law and decree :

His statutes and commandment
I cast not out from me.

22 But pure and clean and uncorrupt,
appear'd before his face :

And did refrain from wickedness
and sin in any case.

23 The Lord therefore will me reward
as I have done aright :

And to the cleanness of my hands,
appearing in his sight.

24 For Lord with holiness

And with the good and virtuous men
right verily will do.

40 And to the loving and elect thy love thou wilt reserve:

And thou wilt use the wicked men,
as wished men deserve.

41 For thou dost save the simple folk
in trouble when they lie:

And dost bring down the countenance
of them that look full high.

42 The Lord will light my candle for that it shall shine full bright:

The Lord my God will make also
my darkness to be light.

43 For by thy help an host of men
discusseth Lord I shall:

By thee I scale and over-leap
the strength of any wall.

44 Unpossess are the ways of God,
his Word is purely true:

He is a sure defence to such as in his faith abide.

45 For who is God except the Lord?
For other there is none:

Or else, who is omnipotent,
saving our God alone?

The fourth Part.

46 The God that girdeth me with strength
is he that I do mean:

That all the ways wherein I walk,
did evermore keep clean.

47 That made my feet like to the Harts,
in swiftness of my pace:

And for my surety brought me forth
into an open place.

48 He did in order put my hands
to battle and to fight:

To break in sunder bars of brass,
he gave mine arms the might.

49 Thou teachest me thy saving health,
thy right hand is my power:

Thy love and familiarity
doth still increase my power.

50 And under me thou makest plain
the way where I should walk:

So that my feet shall never slip,
nor stumble at a balk.

51 And mercely I pursue and take
my foes that me annoy:

And from the field do not return,
till they be all destroyed.

52 So I suppress and wound my foes
that they can rise no more:

For as my feet they fall down flat,
I strike them all so fore.

53 For thou dost gird me with thy strength
to war in such a wise:

That they be all scattered abroad,
that up against me lie.

40 They call'd for help, but none gave ear,
nor help them with relief:

Yea to the Lord, they call'd for help,
yet heard he not their grief.

The fifth Part.

41 And still like dust before the wind,
I drive them under feet:

And sweep them out like filthy clay,
that sticketh in the street.

42 Thou keep'st me from seditious folk that still in strife are led:

And thou dost of the hearthen folk appoint me to be head.

43 A people strange to me unknown,
and yet they shall me serve:

And at the first obey my Word:
whereas mine own will swerve.

44 I shall be irksome to mine own,
they will not see my light:

But wander wide out of the way,
and hide them out of sight.

45 But blessed be the living Lord,
most worthy of all praise:

That is my rock and saving health,
praised be he always.

46 For God it is that gave me power
revenged for to be:

And with his holy Word subdu'd
the people unto me.

47 And from my foe deliver'd me,
and set me above those

That cruel and ungodly were,
and up against me rose.

48 And for this cause, O Lord my God,
to thee give thanks I shall:

And sing our praises to thy Name,
among the Gentiles all:

49 That gavest great prosperity
unto the King I say:

To David thine anointed King
and to his seed for ay.

PSALM xix. T. S.

THE heavens and the firmament
do wondrously declare

The glory of God omnipotent,
his works and what they are.

1 The wondrous works of God appear
by every daies success:

The nights likewise which their race run
the self same thing express.

2 There is no language, tongue, or speech
where their sound is not heard:

In all the earth and coasts thereof
their knowledge is conferr'd.

3 In them the Lord made for the Sun
a place of great renown:

Who like a bridegroom ready trim'd
doth from his chamber come.

4 And as a valiant champion,
who for to get a prize,

With joy doth hate to take in hand
some noble encounter.

Psalm xx.xx). xxi).

6 And all the stile from end to end
he compasseth about :
Nothing can hide it from his hear,
but he will find it out.

7 How perfect is the law of God,
how is his Covenant sure :

Converting souls, and making wise
the simple and obdurate :

8 Just are the Lords commandments,
and glad both heart and mind :
His precepts pure, and giveth light to eyes that be full blind.

9 The fear of God is excellent,
and doth endure for ever :
The judgments of the Lord are true,
and righteous altogether :

10 And more to be embrac'd alway,
than tined gold I say :

The honey and the honey-comb
are not so sweet as they.

11 By them thy servant is fore-warn'd
to have God in regard :

And in performance of the same,
there shall be great reward.

12 But Lord what earthly man doth know
the errors of his life ?

Then cleanse me from my secret sins,
which are in me most ripe.

13 And keep me that presumptuous sins
prevail not over me :

And so shall I be innocent,
and great offences flee.

14 Accept my mouth and eke my heart,
my words and thoughts each one :

For my Redeemer and my strength,
O Lord thou art alone.

PSALM xx. 7. 5.

IN trouble and adversity,
the Lord God hear thee still :

The Majesty of Jacobs God defend thee from all ill.

2 And send thee from his holy place
His help at every need :

And so in Sion stablish thee,
and make thee strong indeed.

3 Remembering well the sacrifice,
that slow to him is done :

And to receive right thankfully thy burnt-offerings each one.

4 According to thy hearts desire,
the Lord grant unto thee :

And all thy counsel and device,
fullwell perform may be.

5 We shall rejoyce when thou us sav'st
and our banners display

Unto the Lord, which thy requests fulfilled hath alway.

6 The Lord will his appointed save,
I know well by his grace :

And send him help by his right hand
out of his holy place.

7 In tribulation some put confidence,

But we remember God our Lord,
that keepeth promise just.

8 They fall down flat, but we do rise
and stand up stedfastly :

9 Now save and help us Lord and King
on thee when we do cry.

PSALM xxi. 7. 5.

O Lord how joyfull is the King,
in thy strength and thy power :

How vehemently doth he rejoyce
in thee his Saviour :

2 For thou hast given unto him
his godly hearts desire :

To him nothing thou hast denied
of that he did require.

3 Thou didst prevent him with thy gifts,
and blessings manifold :

And thou hast set upon his head
a crown of perfect gold.

4 And when he asked life of thee,
thereof thou mad'st him sure :

To have long life, yea such a life
as ever shall endure.

5 Great is his glory by thy help,
thy benefit and aid :

Great worship and great honour both thou hast upon him laid.

6 Thou wilt give him felicity,
that never shall decay :

And with thy cheerfull countenance
wilt comfort him alway.

7 For why, the King doth strongly trust
in God for to prevail :

Wherefore his goodness and his grace
will not that he shall quail.

8 But let thine enemies feel thy force,
and those that thee withstand :

Find out thy foes, and let them feel
the power of thy right hand.

9 And like an oven burn them Lord,
in fiery flame and fume :

Thine anger shall destroy them all,
and fire shall them consume.

10 And thou shalt root out of the earth
their fruit that should increase :

And from the number of thy folk
their seed shall end and cease.

11 For why, much mischief did they make against thy holy Name :

Yet did they fail, and had no power
for to perform the same.

12 But as a mark thou shalt them set
in a most open place :

And charge thy lowliness readily against thine enemies face.

13 Be thou exalted Lord therefore in thy strength every hour :

So shall we sing right so amply,
praising thy might and power.

PSALM xxi. 7. 5.

O God our God, whose are all

and helpst not when I do make my great complaint and cry :
a To thee my God even all day long
I go both cry and call :
because not all the night, and yet
thou hearest nor art still.

3 Even thou that in thy Sanctuary,
and holy place dost dwell :
Thou art the comfort and the joy,
and glory of Israel.

4 And he in whom our fathers old
had all their hope for ever :
And when they put their trust in thee,
thou didst them aye deliver.

5 They were delivered ever when they called on thy Name :

And for the faith they had in thee,
they were not put to shame.

6 But I am now become a worm,
more like than any man :

As out-cast whom the people scorn,
with all the spite they can.

7 All men despise as they behold me walking on the way : (heads

They grin, they mock, they nod their
and on this wise they say :

8 This man did glory in the Lord,
his favour and his love :

Let him redeem and help him now,
his power if he will prove.

9 But Lord our of my mothers womb,
I came by thy behest :

Thou didst preserve me still in hope,
while I did suck her breast.

10 I was committed from my birth,
with thee to have abode :

Since I was in my mothers womb,
thou hast been ere my God.

The second Part.

11 Then Lord depart not now from me,
in this my present grief :

Since I have none to be my help,
my succour and relief.

12 So many bulls do compass me,
that be full strong of head :

Beasts only so far, as though they had in Bashan field been fed.

13 They gape upon me greedily,
as though they would me slay :

Much like a Lion roaring out,
and ramping for his prey.

14 But I drop down like water shed,
my joints in sunder break :

My heart doth in my body melt,
like wax against the heat.

15 And like a postheard dri'th my my tongue it cleaveth fast (strength

unto my jaws, and I am brought to dust of death at last.

16 And many dogs do compass me,
and wicked counsel eke

doth set against me earnestly.

17 I was tormented, so that I might all my bones have sold :
Yet still upon me they do look,
and still they me behold.

18 My garments they divided eke
in parts among them all :
And for my coat they did cast lots,
to whom it might befall.

19 Therefore I pray thee be not farre
from me at my great need :

But rather sith thou art my strength,
to help me Lord make speed.

20 And from the sword Lord save my soul
by thy might and thy power :

And keep my soul, thy darling dear,
from dogs that would devour.

21 And from the Lions mouth that would
me all in sunder thiver :

And from the horns of Unicorne
Lord safely me deliver.

22 Then shall I to my brethren all thy majesty record :

And in thy Church shall praise the Name
of thee the living Lord.

The third Part.

23 All ye that fear him, praise the Lord,
thou Jacob honour him :

And all ye seed of Israel
with reverence worship him.

24 For he despiseth not the poor,
he turneth not awry.

His countenance when they do call,
be granted to their cry.

25 Among the folk that fear the Lord,
I will therefore proclaim

Thy praise, and keep my promise made for setting forth thy Name.

26 The poor shall hear and be suffic'd
and those that do endeavour

To know the Lord, shall praise his Name
their hearts shall live for ever.

27 All coasts of th' earth shall praise the
and run to him for grace : (Lord,

The heathen folk shall worship him
before his blessed face.

28 The Kingdom of the heathen folk the Lord shall have therefore :

And he shall be their governour,
and King for evermore.

29 The rich men of his goodly gifts,
shall feed and taste also :

And in his presence worship him,
and bow their knees full low.

30 And all that shall go down to dust,
of life by him shall taste :

My seed shall serve and praise the Lord,
while any world shall last.

31 My seed shall plainly shew to them
that shall be born hereafter,

His justice and his righteousness.

PSALM cxlii. W. W.

The Lord is only my support,
and he that doth me feed:
How can I then lack any thing,
whereof I stand in need?
2 He doth me fold in coats most safe,
the tender graft fast by:
And after drives me to the fountains
which run most pleasantly.
3 And when I feel my self near lost,
thou doth he me home take:
Conducing me in his right pathes,
even for his own Names sake.
4 And though I were even at deaths door
yet would I fear none ill:
For with thy rod and shepherds crook,
I am comforted still.
5 Thou hast my table richly deck'd,
in despite of my foe:
Thou hast my head with balm refresh'd
my cup doth overflow.
6 And finally, while breath doth last,
thy grace shall me defend:
And in the house of God will I
my life for ever spend.

Another of the same by T. S.

My shepherd is the living Lord,
nothing therefore I need:
In pastures fair with waters calm,
he sets me for to feed.
2 He did convert and glad my soul,
and brought my mind in frame
To walk in paths of righteousness,
for his most holy Name.
3 Yea though I walk in vale of death,
yet will I fear none ill:
Thy rod, thy staff doth comfort me,
and thou art with me still.
4 And in the presence of my foes,
my table thou shalt spread:
Thou shalt (O Lord) fill full my cup,
and eke anoint my head.
5 Through all my life thy favour is so frankly shewed to me:
That in thy house for evermore
my dwelling place shall be.

PSALM cxiv. I. H.

The earth is all the Lords, with all
her store and furniture:
Yea his is all the world, and all that therein doth endure.
2 For he hath fastly founded it,
above the seas to stand:
And laid abow the liquid floods,
to flow beneath the land.
3 For who is he O Lord that shall ascend into thy hill?
Or pass into thy holy place,
there to continue still? (heav'n) 4 Whose hands are harmless, and whose
no spot there doth defile:
His soul not set on vanity.

5 Him that is such an one, the Lord shall place in blissfull plight:
And God his God and Saviour
shall yeeld to him his right.
6 This is the brood of scavelers,
in seeking of his grace:
As Jacob did the Israelites,
in thair time of his race.

7 Ye Princes ope your gates, stand ope
the everlasting gate:
For there shall enter in thereby
the King of glorious state.
8 Who is the King of glorious state,
the strong and mighty Lord:
The mighty Lord in barrell strong,
and triall of the sword.

9 Ye Princes ope your gates, stand ope
the everlasting gate:
For there shall enter in thereby
the King of glorious state.
10 Who is the King of glorious state,
the Lord of hosts it is:
The Kingdom and the royalty
of glorious state is his.

PSALM cxv. T. S.

I Lift my heart to thee,
my God and guide most just:
Now suffer me to take no shame,
for in thee do I trust.
1 Let not my feet rejoice,
nor make a scorn of me:
And let them not be overthrowne,
that put their trust in thee.
2 But shame shall them befall,
which harm them wrongfully:
Therefore thy paths and thy right walke
unto me Lord desire.
3 Direct me in thy truth,
and teach me, I thee pray:
Thou art my God and Saviour,
on thee I wair alway.
4 Thy mercies manifold,
I pray thee, Lord, remember,
And eke thy pity plentiful,
for they have been for ever.
5 Remember not the faults
and frailty of my youth:
Remember not how ignorant
I have been of thy truth.
Nor as for my deserts
let me thy mercy find:
But of thine own benignity,
Lord, have me in thy mind.
7 His mercy is full sweet,
his truth a perfect guide:
Therefore the Lord will sinners teach,
and such as go aside.
8 The humble he will teach his precepts for to keep:
He will direct in all his wayes,
the lowly and the meek.
9 For all the wayes of God

To them that keep his Testament,
the witnesses of his troth.

The second Part.

10 Now for thy holy Name,
O Lord, I thee increas,
To grant me pardon for my sin,
for it is wondrous great.
11 Who so doth fear the Lord,
the Lord will him direct:
To lead his life in such a way
as he doth best accept.
12 His soul shall evermore
in goodness dwell and stand:
His seed and his posterity
inherit shall the Land.
13 All those that fear the Lord,
know his secret intent:
And unto them he doth declare his Will and Testament.
14 Mine eyes and eke my heart
to him I will advance:
That pluck'd my feet out of the snare
of sin and ignorance.
15 With mercy me behold,
to thee I make my mone:
For I am poor and desolate;
and comfortless alone.

16 The troubles of my heart,
ere multipli'd indeed:
Bring me out of this misery,
necessity and need.
17 Behold my poverty,
mine anguish and my pain:
Remit my sin and mine offence
and make me clean again.
18 O Lord, behold my foes
how they do still increase:
Pursuing me with deadly hate,
that fain would live in peace.
19 Preserve and keep my soul,
and eke deliver me:
And let me not be overthrown,
because I trust in thee.

20 Let my simple parents
me from my enemies send:
Because I look as one of thine;
that thou should'st me defend.
21 Deliver, Lord, thy folk,
and send them some relief,
I mean thy cho'en Israel,
from all their pain and grief.

PSALM xxvi. T. s.

Lord be my Judge and thou shalt see,
my paths be right and plain:
Trust in God, and hope that he will strength me to remain.
2 Prove me my God, I thee desire,
my wayes to search and try:
As men do prove their gold with fire,
my reins and heart espy.
3 Thy goodness laid before my face,

For of thy truth I tread the track,
and will do all my dayes.

4 I do not lust to haue or use,
with men whose deeds are vain:
To come in house I do refuse,
with the deceitfull train.

5 I much abhor the wicked sort,
their deeds I do despise:
I do not once to them resort,
that hurtfull things devise.

6 My hands I wain and do proceed
in works to walk upright.
Then to thine altar I make speed
to offer there in sight.

7 That I may speak and preach the praise
that doth belong to thee:
And so declare how wondrous wayes
thou hast been good to me.

8 O God thy house I love most dear,
to me it doth excell:
I have delight, and would be near
whereas thy grace doth dwell.

9 O shut not up my soul with them,
in sin that take their fill:
Nor yet my life among those men,
that seek much blood to spill.

10 Whose hands are heapt with craft and their lives thereof are full: (grief)
And their right hand is wench & wife
for bribes doth pluck and pull.

11 But I in righteousness intend
my time and dayes to serve:
Have mercy Lord, and me defend,
so that I do not swerve.

12 My foot is staid for all assayes,
it standeth well and right:
Wherefore to God will I give praise
in all the peoples sight.

PSALM xxvii. T. s.

The Lord is both my health & light,
shall man make me dismayd?

2 Sith God doth give me strength & might why should I be afraid? (Strength)

3 While that my foes with all their begin with me to brawl:
And think to eat me up at length themselves have caught the fall.

4 Though they in camp against me lie,
my heart is not afraid:
In battle fight if they will try,
I trust in God for aid.

5 One thing of God I do require,
that he would not deny:
For which I pray and will desire,
till he to me apply.

6 That I within his holy place
my life throughout may dwell:
To see the beauty of his face,
and view his Temple well.

7 In time of dread he shall me hide,
within his place most free:
And keep me secret by his side,

7 As length I know the Lords good grace
shall make me strong and stout,
My foes to foil and clean deface;
that compass me about.

8 Therefore within his house will I give sacrifice of praise:
With Psalms and Songs I will apply
to laud the Lord alwayes.

The second Part.

9 Lord hear the voice of my request,
for which to thee I call:

Have mercy Lord on me oppress,
and send me help withall.

10 My heart doth knowledge unto thee
I sue to have thy grace:

Then seek my face fast thou to me,
Lord I will seek thy face.

11 In wrath turn, not thy face away,
nor suffer me to slide:

Thou art my help still to this day,
be still my God and guide.

12 My parents both their son forsook,
and cast me off at large:

And then the Lord himself yet took
of me the care and charge.

13 Teach me, O Lord, the way to thee,
and lead me on forth right:

For fear of such as watch for me to trap me if they might 14 Do not betray me to the will,

of them that be my foes:

For they surmise against me still,
falle witness to depole.

15 My heart would faint but that in me
this hope is fixed fast:

The Lord Gods good grace shall I see in life that aye shall last.

16 Trust still in God whose whole thou
his will abide thou must:

And he shall ease and strength thy heart,
if thou in him do trust.

PSALM xxviii. 7. 3.

Thou art (O Lord) my strength and the succour which I crave: (say

Neglect me not, lest I be like
to them that go to grave.

1 The voice of thy suppliant heart
that unto thee doth cry:

When I lift up my hands unto thy holy Ark most high.

2 Repute me not among the sort of wicked and pervers:

That speak right fair unto their friends
but think full ill in heart.

3 According to their handy-work,
as they deserve indeed:

And after their inventions
let them receive their meed.

4 For they regard nothing Gods work,
his law ne yet his lore:

Therefore will he them and their seed,
destroy for evermore.

5 To render thanks unto the Lord,

My voice, my sweeter, and my complaining that heard to willingly?

7 He is my shield and Garride,
my buckler in distress:

My hope, my help, my hearts relief,
my song shall him confess.

8 He is our strength and our defence,
our enemies to resist:

The health and the salvation
of his elect by Christ.

9 Thy people and thine heritage
Lord blest guide and preserve:

Increase them Lord & rule their hearts,
that they may never swerve.

PSALM xxx. 7. 3.

Give to the Lord ye Forefathers
ye Rulers of the world:

Give ye all praise, honour and strength
unto the living Lord.

2 Give glory to his holy Name,
and honour him alone:

Worship him in his Majesty,
within his holy throne.

3 His voice doth rule the waters all
even as himself doth please:

He doth prepare the thunder-claps,
and governs all the seas.

4 The voice of God is of great force,
and wondrous excellent:

It is most mighty in effect,
and most magnificent.

5 The voice of God doth rend and break
the Cedar-trees so long:

The Cedar-trees of Lebanon,
which are most high and strong.

6 And makes them leap like as a Calb,
or else the Unicorn:

Not only trees, but mountains great whereon the trees are born.

7 His voice divides the flames of fire,
and shaves the wilderness:

It makes the desert quake for fear,
that called is Cadesh.

8 It makes the Hinds for fear to calve
and makes the coverts plain:

Then in his Temple every man
his glory doth proclaim.

9 The Lord was set above the floods,
ruling the raging sea:

So shall he reign as Lord and King,
for ever and for aye.

10 The Lord will give his people power
in virtue to increase:

The Lord will bless his chosen flock
with everlasting peace.

PSALM xxx. 7. H.

All laud and praise, with heart and
O Lord I give to thee: (voiced

Which didst not make my foes rejoice
but hast exalted me.

2 O Lord my God to thee I cry

Thou gav'st an ear and didst provide to ease me with relief.

3 Of thy good will thou hast call'd back
my soul from hell to save:

Thou didst revive when strength did lack
and kepiſt me from the grave.

4 Sing praise ye Saints that prove and ſee
the goodneſſe of the Lord:

In memory of his Maieſty
rejoyce with one accord.

5 For why this anger but a ſpace
doth laſt, and ſlack again:

But in his favour and his grace
alwaies doth life remain.

Though gripes of grief & pangfull ſore
ſhall lodge joy with us all night:

The Lord to joy ſhall us reſtore
before the day be light.

6 When I enjoy'd the world at will,
thus would I boaiſt and ſay:

Tuſh I am ſure to feel none ill,
this wealth ſhall not decay.

7 For thou O Lord of thy good grace
haſt ſent me ſtrength and aid:

But when thou turn'd'ſt away thy face,
my mind was ſore diſmaid.

8 Wherefore again yet did I cry
to thee O Lord of might:

My God with plaints I did apply,
and pray'd both day and night.

9 What gain is in my blood (ſaid I)
if death deſtroy my daies?

Doſt thou declare thy Maieſty,
or yet thy truth doth praise?

10 Wherefore my God ſome pity make,
O Lord I thee deſire:

Do not this ſimple ſoul forſake,
of help I thee require.

11 Then didſt thou turn my grief & woe
into a cheerful voice:

The mourning weed thou took'ſt me fro,
and mad'ſt it me to rejoyce.

12 Wherefore my ſoul unceſſantly
ſhall ſing unto thy praise:

My Lord my God to thee will I give laud and thanks alwaies.

PSALM xxxi. I. H.

O Lord I put my truſt in thee,
let nothing worke me ſhame:

As thou art juſt deliver me,
and ſet me quit from blame.

2 Hear me O God, and chat anon,
to help me make good ſpeed:

Be thou my rock and houſe of ſtone,
my ſence in time of need.

3 For why as ſtones thy ſtrength is tri'd
thou art my ſort and tower:

For thy Names ſake be thou my guide,
and lead me in thy power.

4 Pluck thou my fear out of the ſnare

Thou art my ſtrength, and all my aid
is for thy might and aid.

5 Into thy hands Lord I commit
my ſpirit which is thy due:

For why thou haſt redeemed it,
O Lord my God moſt true.

6 I hate ſuch folk as will not part
from things to be abhor'd:

When they on triſles ſet their heart,
my truſt is in the Lord.

7 For I will in thy mercy joy,
I ſee it doth excell:

Thou ſeeſt when ought would me annoy
and knowſt my ſoul full well.

8 Thou haſt not leſt me in th'ir hands,
that would me overcharge:

But thou haſt ſet me out of band,
to walk abroad at large.

The ſecond Part.

9 Great grief O Lord doth me aſſail, ſome pity on me take:

Min'e eyes wax dim, my ſight doth fail
my womb for woe doth ake.

10 My life is worn with grief and pain
my years in woe are paſt:

My ſtrength is gone, and through diſdain
my bones corrupt and waſte.

11 Among my foes I am a ſcorn,
my friends are all diſmaid:

My neighbours and my kinſmen borne
to ſee me are afraid.

12 As men once dead are out of mind,
ſo am I now forgot:

As ſmall eſſet in me they find,
as in a broken pot.

13 I heard the brags of all the rout,
their threats my mind did fray:

How they conſpir'd, and went about
to rake my life away.

14 But Lord I truſt in thee for aid,
not to be over-trod:

For I confeſs and ſtill have ſaid,
thou art my Lord and God.

15 The length of all my life and age
O Lord is in thy hand:

Defend me from the wrath and rage
of them that me withſtand.

16 To me thy ſervant (Lord) expreſs,
and ſhow thy joyfull face:

And ſave me Lord for thy goodneſſe,
thy mercy and thy grace.

The third Part.

17 Lord let me not be put to blame,
for that on thee I call:

But let the wicked bear the ſhame,
and in their grave ro fall.

18 O Lord make dumb their lips outright
which are addit' to lies:

And cruelly with pride and ſpight
againſt the juſt deviſe.

19 O how great and how high is thy

Psalm xxxii. xxxiii.

That fear and trust in thee therefore,
before the sonnes of men! (guide
so Thy presence shall them fence and from all proud brags and wrongs:
Within thy place thou shalt them hide
from all the strife of tongues.

- 21 Thanks to the Lord that hath declar'd
on me his grace so farre:
Me to defend with watch and ward,
as in a town of warre.
22 Thus did I say both day and night,
when I was sore oppress'd:
Lo I was clean cast out of sight,
yet heardst thou my request.
23 Ye Saints love ye the Lord, I say,
the faithfull he doth guide:
And so the proud he doth repay
according to their pride.
24 Be strong and God will stay your heart
be bold and have a lust:
For sure the Lord will take your part,
sith ye in him do trust.

PSALM xxxii. T.S.

The man is blest whose wickedness
the Lord hath clean remitted:
And he whose sin and wickedness
is hid and also covered.

2 And blest is he to whom the Lord
imputeth nor his sin:
Which in his heart hath hid no guile,
nor fraud is found therein.

3 For whilst that I kept close my sin
in silence and constrain:
My bones did wear and waste away
with daily mone and pain.

4 For night and day thy hand on me
so grievous was and smart,
That all my blood and humours moist
to driness did convert.

5 I did therefore confess my faults,
and all my sins discover:
Then thou, O Lord, didst me forgive,
and all my sins past over.

6 The humble man shall pray therefore,
and seek thee in due time:
So shall the floods of waters great
shall have no power on him.

7 When trouble and adversity
do compass me about:
Thou art my refuge and my joy,
and thou dost rid me out.

8 Come hither and I will thee teach
how thou shalt walk aright:
I will thee guide, as I myself
have learn'd by proof and sight.

9 Be not so rude and ignorant
as is the horse and mule:
Whose mouth without a rein or bit
from harm thou canst nor rule.

10 The wicked man shall manifold sorrows and griefs obtain:
But unto him that trusts in God,
his goodness shall remain.

21 Be merry therefore in the Lord,
ye just lift up your voice:
And ye of pure and perfect hearts,
be glad and cheerejoyce.

PSALM xxxiii. J. H.

Ye righteous in the Lord rejoice,
it is a seemly sight,
That upright men with thankfull voice
should praise the Lord of might:
a Praise ye the Lord with harp and song
in Psalms and pleasant things:
With Lute, and Instrument among,
that soundeth with ten strings.

3 Sing to the Lord a song most new,
with courage give him praise:
4 For why? his word is ever true,
his works and all his waies.
5 To judgment, equity and right,
he hath a great good will:
And with his gifts he doth delight
the earth throughout to fill.

6 For by the word of God alone
the heavens all were wrought:
Their hosts and powers every one
his breath to pass hath brought.

7 The waters great gathered hath he
on heaps within the shore:
And hid them in the depth to be,
as in a house of store.

8 All men on earth both least and most fear God and keep his Law:
Ye that inhabit in each coast,
dread him and stand in awe.

9 What he commanded wrought it was at once with perfect speed:
What he doth will is brought to pass
with full effect indeed.

10 The counsels of the nations reach
the Lord doth bring to nought:
He doth defeat the multitude of their device and thought.

11 But his decrees continue still,
they never slack nor swage:
The motions of his mind and will take place in every age.

The second Part.

12 And blest are they to whom the Lord
as God and guide is known:
Whom he doth choose of meeke accord,
to take them as his own.

13 The Lord from heaven cast his sight,
on men mortall by birth:
14 Considering from his seat of might
the dwellers on the earth.

15 The Lord, I say, whose hand hath wrought
mans heart, and doth it frame:
For he alone doth know the thought
and working of the same.

16 Asking that trusteth in his host,
shall nought prevail as length:
The man that of his might doth boast,
shall fall for all his strength.

17 The troops of northern the shall fall,
their sturdy steeds shall nerve :
The strength of horse shall nor prevaile;
the rider to preserve.
18 But lo the eyes of God intend and watch to aid the just :
Wish such as fear him to offend,
and on his goodness trust.

19 That he of death and great distresse
may set their soules from dread :
And if that dearth their land oppresse,
in hunger them to feed.
20 Wherefore our soule doth whole depend on God our strength and stay,
He is our shield us to defend,
and drive all darts away.

21 Our soule in God hath joy and game,
rejoycing in his might :
For why? in his most holy Name
we hope and much delight.
22 Therefore let thy goodness, O Lord
still present with us be :
As we alwayes with one accord,
do only trust in thee.

PSALM XXXIV. T. S.

I Will give laud and honour both
unto the Lord alwayes :
And eke my mouth for evermore
shall speak unto his praise.
2 I do delight to laud the Lord
in soul and eke in voice :
That humble men and mortall
may hear and so rejoyce.

3 Therefore see that ye magnifie
with me the living Lord :
And let us now exalt his Name
together with one accord.
4 For I my self besought the Lord,
he answered me again :
And me deliver & incontinent
from all my fear and pain.

5 Who so they be that him behold,
shall see his light most clear,
Their countenance shall nor be dasht,
they need it not to fear.
6 This silly wretch for some relief,
unto the Lord did call :
Who did him hear without delay,
and rid him out of thrall.

7 The Angel of the Lord doth pitch
his tents in every place :
To save all such as fear the Lord,
that nothing them deface.
8 Taste and consider well therefore,
that God is good and just :
O happy man that maker him
his only stay and trust.

9 Fear ye the Lord ye holy ones,
above all earthly thing :
For they thus fear the living Lord,
use force no lecherous thing.
10 The Lions shall be hunger bit,
and want it with sinister mouth :

But as for them that fear the Lord,
no lack shall be to such.

The Second Part.

11 Come near therefore my children dear
and to my words give ear :
I shall ye teach the perfect way,
how ye the Lord should fear.

12 Who is the man that would live long,
and lead a blessed life?
13 See thou refrain thy tongue and lips
from all deceit and strife.

14 Turn back thy face from doing ill,
and do the godly deed :
Inquire for peace and righteousness,
and follow it with speed.

15 For why? the eyes of God above,
upon the just are bent :
His ears likewise do hear the plaints
of the poor innocent.

16 But he doth frown and bend his brow
upon the wicked train :
And curs away the memory,
that should of them remain.

17 But when the just do call and cry,
the Lord doth hear them so,
That out of pain and misery
forthwith he lets them go.

18 The Lord is kind and straight at hand
to such as be contrite :
He saves also the sorrowfull,
the poor and meek in spirit.
19 Full many be the miseries
that righteous men do suffer :
But out of all adversities
the Lord doth them deliver.

20 The Lord doth so preserve and keep their very bones alway :
That not so much as one of them
doth perish or decay.

21 The Lord shall day the wicked man
which he himself hath wrought :
And such as hate the righteous man,
shall soon be brought to nought.

22 But they that fear the living Lord,
the Lord doth save them sound :
And who that put their trust in him,
nothing shall them confound.

PSALM XXXV. T. S.

I Ord plead my cause against my foes
confound their force and might :
Fight on my part against all those
that seek with me to fight.

2 Lay hand upon the spear and shield,
thy self in armour drest :
Stand up for me and fight the field,
to help me from distress.

3 Gird on thy sword, and stop the way
mine enemies to withstand :
That thou unto my soul maist say,
lo I thy help at hand.

4 Confound them with rebuke & blame,
that seek my soul to kill :

Let them perchance and see with shame
that think to work me ill.

3 Let them disperse and flee abroad,
as wind dorth drive the dust:

And that the Angel of our God,
their might away may thrust.

6 Let all their wayes be void of light,
and slippery like to fall:

And send rhine Angel with thy might,
to persecute them all.

7 For why? without my fault they have
in secret for their gill:

And for no cause have dig'd a cave
to take my soul therein.

8 When they think least and have no care
O Lord destroy them all:

Let them be traps in their own snare,
and in their mischief fall.

9 And let my soul in heart and voice
in God have joy and wealth:

That in the Lord I may rejoyce,
and in his saving health.

10 And then my bones shall speak & say,
my parts shall all agree:

O Lord though they do seem full gay,
what one is like to thee?

100 THE SECOND PART.

11 Thou dost defend the weak from them
that are both stout and strong:

And rid the poor from wicked men,
that spoil and do them wrong.

12 My cruel foes against me rise,
to witness things untrue:

And to accuse me they devise
of things I never knew.

13 Where I to them did owe good will
they quit me with disdain:

That they should pay my good with ill,
my soul dorth sore complain.

14 When they were sick I mourn'd there,
and clam my self in sack: (fore,

With fasting I did fasten full fore,
to pray I was not slack.

15 As they had been my brethren dear
I did my self behave:

As one that maketh wofull cheer
about his mother grave.

16 But they at my disease did joy,
and gadder on a row:

Yet abject slaves at me did toy,
with mocks and cheeks full stour.

17 The belly gods and flattering tongue,
that all good things deride:

At me do grin with great disdain,
and pluck their mouths aside.

18 Lord why wilt thou so long forbear,
why dost thou stay and pause?

19 Rid my soul, mine only dear,
out of these lions claws.

20 And then will I give thanks to thee,
before the Church alwayes:

And where most of the people be.

Thou wilt I show thy grace.

20 Let not my foes prevail on me,
which hate me for no fault:
Nor let them wink or turn their eyes
that cause me all this.

The third Part.

21 Of peace no word they think or say,
their talk is all untrue:

They still consult, and would betray
all those that peace ensue.

22 With open mouth they run at me,
they gape, they laugh, they sneer:

Well well, say they, our eyedoth see
the thing that we desire.

23 But Lord thou seest what wayes they cease nor my grief to mend:

Be not far off, nor me forsake,
as men that fail their friend.

24 Awake, arise, and stir abroad,
defend me in my right:

Revenge my cause, my Lord, my God,
and aid me with thy might.

25 According to thy righteousness,
my Lord God set me free:

And let them nor their pride express,
nor triumph over me.

26 Let not their hearts rejoyce and cry
there, there, all goeth trim:

Nor give them cause to say on high
we have our will on him.

27 Confound them with rebuke & shame
That joy when I do mourn:

And pay them home with spite & blame
that brag at me with scorn.

28 Let them be glad and eke rejoyce,
which love mine upright way.

And they all times with heart and voice
shall praise the Lord, and say,

29 Great is the Lord and dorth excell,
for why he dorth delight

To see his servants prosper well,
that is his pleasant sight.

30 Wherefore my tongue I will apply,
thy righteousness to praise:

Unto my Lord my God will I sing laud and praise alwayes.

PSALM xxxvi. J.H.

The wicked with his works unjust
dorth thus perfwade his heart:

That of the Lord he hath no trust
his fear is set apart.

1 Yet dorth he joy in his estate,
to walk as he began:

So long till he deserve the hate
of God and eke of man.

2 His words are wicked, vile & naughty,
his tongue no truth dorth tell

Yet at no hand will he be taught
which way he may do well.

3 When he should sleep, then dorth he his mischiefes to fulfill:

No wicked wayes dorth he refuse,
nor nothing that is ill.

1 But Lord thy goodness doth ascend
above the heavens high,
So doth thy truth it self extend unto the cloudy skie.

2 Much more than hills so high and steep,
thy justice is express :

3 Thy judgments like to seas most deep,
thou say'st both man and beast.

4 Thy mercy is above all things,
O God it doth excell :

5 In trust wherof as in thy wings,
the fowles of men shall dwell.

6 Within thy house they shall be fed,
with plenty at their will :

7 Of all delights they shall be fed,
and take thereof their fill.

For why? the well of life so pure
doth ever flow from thee :

8 And in thy light we are full sure
the lasting light to see.

9 From such as thee desire to know,
let not thy grace depart :

10 Thy righteousness declare and shew
to men of upright heart.

11 Let not the proud on me prevail,
O Lord of thy good grace :

12 Nor let the wicked me assail,
to throw me out of place.

13 But they in their device shall fall,
that wicked works maintain :

14 They shall be overthrowen withall,
and never rise again.

PSALM XXXVII. W. W.

15 Rudge not to see the wicked men,
in wealth to flourish still :

16 Nor yet envy such as to all have bent and set their will.

17 For as green grafs and flourishing
are cut and wither away :

18 So shall their great prosperity
soon pass, fade and decay.

19 Trust thou therefore in God alone,
to do well give thy mind :

20 So shalt thou have the land as thine,
and there sure food shalt find.

21 In God for all thy hearts delight,
and look what thou wouldst have,

22 He will give thee in all the world,
thou needst it not to crave.

23 Cast both thy self and thine affairs,
on God with perfect trust :

24 And thou shalt see with patience,
the effect both sure and just.

25 Thy perfect life and godly name,
he will clear as the light :

26 So that the Sun even at noon daies,
shall not shine half so bright.

27 Be still therefore and stedfastly
on God see thou wait then :

28 No drinking for the prosperous shall be, and no sleep shall be.

29 Shall of delight, envy and hate,
at least in any wise :

30 Their wicked steps avoid and flee
and follow not their guile.

31 For every wicked man will God
destroy both more and less :

32 But such as trust in him are sure
the land for to possess.

33 Watch but a while and thou shalt see
no more the wicked train :

34 No nor so much as house or place
where once he did remain.

The second Part.

35 But mercifull and humble men
enjoy shall sea and land :

36 In rest and peace they shall rejoyce,
for nought shall them withstand.

37 The lewd men and malicious,
against the just conspire :

38 They gnash their teeth at him as men,
which do his bane desire.

39 But while the lewd men thus do think
the Lord laughs them to scorn :

40 For why, he sees the term approach,
when they shall sigh and mourn.

41 The wicked have their swords out-their bow eke have they bent : (drawn

42 To overthrow and kill the prior,
as they the right way went.

43 But the same sword shall pierce their
which was to kill the just : (heart,

44 Likewise the bow shall break to shivers
wherein they put their trust.

45 Doubtless the just mans poor estate
is better a great deal more :

46 Than all these lewd and wicked mens rich pomp and heaped store.

47 For be their power never so strong God will it overthrow :

48 Where contrary he doth preserve
the humble men and low.

49 He sees by his great providence,
the good mens trade and way :

50 And will give them inheritance,
which never shall decay.

51 They shall not be discouraged
when some are hard beset :

52 When other shall be hunger bit,
they shall be glad and fed :

53 For whosoever wicked is,
and enemy to the Lord :

54 Shall quail, yea melt even as lambs greas
or smoke that flies abroad.

The third Part.

55 Behold the wicked borrow much,
and never paies again :

56 Whereas the just by liberal gifts,
makes many glad and full.

57 For they whom God doth bless, shall the land for heritage. (have 58 And they whom he doth curse libere

shall perish with their seed.

- 43 The Lord the just man's
and gives him good succour,
To every thing he takes in hand,
he sendeth good address.
44 Though that he fall, yet is he sure
not utterly to quail,
Because the Lord puts out his hand
at need and doth not fail.
45 I have been young and now am old,
yet did I never see
The just man left, nor yet his seed
to beg for misery.
46 But gives alway most liberally,
and lends whereas is need:
His children and posterity
receive of God their meed.
47 Flee vice therefore and wickedness,
and vertue do embrace:
So shall God grant thee long to have
on earth a dwelling place.
48 For God so loveth equiry,
and shewes to his such grace:
That he preserveth them alway,
but stroyes the wicked race.
49 Whereas the good and godly men
inheris shall the land:
Having as Lords all things therein
in their own power and hand.
50 The just mans mouth shall ever speak
of matters wise and hie:
His tongue doth talk to edifie,
with truth and equiry.
51 For in his heart the Law of God
his Lord doth still abide:
So that where ever he goes or walks,
his foot can never slide.
52 The wicked like a ravens Wolt,
the just man doth beset:
By all means seeking him to kill,
if he fall in his net.

The fourth Part.

- 53 Though he should fall into his hands
yet God would succour send:
Though men against him sentence give,
God would him yet defend.
54 Wait thou on God and keep his way,
he shall preserve thee then
The earth to rule, and thou shalt see destroyd these wicked men.
55 The wicked have I seen most strong,
and plac'd in high degree:
Flourishing in all wealth and store,
as doth the Lawrell tree.
56 But suddainly he past away,
and lo he was quite gone:
Then I him sought, but could not find
the place where dwelt such one.
57 Mark and behold the perfect man,
how God doth him increase:
For the just man shall have at length
great joy with rest and peace.
58 As for transgressours, wo to them,
destroyd they shall all be.

waites doth God will cut off their budding time
and rich posterity.

- 59 But the salvation of the just
doth come from God above:
Who in their trouble sends them aid
of his meer grace and love.
60 God doth them help, save and deliver
from lewd men and unjust:
And still will save them whilst that they
in him do put their trust.

PSALM xxxviii. I. R.

- Put me not to rebuke O Lord,
in thy provoked ire:
Ne in thy heavy wrath O Lord,
correct me I desire.
1 Thine arrows do stick fast in me,
thy hand doth press me sore:
And in my flesh no health at all appeareth any more.
2 And all this is by reason of the wrath that I am in:
Nor any rest is in my bones,
by reason of my sinne.
3 For lo my wicked doings (Lord)
above my head are gone:
A greater load than I can bear,
they lie me sore upon.
4 My wounds stink and are fettered so,
as loathsome is to see:
Which all through mine own foolishness
berideth unto me.
5 And I in carefull wise am brought
in trouble and distress:
That I go wailing all the day
in dolefull heaviness.
6 My loynes are fill'd with sore disease,
my flesh hath no whole part:
I feeble am and broken force,
I rore for grief of heart.
7 Thou know'st (Lord) my desire, my are open in thy sight.
8 My heart doth pant, my strength doth mine eyes have lost their light. (faint) 9 My lovers and my wonted friends
stand looking on my wo:
And eke my kinsmen farre away
are me departed fro.
10 They that did seek my life, laid snares
and they that sought the way To do me hurt, speake lies and thoughts
on mischief all the day.

The second Part.

- 11 But as a deaf man I became,
that cannot hear at all:
12 And as one dumb, that opens not his mouth to speak withall.
13 For all my confidence O Lord
is wholly set on thee:
O Lord, thou Lord that art my God,
thou shalt give ear to me.
14 TMI did I crye, that they are from mines eyes and over me

For while my soul did stir, then they did joy my fall to see:

17 And truly I poor wretch am set
in place, a wofull wight:

18 As for my grievous heaviness,
is ever in my sight.

19 For while that I my wickedness
in humble wise confess:

And while I for my finfull deeds,
my sorrows do expresse:

20 My foes do still remain alive,
and mighty are also,

And they that hate me wrongfully,
to number hugely grow.

21 They stand against me, that my good
with evil do repay:

Because that good and honest things
I do ensue alway.

22 Forake me not, O Lord my God,
be thou not far away:

23 Hasten me to help my Lord, my God
my safety and my stay.

PSALM xxxix. J.H.

I said I will look to my wayes,
for fear I should go wrong:
I will take heed all times that I offend not with my tongue.

2 As with a big I will keep fast
my mouth with force and might:
Not once to whisper all the while
the wicked are in fight.

3 I held my tongue and spake no word,
but kept me close and still:
Yea from good talk I did refrain,
but sore against my will.

4 My heart waxt hot within my brest,
with musing thought and doubt:
Which did increase and stir the fire,
at last these words burst out.

5 Lord number out my life and dayes
which yet I have not past:

So that I may be certifi'd,
how long my life shall last.

6 Lord thou hast pointed out my life,
in length much like a span:

Mine age is nothing unto thee,
so vain is every man.

7 Man walketh like a shade, and doth
in vain himselfe fannoy

In getting goods, and cannot tell,
who shall the same enjoy.

8 Now Lord since things this-wise do what help do I desire? (frame,

Of trust my help doth hang on thee,
I nothing else require.

The second Part.

9 From all the sins that I have done,
Lord quit me out of hand:

And make me not a scorn to fools
that nothing understand.

10 I was as dumb, and to complain
no words might set me free:

Because I knew it was thy work;
my patience for to prove.

11 Lord take from me thy scourge and I can them not withstand: (plague,

I faint and pine away for fear
of thy most heavy hand.

12 When thou for sin dost man rebuke,
he waxeth woe and warr:

As doth a cloath that moths have fret,
so vain a thing is man.

13 Lord hear my suit, & give good heed
regard my tears that fall:

I sojourne like a stranger here,
as did my fathers all.

14 O spare a little, give me space
my strength for to restore:

Before I go away from hence,
and shall be seen no more.

PSALM xl. J.H.

I waited long and sought the Lord,
and patiently did bear:
At length to me he did accord,
my voice and cry to hear.

2 He pluck'd me from the lake so deep,
out of the mire and clay:
And on a rock he set my feet,
and he did guide my way.

3 To me he taught a Psalm of praise,
which I must shew abroad:
And sing new songs of thanks alwayes
unto the Lord our God.

4 When all the folk these things shall see,
as people much afraid:
Then they unto the Lord will see,
and trust upon his aid.

5 O blest is he whose hope and trust
doth in the Lord remain:
That with the proud doth take no part
nor such as lie and faine.

6 For Lord my God thy wondrous deeds
in greatness far do pass:
Thy favour towards us exceeds all things that ever was.

7 When I intend and do devise thy works abroad to shew:
To such a reckoning they do rise,
thereof no end I know.

8 Burnt-offerings thou delights not in,
I know thy whole desire:
With sacrifice to purge his sin,
thou dost no man require.

9 Meat-offerings and sacrifice
thou wouldst not have at all:
But thou (O Lord) hast open made mine ears to heare withall.

10 But then said I, behold and look,
I come a sinner to be:
For in the volume of thy book
thus it is said of me.

11 That I (O Lord) should do thy mind
which thing doth like me well:

in my heart thy law I find
fast placed there to dwell.
Thy justice and thy righteousness
in great reſorts I tell :
Behold my tongue no time doth ceaſe
O Lord thou know'ſt full well.

The ſecond Part.

13 I have not hid within my breaſt,
thy goodneſs as by ſtealth :
But I declare and have expreſt
thy truth, and ſaving health.
14 I kept not cloſe thy loving mind,
that no man ſhould it know :
The truſt that in thy truth I find,
to all the Church I ſhow.
15 Thy tender mercy (Lord) from me,
withdraw thou not away,
But let thy love and verity
preſerve me ſtill for ay.
16 For I with miſchiefs many a one am ſore beſet about :
My ſins increaſe, and ſo come on,
I cannot ſpie them out.

17 For why? in number they exceed the hairs upon my head :
My heart doth faint for very dread,
that I am almoſt dead.
18 With ſpeed ſend help and ſet me free
O Lord I thee require :
Make haſte with aid to ſuccour me,
O Lord at my deſire.
19 Let them ſuſtain rebuke and ſhame,
that ſeek my ſoul to ſpill :
Drive back my foes, and them deſame,
that with and would me ill.
20 For their ill fears do them diſcry,
that would deſace my name:
Alwaies at me they rail and cry,
ſie on him, ſie for ſhame.

21 Let them in thee have joy and wealth
that ſeek to thee alwaies :
That thoſe that love thy ſaving health
may ſay, to God be praiſe.
22 But as for me I am but poor,
oppreſt and brought full low :
Yet thou O Lord, wilt me reſtore
to health, full well I know.

23 For why? thou art my hope and truſt,
my refuge, help and ſtay :
Wherefore my God, as thou art juſt,
with me no time delay.

PSALM xli. T. S.

THe man is bleſt that carefull is
the needy to conſider :
For in the ſeaſon perillous
the Lord will him deliver.
2 The Lord will make him faſt & ſound,
and happy in the land:
And he will not deliver him
into his enemies hand.

3 And in his bed when he lies ſick,
the Lord will him reſtore :
And thou O Lord, wilt turn to health
his ſadneſs and his ſore.

4 Then in my ſickneſs thou ſaid I,
have mercy Lord on me,
And heal my ſoul which is full woe,
that I offended thee.

5 Mine enemies with'd me ill in heart
and thus of me did ſay :
When ſhall he die, that all his name
may vaniſh quite away?

6 And when they come to viſit me,
they ask if I do well :
But in their hearts miſchief they hatch
and to their mates it tell.

7 They bite their lips and whiſper ſo,
as though they would me harm,
And caſt their ſerches how to trap
me with ſome deadly harm.

8 Some grievous ſin hath brought him to this ſickneſs, ſay they plain :
He is ſo low, that without doubt
riſe can be nor again.

9 The man alſo that I did truſt,
with me did uſe deceit :
Who at my table ate my bread,
the ſame for me laid wait.

10 Have mercy, Lord, on me therefore,
and let me be preſerv'd
That I may render unto them
the things they have deſerv'd.

11 By this I know aſſuredly
to be belov'd of thee,
When that mine enemies have no cauſe
to triumph over me.

12 But in my right thou haſt me kept,
and maintained alway :
And in thy preſence place aſſign'd,
where I ſhall dwell for ay.

23 The Lord the God of Iſrael
be praiſed evermore,
Even ſo be it (Lord) will I ſay,
even ſo be it therefore.

PSALM xlii. J. H.

LIke as the hart doth breath & bray
the well-ſprings to obtain,
So doth my ſoul deſire alway,
with thee Lord to remain.
2 My ſoul doth thirſt, & would draw near the living God of might :
O when ſhall I come and appear
in preſence of his light?

3 The tears all times are my repaſt,
which from mine eyes do ſlide
When wicked men cry out to ſaſe,
where now is God thy guide?

4 Alas what grief is this to think what freedom once I had?
Therefore my ſoul, as at piers brink,
moſt heavy is and ſad.

When I did march in good aray,
furniſhed with my train,
Unto the temple was our way,
with ſongs and hearts ſweet ſain.

1 My soul, why art thou sad alwaies,
and fressh thus in my breast?
Trust thou in God, for him to praise
I hold it ever best.

By him I have succour at need,
against all pain and grief:
He is my God which with all speed
will haste to send relief.
6 And thus my soul within me Lord,
dost faint to think upon
The land of Jordan, and record
the little hill Hermon.

The second Part.

7 One grief another in doth call
as clouds burst out their voice:
The floods of evil that do fall,
run over me with noise.
8 Yet I by day felt his goodness
and help at all assaies:
Likewise by night I did not cease
the living God to praise.

9 I am perswaded thus to say
to him with pure pretence:
O Lord thou art my guide and stay,
my rock and sure defence.
Why do I then in penitiveness,
hanging the head thus walk?
While that mine enemies me oppress,
and vex me with their talk.

10 For why? they pierce my inward parts
with pangs to be abhor'd:
When they cry out with stubborn hearts
where is thy God thy Lord?
11 So soon why dost thou faint and quail,
my soul with pain oppress?
With thoughts why dost thy self assail,
so sore within my breast?

12 Trust in the Lord thy God alwaies,
and thou the time shalt see
To give him thanks with laud and praise
for health restor'd to thee.

PSALM xliij. T. 5.

Judge and revenge my cause O Lord,
from them that evil be:
From wicked, and deceitfull men,
O Lord deliver me.

1 For of my strength thou art the God,
why purst thou me thee fro?
And why walk I so heavily oppressed with my foe?

2 Send out thy light and ete thy truth,
and lead me with thy grace:
Which may conduct me to thy hill,
and to thy dwelling place.

3 Then shall I to the altar go,
of God my joy and cheer,
And on my harp give thanks to thee,
O God my God most dear.

4 Why art thou then so sad my soul,
and fressh thus in my breast?
Still trust in God, for him to praise
I hold it alwaies best.

By him I have succour at need

against all pain and grief:
He is my God which doth alwaies
at need send me relief.

PSALM xliij. T. 5.

Our ears have heard our fathers tell
and reverently record,
The wondrous works, that thou hast done
in older time O Lord.

2 How thou didst cast the Gentiles out,
and stroidst them with strong hand:
Planting our fathers in their place,
and gav'st to them their land.

3 They conquered not by sword nor
the land of thy behest: (strength)
But by thy hand, thy arm, and grace,
because thou lov'dst them best.

4 Thou art my King, O God, that help
Jacob in sundry wise:

5 Led with thy power, we threw down
as did against us rise. (such)

6 I trusted not in bow nor sword,
they could not save me sound:

7 Thou keptst us from our enemies rage,
thou didst our foes confound.

8 And still we boast of thee our God,
and praise thy holy Name:

9 Yet now thou go'st not with our host
but leavest us to shame.

10 Thou mad'st us flee before our foes
and so were over-trod:
Our enemies rob'd and spoil'd our goods
when we were spent abroad.

11 Thou hast us given to our foes,
as sheep for to be slain:
Amongst the heathen every where scattered we do remain.

12 Thy people thou hast sold like slaves
and as a thing of nought:
For profit none thou hadst thereby,
no gain at all was sought.

13 And to our neighbours thou hast made
of us a laughing stock:
And those that round about us dwell,
at us do grin and mock.

The second Part.

14 Thus we serve for none other use,
but for a common talk:

They mock, they scorn, they nod their
where ere they go or walk. (heads)

15 I am ashamed continually
to hear these wicked men:
Yea so I blush that all my face
with red is covered then.

16 For why? we hear such slanderous
such false reports and lies: (words)
That death it is to see their wrongs,
their churrings and their cries.

17 For all this we forgot not thee,
nor yet thy covenant brake:

18 We turn not back our hearts from
not yet thy pathes forsake. (thee)

16 Yet thou hast trod us down to dust,
where dens of Dragons be:
And covered us with shade of death,
and great adversity.
17 If we had our Gods Name forgot,
and help of Idols sought, (out) 18 Would not God then have tried this for he doth know our thought.
19 Nay, nay, for thy Names sake, O Lord, always are we thus:
As sheep unto the thambles sent,
right so they deal with us.
20 Up Lord, why sleepest thou? awake,
and leave us not for all:
21 Why hidest thou thy countenance,
and dost forget our thrall.
22 For down to dust our soul is brought,
and we now at last cast:
Our belly, like as it were glued unto the ground cleaves fast.
23 Rise up therefore for our defence,
and help us (Lord) at need:
We thee beseech for thy goodness,
to rescue us with speed.

PSALM xlv. I. H.

MY heart doth take in hand,
some god y long to sing:
The praise that I shall shew therein,
pertaineth to the King.
2 My tongue shall be as quick,
his honour to indite,
As is the pen of any scribe,
that useth fast to write.
3 O fairest of all men,
thy speech is pleasant pure:
For God hath blessed thee with gifts,
for ever to endure.
4 About thee gird thy sword,
O Prince of might elect
With honour, glory and renown
thy person pure is deckt.
5 Go forth with godly speed
with meeknesse, truth and right:
And thy right hand shall thee instruct in works of dreadfull might.
6 Thine arrows sharp and keen,
their hearts so sore shall sting:
That folk shall fall and kneel to thee,
yea all thy foes, O King.
7 Thy royal seat, O Lord,
for ever shall remain:
Because the Scepter of thy Realm
doth righteousness maintain.
8 Because thou lov'st the righteous,
and dost the ill detest:
God even thy God hath nourished thee
with joy above the rest.
9 With myrrhe and Souds sweet
thy clothes are all bespread:
When thou dost from thy palace passe,
therein to make thee glad.
10 Kings daughters do stand

At thy right hand the Queen doth stand in gold and garments gay.

The second Part.

11 O daughter take good heed,
incline and give good ear:
Thou must forget thy kindred all,
and fathers house most dear.
12 Then shall the King desire
thy beauty fair and trim:
For why? he is the Lord, thy God,
and thou must worship him.
13 The daughters then of Tyre,
with gifts (all) rich to see:
And all the wealthy of the land
shall make their suit to thee.
14 The daughter of the King
is glorious to behold:
Within her c'offer she doth sit
all deckt in beaven gold.
15 In robes well wrought with needle,
and many a pleasant thing:
With Virgins fair on her to wait,
she cometh to the King.
16 Thus are they brought with joy,
and mirth on every side:
Into the palace of the King,
and there they do abide.
17 Instead of parents left,
(O Queen the case so stands)
Thou shalt have sonnes whom thou shalt a Princes in all lands. (Sec.) 18 Wherefore thy holy Name,
all ages shall record:
The people shall give thanks to thee,
for evermore, O Lord.

PSALM xlv. I. H.

The Lord is our defence and aid,
the strength whereby we stand
When we with woe are much dismayd
he is our help at hand. (fear)
2 Though the earth remove we will not though hills so high and steep
Be thrust and hurled here and there,
within the sea so deep.
3 No though the waves do rage so sore,
that all the banks it spoile:
And though it ove-bow the shore,
and beat down mighty hills.
4 For one far flood doth it abroad
his pleasant steams pace:
To fresh the City of our God,
and wash his holy place.
5 In midst of her the Lord doth dwell,
she can no shir decay:
All things against her that rebel,
the Lord will sure v'lay.
6 The heathen folk the Kingdome fear,
the people make a noise:
The earth doth melt and not stand
when God putteth his voice.
7 The Lord of hosts doth dwell on high

Our hope of health with all our heart,
on Jacobs God doth lie.
8 Come fear & see with mind & thought
the working of our God:
What wonders he himself hath wrought
in all the world abroad.
9 By him all wars are burst and gone,
which countries did conspire:
Their bows he brake, and spears each one,
their chariots burnt with fire.
10 Leave off therefore (saith he) & know
I am a God most true:
Amongst the heathen high and low,
and all the earth thorough.
11 The Lord of hosts doth us defend,
he is our strength and power:
On Jacobs God we do depend,
and on his might and power.

PSALM xlvii. I.H.

YE people all with one accord,
clap hands and eke rejoyce:
Be glad and sing unto the Lord,
with sweet and pleasant voice.
1 For high the Lord and dreadful is
with wonders manifolde:
A mighty King he is truly,
in all the earth extolde.
2 The people shall he make to be unto our bondage thrall:
And underneath our feet he shall
the nations make to fall.
3 For us the heritage he chose,
which we possesse alone:
The flourishing worship of Jacob
his well-beloved one.
4 Our God ascended up on high,
with joy and pleasant noise:
The Lord ges up above the skie,
with trumpets royal voice.
5 Sing praises to our God, sing praise,
sing praise to our King:
6 For God is King of all the earth,
all skilful praises sing.
7 God on the heathen reigns and sits
upon his holy throne:
The Princes of the people have them joynd every one.
8 To Abrahams peop'le, for our God
which is exalted high,
As with a buckler doth defend the earth continually.

PSALM xlviii. I.H.

GREAT is the Lord, & with great praise
to be advanced still:
Within the City of our God,
upon his holy-hill.
2 Mount Sion is a pleasant place,
irreplacible all the land:
The City of the mighty King
on her northside doth stand.
3 With'n the palaces thereof,
God is a refuge known.

For so the Kings are gathered, and together they are gone.
4 But when they did behold it so,
they wondred and they were astonished much, and suddenly
were driven back with fear.
5 Great terror there on them did fall,
for very wo they cry.
As doth a woman when she shall go travel by and by.
6 As thou with Easter wind the ships
upon the seas dost break:
So they were strow'd; and even as
we heard our fathers speak.
7 So in the City of the Lord,
we saw as it was told:
Yea in the City which our God
for ever will uphold.
8 O Lord we wait and do attend
on thy good help and grace,
For which we do all times attend
within thy holy place.
9 O Lord, according to thy Name
for ever is thy praise:
And thy right hand O Lord, is full
of righteousness alwaies.
10 Let for thy judgements, Sion Mount
be filled be with joys:
And eke of Juda grant, O Lord,
the daughters to rejoyce.
11 Go walk about all Sion hill,
yea round about her go:
And tell the towers that thereupon
are builded on a row.
12 And mark ye well her bulwarks all,
behold her towers there:
That ye may tell thereof to them
that after shall be here.
13 For this God is our God, our God
for evermore is he:
Yea and unto the death also our guider shall he be.

PSALM xlix. I.H.

ALl people hearken and give ear
to that, that I shall tell:
2 Both high and low, both rich and poor
that in the world do dwell.
3 For why? my mouth shall make discourse
of many things right wise:
In understanding shall my heart
his study exercise.
4 I will incline mine ears to know
the parable so dark:
And open all my doubtful speech
in meeter on my harp.
5 Why should I fear affliction,
or any careful toil:
Or else my foes which at my heels
are prest my life to spoil?
6 For as for such as riches have,
wherein their trust is most,

And they which of their treasures great,
themselves do brag and boast:
7 There is not one of them that can
his brothers death redeem:
Of that can give a price to God,
sufficient for him.

8 It is too great a price to pay,
none can thereto attain:
Or that he might his life prolong,
or not in grave remaine.
9 They see wise men as well as fools
subject unto deaths bands:
And being dead, strangers possesse
their goods, their rents, their lands.
10 Their care is to build houses fair,
and so determine sure,
To make their name right great on earth
for ever to endure.
11 Yet shall no man alwayes enjoy high honour, wealth, and rest:
12 But shall at length taste of deaths cup
as well as the brute beast.

The second part.

13 And though they try their foolish
to be most lewd and vain: (thoughts
Their children yet approve their talk
and in like sin remain.

14 As sheep into the fold are brought
so shall they into grave:
Death shall them eat, and in that day
the just shall Lordship have.

15 Their image and their royal port shall fade and quite decay:
When as from house to pit they passe,
with wo and weale away.

16 But God will surely preserve me
from death and endlesse pain:
Because he will of his good grace,
my soul receive again.

17 If any man wax wondrous rich,
fear not I say therfore,

Although the glory of his house
increaseth more and more.

18 For when he dies, of all these things
nothing shall he receive:
His glory will not follow him,
his pomp will take her leave.

19 Yet in this life he takes himself
the happiest under Sun:
And others likewise patter him,
saying all is well done.

20 And presuppose he live as long
as did his fathers old:

Yet must he needs at length give place,
and be brought to deaths fold.

21 Thus man to honor God hath brought,
yet doth he not consider:
But like brute beasts so doth he live
which turn to dust and powder.

PSALM L. W. W.

The ninth verse.

And all the world
he will call and provoke:
Even from the East,
and so forth to the West,
2 From towards Sun,
which place he liketh best.
God will appear
in beauty most excellent;
Our God will come
before that long time be spent.

3 Devouring fire
shall go before his face,
A great tempest
shall round about him trace.

4 Then shall he call
the earth and heavens bright,
To judge his folk
with equity and right.

5 Saying, go ye,
and now my Saints assemble My part they keep,
their gifts do not dissemble.

6 The heavens shall declare his righteousness,
For God is judge
of all things more and lesse.

7 Hear my people,
for I will now reveal:
Lift Israel.

I will thee nought conceal,
Thy God, thy God
am I, and will not blame thee.

8 For giving nor
all manner offerings to me.

9 I have no need to take of thee at all,
Goats of thy fold,
or Calf out of thy stall.

10 For all the beasts
are mine within the woods,
On thousand hills,
cattel are mine own goods.

11 I know for mine,
all birds that are on mountains:

All beasts are mine,
which haunt the fields or fountains.

12 Hungry if I were
I would not thee it tell:

For all is mine
that in the world doth dwell.

13 Eat I the flesh
of great Bulls or Bullocks?
Or drink the blood
of Goats or of the flocks?

14 Offer to God
praise and hearty thanksgiving,
And pay thy vows
unto God ever-living.

15 Call upon me,
when troubled thou shalt be:
Then will I help,
and thou shalt honour me.

16 To the wicked

Why dost thou preach
my laws and hefts abroad?
17 Seeing thou hast
them with thy mouth abused,
And hast to be
by discipline reformed.

My words I say
thou dost reject and hate.
18 If that thou see
a thief, as with thy mate,
Thou runst with him,
and so your prey do seek:
And art all one

with bawds and ruffins eke.
19 Thou giv'st thy self
to backbite and to slander:
And how thy tongue
deceives, it is a wonder.

20 Thou sittest musing,
thy brother how to blame:
And how to put
thy mothers son to shame.
21 These things thou didst
and whilst I held my tongue, Thou didst me judge:
because I staid so long,
Like to thy self:
yet though I keep long silence:
Once shalt thou feel
of thy wrongs just recompence.

22 Consider this,
ye that forget the Lords,
And fear not when
he threatneth with his word:
Left without help
I spoile you as a prey.
23 But he that thanks
offereth praise to me aye,
Saith the Lord God,
and he that walketh this trace:
I will him reach
Gods saving health to embrace.

Another of the same by I. H.
The God of gods the Lord
hath call'd the earth by name:
From whence the Sun doth rise, unto
the setting of the same.

2 From Sion his fair place,
his glory bright and clear:
The perfect beauty of his grace,
from thence it did appear.

3 Our God hath come in hate,
to speak he shall not doubt:
Before him shall the fire waste,
and tempest round about.

4 The heavens from on high,
the earth below likewise,
He will call forth to judge and try,
his folk he doth devise.

5 Bring forth my Saints, saith he,
my ditchfull flock so dear:
Which are in band and league with me,
my law to love and fear.

6 And when these things are done,
the heavens shall record
That God is just, and all must bide
the judgement of the Lord.

7 My people, O give heed,
Israel to thee I cry:
I am thy God, thy help at need,
thou canst it not deny.

8 I do not say to thee,
thy sacrifice is slack:
Thou offerest daily unto me
much more then I do lack.

9 Think'st thou that I do need thy cattel young or old?
Or else so much desire to feed
on Goats out of thy fold?

10 Nay all the beasts are mine,
in woods that eat their fills:
And thousand more of neat and kine,
that run wilde on the hills:

The second Part.

11 The birds that build on high,
in hills and out of sight,
And beasts that in the fields do lie,
are subject to my might.
12 Then though I hunger sore,
what need I ought of thine?
Sith that the earth with her great store,
and all therein is mine?

13 To Bulls flesh have I mind,
to eat it dost thou think?
Or such a sweetnesse do I finde,
the blood of Goats to drink?

14 Give to the Lord his praise,
with thanks to him apply:
And see thou pay thy vows always unto the God most high.

15 Then seek and call to me,
when ought would work thee blame:
And I will sure deliver thee,
that thou mayst praise my Name.

16 But to the wicked train,
which talk of God each day,
And yet their works are foul and vain,
to them the Lord will say.

17 With what a face dar'st thou
my word once speak or name?
Why dost thy talk my law allow,
thy deeds deny the same?

18 Where as for to amend
thy life thou art so slack:
My word the which thou dost pretend,
is call'd behind thy back.

The third Part.

19 When thou a thief dost see,
by theft to live in wealth:
With him thou runst and dost agree
like wise to thrive by stealth.

20 When thou dost them behold,
that wives and maids desire,
Thou lik'st it well, and waxest bold,
to use their life most rare.

- 21 Thy lips thou dost apply,
to slander and defame:
Thy tongue is taught to craft and lie,
and still doth use the same.
- 22 Thou studiest to revile
thy friends to thee so near
With slander: thou wouldst needs defile
thy mothers son most dear.
- 23 Hereat while I did wink,
as though I did not see:
Thou goest on still, and so dost think that I am like to thee.
- 24 But sure I will not let
to strike when I begin:
Thy faults in order I will set,
and open all thy sin.
- 25 Mark this I do require,
that have not God in mine:
Left when I plague you in mine ire,
your help be far to finde.
- 26 He that doth give to me
the sacrifice of praise Doth please me well: and he shall see
to walk in godly wayes.

PSALM li. w. w.

- O Lord consider my distresse,
and now with speed some pity take,
My sins deface, my faults redress:
good Lord for thy great mercies sake.
- 2 Wash me, O Lord, and make me clean
from this unist and sinful act:
And purifie yet once again
my hainous crime and bloody fact.
- 3 Remorse and sorrow do constrain
me to acknowledge mine excess:
My sin alus doth still remain
before my face without release.
- 4 For thee alone I have offended,
committing evil in thy sight:
And if I were therefore condemned,
yet were thy judgments just & right.
- 5 It is too manifest alas
that first I was conceived in sin:
Yea of my mother so born was
and yet vile wretch remain therein.
- 6 Also behold Lord thou dost love
the inward truth of a pure heart:
Therefore thy wisdom from above
thou hast revealed me to convert.
- 7 If thou with hyssop purge this blot,
I shall be cleaner then the glasse:
And if thou wash away my spot,
the snow in whitenesse shall I passe.
- 8 Therefore, O Lord such joy me send,
that inwardly I may finde grace:
And hat my strength may now amend,
which thou hast swaged for my trespass.
- 9 Turn back thy face and frowning ire,
for I have seld enough thy hand:
And purge my sin: I thee desire
which do in number passe the sand.
- 10 Make new my heart within my breast,
and frame it to thy holy will,

Thy constant spirit in me let rest,
which may these raging enemies kill.

The second Part.

- 11 Cast me not Lord out from thy face,
but speedily my torments end:
Take not from me thy spirit of grace,
which may from dangers me defend.
- 12 Restore me to those joys again,
which I was wont in thee to find:
And let me thy free spirit retain,
which unto thee may stir my mind.
- 13 Thus when I shall thy mercies know,
I shall instruct others therein:
And men that are likewise brought low
by mine example shall flee sin.
- 14 O God that of my health art Lord,
forgive me this my bloody vice:
My heart and tongue shall then accord
to sing thy mercies and justice.
- 15 Touch thou my lips, my tongue untie
O Lord whi hart the onely key:
And then my mouth shall testify
thy wondrous works and praise alway.
- 16 And as for outward sacrifice,
I would have offered many a one:
But thou esteemest them of no price,
and therein pleasure takest thou none.
- 17 The heavy heart, the mind oppress,
O Lord thou never dost reject:
And to speak truth it is the best,
and of all sacrifice the best.
- 18 Lord unto Sion turn thy face,
poure out thy mercies on the hill:
And on Jerusalem thy grace,
build up the walls and love it still.
- 19 Thou shalt accept then our offerings,
of peace and righteousness I say:
Yea calves and many other things,
upon thine altar will we lay.

Another of the same by I. H.

- Have mercy on me Lord, after thy great abounding grace:
After thy mercies multitude,
do thou my sins deface.
- 2 Yea wash me more from mine offence,
and cleanse me from my sin:
For I do know my faults and still
my sin is in mine eyne.
- 3 Against thee, thee alone I have offended in this case:
And evil have I done before
the presence of thy face.
- 4 That in the things that thou hast done
upright thou mayst be tryed:
And eke in judgment that the doom
may passe upon thy side.
- 5 Behold in wickedness, my kinde
and shape I did receive:
And to my sinful mother eke,
in sin did me conceive.

6 But lo, the truth in inward parts
is pleasant unto thee
And secrets of the wisdom thou revealed hast to me.

7 With hyssop Lord besprinkle me
I shall be cleansed so:

Yea wash thou me, and so I shall be whiter then the snow.

8 Of joy and gladness make thou me
to hear the pleasant voice:

That to the bruised bones which thou hast broken may rejoyce.

9 From the beholding of my sins
Lord turn away thy face:

And all mine deeds of wickedness
do utterly deface:

10 O God, create in me a heart,
unsported in thy sight:

And cleave within my bowels Lord,
renew a stable spirit.

11 Ne cast me from thy sight nor take thy holy spirit away:

The comforts of thy saving health
give me again I pray.

12 With thy sweet spirit establish me,
and I will teach therefore

Sinners thy wayes, and wicked shall be turned to thy lore.

The second Part.

13 O God that art God of my health,
from blood deliver me:

That praises of thy righteousness
my tongue may sing to thee.

14 My lips that yet fast closed be,
do thou O Lord unfold:

The praises of thy Majesty,
my mouth shall so disclose.

15 I would have offered sacrifice,
if that had pleased thee:

But pleased with burnt offerings,
I know thou wilt not be.

16 A troubled spirit is sacrifice delightful in Gods eyes:

A broken and an humble heart,
God thou wilt not despise.

17 In thy good will deal gently Lord,
to Sion, and withall

Grant that of thy Jerusalem,
upward may be the wall.

8 Burnt offerings, gifts and sacrifice,
of justice in that day

Thou shalt accept, and calves they shall upon thine altar lay.

PSALM lii. I. H.

Why dost thou tyrant boast abroad,
thy wicked works to praise?

Dost thou not know there is a God,
whose mercies last alwayes?

2 Why doth thy mind yet still devise,
such wicked wiles to warp?

Thy tongue untrue in forging lies,
like a razor sharp.

3 On mischief why fest thou thy mind,
and wilt not walk upright?

Thou hast more lust false tales to find,
than bring the truth to light.

4 Thou dost delight in fraud and guile,
in mischief, blood and wrong:

Thy lips have learn'd the flattering stile,
O false deceitful tongue.

5 Therefore shall God for aye confound,
and pluck thee from thy place:

Thy seed root out from off the ground,
and so shall thee deface.

6 The just when they behold thy fall,
with fear will praise the Lord,

And in reproach of thee withall
cry out with one accord.

7 Behold the man that would not take
the Lord for his defence:

But of his goods his God did make,
and trust his corrupt sense.

8 But I as Olive fresh and green,
shall spring and spread abroad:

For why? my trust all times hath been upon the living God.

9 For this therefore will I give praise
to thee with heart and voice:

I will set forth thy name alwayes,
wherein thy Saints rejoyce.

PSALM liii. T. S.

The foolish man in that which he
within his heart hath said:

That there is no God at all,
hath utterly denaid.

2 They are corrupt, and they also
a hainous work have wrought:

Among them all there is not one of good that worketh ought.

3 The Lord look'd down on sons of men
from heaven all abroad:

To see if any were that would be wise and seek for God.

4 They are all gone out of the way,
they are corrupted all:

There is not one doth any good,
there is not one at all.

5 Do not all wicked workers know, that they do feed upon

My people, as they feed on bread?
they Lord they call not on.

6 Even there they were afraid and stood with trembling all dismayd:

Whereas there was no cause at all,
why they should be afraid.

7 For God his bones that thee beseg'd,
hath scatter'd all abroad:

Thou hast confounded them, for they rejected are of God.

8 O Lord give thou thy people health,
and thou O Lord fulfill,

Thy promise made to Israel,
from out of Sion hill.

7 When God his people shall restore,
that carst were captivèd:
Then Jacob shall therein rejoyce,
and Israel shall be glad.

PSALM lvi. I. H.

God save me for thy holy Name,
and for thy goodnesse sake:
Unto the strength (Lord) of the same,
I do my cause betake.

8 Regard, O Lord, and give an ear
to me when I do pray:
Bow down thy self to me and hear
the words that I do say.

9 For strangers up against me rise,
and tyrants vex me still,
Which have not God before their eyes,
they seek my soul to spill.

4 But lo, my God doth give me aid,
the Lord is strait at hand:
With them by whom my soul is fraid,
the Lord doth ever stand.

5 With plagues repay again all those
for me that lie in wait:

And in thy truth destroy my foes
with their own snare and baite.

6 An offering of free heart and will,
then I to thee shall make:
And praise thy Name, for therein still great comfort I do take.

7 O Lord at length do set me free
from them that craft conspire:
And now mine eye with joy doth see
on them my hearts desire.

PSALM lvi. I. H.

O God give ear and do apply
to hear me when I pray:

And when to thee I call and cry,
hide not thy self away.

8 Take heed to me, grant my request
and answer me again:

With plaints I pray full sore oppress,
great grief doth me constrain.

9 Because my foes with threats and crys,
opprelle me through despight:

And so the wicked sort likewise
to vex me have delight.

4 For they in counsel do conspire,
to charge me with some ill:
So in their hasty wrath and ire
they do pursue me still.

5 My heart doth faint for want of breath:
it panteth in my brest:

The terrors and the dread of death,
do work me much unrest.

6 Such dreadful fear on me doth fall,
that I therewith do quake:

Such horror whelmeth me withall,
that I no shift can make.

7 But I did say, who will give me
the swift and pleasant wings

Of some fair Dove, that I may see,
and rest me from these things.

8 Lo then I would go far away,
to see I would not craie:
And I would hide my self and stay
in some great wilderness.

9 I would be gone in all the haste,
and not abide behinde:

That I were quic and overpast
these blasts of boisterous wind.

10 Div de them Lord, and from them pull their devilish double tongue:

For I have spied their City full of rapine, strife and wrong.

11 Which things both night and day
do close her as a wall: (throughout

In midst of her is mischief stout,
and sorrow eke withall.

12 Her inward parts are wicked plain,
her deeds are much too vile:

And in her streets there doth remain
all crafty fraud and guile.

The second Part.

13 If that my foes did seek my shame,
I might it well abide:

From open enemies check and blame
somewhere I could me hide.

14 But thou i wast, my fellow deare,
which friendship didst pretend:

And didst my secret counsel hear,
as my familiar friend.

15 With whom I had delight to talk
in secret and abroad:

And we together oft did walk
within the house of God.

16 Let death in hast upon them fall
and send them quick to hell:

For mischief raineth in the hall,
and parlour where they dwell.

17 But I unto my God will cry
to him for help I see.

The Lord will help me by and by,
and he will succour me.

18 At morning, noon, and even tyde,
unto the Lord I pray:

When I so instantly have cride,
he doth not say me nay.

19 To peace he shall restore me yet,
though war be now at hand,

Although the number be full great,
that would against me stand.

20 The Lord that first and last doth raige
both now and evermore,

Will hear when I to him complain,
and punish them full sore.

21 For sure there is no hope that they
to turn will once accord:

For why? they will not God obey,
nor yet do fear the Lord. (hands

22 Upon their friends they laid their which were in covenant with

Of friendship to neglect the bands,
they passe or care no whit.

23 While they have war within their
 as barter are their words: (heart, Although their words were for oath as they cut as sharp as swords: (oyl, 24 Cast thou thy care upon the Lord,
 and he shall nourish thee:
 For in no wise will he accord
 the just in thral to see.

25 But God shall cast them deep in pit,
 that thirst for blood always:
 He will no guileful man permit
 to live out half his dayes.
 26 Though such be quire destroyed and in thee O G d I trust; (gone
 I shall depend thy Grace upon,
 with all my heart and lust.

PS LM Lvi. J. H.

Have mercy Lord on me I pray,
 for man would me devour:
 He fighteth with me day by day,
 and troubleth me each houre.
 2 Mine enemies daily enterprise
 to swallow me outright:
 To fight against me many rise,
 O thou most high of might.

3 When they would make me most afraid
 with boasts and brags of pride:
 I trust in thee alone for aid,
 by thee I will abide.

4 Gods promise I do minde and praise,
 O Lord I stick to thee:
 I do not care at all what aies,
 what flesh can do to me.

5 What things I rather did or spake,
 they wrest them at their will:
 And all the counsel that they take,
 is how to work me ill.

6 They all consent, themselves to hide,
 close watch for me to lay:
 They spie my paths, and shares have tide
 to take my life away.

7 Shall they thus scape on mischief set?
 thou God on them wilt frown:
 For in his wrath he doth not let
 to throw whole kingdoms down.

8 Thou seest how oft they made me flee,
 and on my tears dost look:
 Reserve them in a glasse by thee,
 and write them in thy book.

9 When I do call upon thy Name,
 my foes away do start:
 I well perceive it by the same,
 that God doth take my part.
 10 I glory in the Word of God,
 to praise it I accord:
 With joy I will declare abroad
 the promise of the Lord.

11 I trust in God, and yet I say,
 as I before began:
 The Lord he is my help and stay,
 I do not care for man.

12 I will perform with heart so free,
 to God my vow alwaies

And IO Lord a'l times to thee
 will offer thanks and praise.
 13 My soul from death thou dost defend,
 and keepst my feet upright
 That I before thee may ascend with such as live in light.

PSALM lvii. J. H.

Take pity for thy promise sake,
 have mercy Lord on me:
 For why? my soul doth her betake
 unto the help of thee.
 2 Within the shadow of thy wings
 I set my self full fast:
 Till mischief, malice, and like things
 be gone and overpast.

3 I call upon the God most high,
 to whom I stick and stand:
 I mean the God that will stand by the cause I have in hand.

4 From heaven he hath sent his aid,
 to save me from their spite,
 That to devour me have afraid,
 his mercy, truth and might.

5 I lead my life with Lions fell,
 all set on wrath and ire:
 And with such wicked men I dwell,
 that fier like flames of fire.

6 Their teeth are speares & arrows long,
 as sharp as I have seen: (tongue
 They wound and cut with their quick
 like swords and weapons keen.

7 Set up and shew thy self O God,
 above the heavens bright:
 Exalt thy praise on earth abroad,
 thy Majesty and might.

8 They lay their net and do prepare a privy cave and pit:
 Wherein they think my soul to share,
 but they are false in it.

9 My heart is set to laud the Lord,
 in him to joy alwaies:
 My heart I say doth well accord
 to sing his laud and praise.

10 Awake my joy, awake I say,
 my Lute, my Harp, and string:
 For I my self before the day,
 will rise, rejoyce, and sing.

11 Among the people I will tell
 the goodness of my God:
 And shew his praise that doth excel
 in heathen lands abroad.

12 His mercy doth extend as far as heavens all are high:
 His truth as high as any star,
 that shineth in the skie.

13 Set forth and shew thy self O God,
 above the heavens bright:
 Extoll thy praise on earth abroad,
 thy majesty and might.

PSALM lviii. J. H.

Ye Rulers that are put in trust,
 to judge of wrong and right:

Be all your judgements true and just,
not knowing need or might:
a Nay, in your hearts ye mark and muse
in mischief to consent:
And where ye should true justice use,
your hands to bribes are bent.

1 The wicked sort from their birth-day
have erred on this wise:
And from their mothers womb alway
have used craft and lies.
4 In them the poyson and the breath
of Serpents do appear:
Yea like the Adder that is deaf,
and fast doth stop her ear.

5 Because she will not hear the voice
of one that charmeth well:
No though he were the chief of choice,
and did therein excel.

6 O God break thou their teeth at once within their mouths throughout:
The tusks that in their great jaw-bones
like lions whelps hang out.

7 Let them consume away and waste,
as waters run forthright:
The thasfs that they do shoot in haste,
let them be broke in flight.

8 As snailles do waste within the shell,
and unto slime do run:
As one before his time that fell,
and never saw the Sun.

9 Before the thorns that now are young,
to bushes big shall grow:

The storms of anger waxing strong,
shall take them ere they know.

10 The just shall joy, it doth them good that God doth vengeance take:
And they shall wash their feet in blood
of them that him forsake.

11 Then shall the world shew forth & tell
that good men have reward:
And that a God on earth doth dwell,
that justice doth regard.

PSALM lix. I.H.

Send aid and save me from my foes,
O Lord I pray to thee:

Defend and keep me from all those
that rise and strive with me.

2 O Lord preserve me from those men,
a whose doings are not good:
And set me sure and safe from them
that thirst still after blood.

3 For lo they wait my soul to take,
they rage against me still:

Yea for no fault that I did make,
I never did them ill.

4 They run and do themselves prepare,
when I no whit offend:

Arise and save me from their snare,
and see what they intend.

5 O Lord of hosts of Israel,
arise and strike all lands:

And pierce none that do rebel,
and in their mischief stand.

6 At night they stir and seek about,
as hounds they howle and grise:
And all the City clean throughout
from place to place they run.

7 They speak of me with mouth alway,
but in their lips are swords:
They greed my death, and then would say what? none doth hear our words.

8 But Lord, thou hast their ways espide,
and laught thereat apace:
The heathen folk thou dost deride,
and mock them to their face.

9 The strength that doth our foes with O Lord, doth come from thee: (stand
My God he is my help at hand,
a fort of fence to me.

10 The Lord to me doth shew his grace,
in great abundance still:
That I may see my foes in case,
such as my heart doth will.

The second Part.

11 Destroy them not at once O Lord,
lest it from minde do fall:
But with thy strength drive them abroad,
and so consume them all.

12 For their ill words & truthless tongues,
confound them in their pride:
Their wicked oaths with lyes and wrong
let all the world deride.

13 Consume them in thy wrath O Lord
that nought of them remain:
That men may know throughout the world
that Jacobs God doth reign.

14 At evening they return apace,
as dogs they grin and cry:
Throughout the streets in every place,
they run about and spie.

15 They seek about for meat I say,
but let them not be fed:
Nor finde a house wherein they may be bold to put their head.

16 But I will shew thy strength abroad,
thy goodnesse I will praise:
For thou art my defence and God,
at need in all afflicies.

17 Thou art my strength, thou hast me
O Lord, I sing to thee: (haide
Thou art my fort, my fence and aid,
a loving God to me.

PSALM lx I.H.

O Lord thou didst us clean forsake,
and scatteredst us abroad:
Such great displeasure thou didst take return to us O God.

2 Thy might did move the earth so sore
that it in sunder brake:
The hurt thereof O Lord restore,
for it doth bow and quake.

3 With heavy chance thou plaguest thus
the people that are thine:
And thou hast given unto us
a drinke of deadly wine.

4 But yet to such as fear thy Name,
a banner thou didst give:

That they may triumph in the same,
because thy word is true.

§ So that thy might may keep and save
thy folk that favour thee :

That they thy help at hand may have,
O Lord grant this to me.

¶ The Lord did speak from his own place,
this was his joyfull tale :

I will divide Sichem by pace,
and meet our Succoth vale.

7 Gilead is given to mine hand,
Manasses mine beside :

Ephraim the strength of all my land,
my law doth Juda guide.

8 In Moab I will wash my feet,
over Edom throw my shoe :

And thou Palestine ought'st to seek for favour me unto.

9 But who will bring me at this tyde unto the City strong ?

Or who to Edom will me guide,
so that I go not wrong ?

10 Wilt thou not God, which didst forsake
thy folk their land and coasts ?

Our wars in hand thou wouldst not take,
nor walk among our hosts.

11 Give aid, O Lord, and us relieve from them that us disdain :

The help that hosts of men can give,
it is but all in vain. (might)

12 But through our God we shall have to take great things in hand :

He will tread down and put to flight
all those that us withstand.

PSALM Lxi. I. H.

Regard, O Lord, for I complain,
and make my suit to thee.

Let not my words return in vain,
but give an ear to me.

2 From our the coasts and utmost parts
of all the earth abroad :

In grief and anguish of my heart,
I cry to thee; O God.

3 Upon the rock of thy great power
my wofull mind repose :

Thou art my hope, my fort and tower,
my fence against my foes.

4 Within thy tent I lust to dwell,
for ever to endure :

Under thy wings I know right well
I shall be safe and sure.

5 The Lord doth my desire regard,
and doth fulfil the same :

With goodly gifts will he reward
all those that fear his Name.

6 The King if all he in health maintain,
and O prolong his dayes,

If as he from age to age shall reign,
for evermore alwayes.

7 That he may have a dwelling place,
before the Lord for aye :

O let thy mercy, truth and grace
defend him from decay.

8 Then shall I sing for ever still,
with praise unto thy Name :

That all my vows I may fulfill,
and daily pay the same.

PSALM Lxii. I. H.

My soul to God shall give good heed
and him alone attend :

For why? my health and hope to speed,
doth whole on him depend.

2 For he alone is my defence,
my rock, my health and aid,

He is my stay that no pretence
shall make me much dismayd.

3 O wicked folk, how long will ye
use craft? sure ye must fall :

For as a rotten hedge ye be,
and like a tottering wall.

4 Whom God doth love, ye seek alwayes
to put him to the worse :

Ye love to lie, with mouth ye praise,
and yet your heart doth curse

5 Yet still my soul doth whole depend on God my chief desire :

From all ill feats me to defend,
none but him I require.

6 He is my rock, my fort and tower,
my health is of his grace :

He doth support me that no power
can move me out of place.

7 God is my glory and my health,
my souls desire and lust:

My fort, my strength my stay, my wealth,
God is my only trust.

8 O have your trust in him alway,
ye folk with one accord.

Poure out your hearts to him, and say,
Our trust is in the Lord.

9 The sons of men deceitful are,
on balance but a sleight :

With things most vain do them compare,
for they can keep no weight.

10 Trust not in wrong, robbery, nor stealth,
let vain delights be gone : (wealth)

Though goods well got flow in with set not your hearts thereon.

11 The Lord long since one thing did tell which here to mind I call :

He spake it oft I heard it well,
that God alone doth all.

12 And that thou Lord art good & kinde
thy mercy doth exceed :

So that all sorts with thee shall finde,
according to their deed.

PSALM Lxiii. I. H.

O God my God, I march betime
to come to thee in haste :

For why my soul and body both
do thirst of thee to taste.

2 And in this barren wilderness,
where waters there are none :

My flesh is parcht for thought of thee,
for thee I wish alone.

3 That I might see yet once again
thy glory, strength and might,
As I was wont it to behold
within thy Temple bright:
5 For why? thy mercies far surmount
this life and wretched dayes:
My lips therefore shall give to thee
due honour, laud and praise.

6 And whilst I live I will not fail
to worship thee alway:
And in thy name I shall lift up
my hands when I do pray.
5 My soul is filld as with marrow,
which is both far and sweet:
My mouth therefore shall sing such songs
as are for thee most meet.

6 When as in bed I think on thee,
and eke all the night tyde:
7 For under covert of thy wings
thou hast my joyfull guide.
8 My soul doth surely stick to thee,
thy right hand is my power:
9 And those that seek my soul to stroy,
their death shall soon devour.

10 The sword shall them devour each one;
their carcases shall feed
The hungry foxes, which do run their prey to seek at need.

11 The King and all men shall rejoyce,
that do profess Gods Word:
For lyars mouths shall then be stoppt,
which have the truth disturbd.

PSALM lxiv. I. H.

O Lord unto my voice give ear,
with plaint when I do pray:
And rid my life and soul from fear
of foes that threat to slay.

2 Defend me from that sort of men
which in deceit do lurk:
And from the frowning face of them
that all ill feats do work.

3 Who whet their tongues as we have seen men whet and sharp their swords:
They shoort abroad their arrows keen,
I mean most bitter words.

4 With privy sleights shoort they their
the upright men to hit. (shaft,
The just unwares to strike by craft,
they care or fear no whit.

5 A wicked work they have decreed;
in counsel thus they cry:
To use deceit let us not dread;
what? who can it espie?

6 What way to hurt they talk and muse
all times within their heart:
They all consult what feats to use,
each doth invent his part.

7 But yet all this shall not prevail,
when they think least upon,
God with his dart shall sure assall,
and wound them every one.

8 Their crafts and their ill tongue withal
shall work themselves such blame.

That they which then behold their fall,
shall wonder at the same.

9 Then all that see shall know right well
that God the thing hath wrought:
And praise his werry works and tell what he to pass hath brought.

10 Yet shall the just in God rejoyce,
still trusting in his might;
So shall they joy with mind and voice,
whose hearts are pure and right.

PSALM lxv. J. H.

Thy praise alone, O Lord doth raig
in Zion thine own hill:
Their vows to thee they do maintain,
and their behests fulfill.

2 For that thou doest their prayers hear,
and dost thereto agree:
The people all both far and near
with trust shall come to thee.

3 Our wicked life so far exceeds,
that we shall fall therein:
But Lord forgive our great misdeeds;
and purge us from our sin.

4 The man is blest whom thou dost chuse
within thy courts to dwell:
Thy house and Temple he shall use
with pleasures that excell.

5 Of thy great Justice hear us God,
Our health of thee doth rise:
The hope of all the earth abroad,
and the sea coasts likewise.

6 With strength thou art bester about,
and compass with thy power:
Thou makst the mountains strong and to stand in every shower. (flow

7 The swelling seas thou dost assuage and make their streams full still:
Thou dost restrain the peoples rage,
and rule them at thy will.

8 The folk that dwell full far on earth,
shall dread thy signs to see,
Which morn and evening in great mirth
do pass with praise to thee.

9 When that the earth is chapt and drie,
and thirsteth more and more;
Then with thy drops thou dost supply,
and much increase her store.

10 The flood of God doth overflow,
and so doth cause to spring
The seed and corn which men do sow,
for he doth guide the thing.

11 With wet thou dost her furrows fill,
whereby her clods do fall:
Thy drops on her thou dost distill,
and blesse her fruit withal.

12 Thou deckst the earth of thy good with fair and pleasant crop: (grace Thy clouds distill their dew apace,
great plenty they do drop.

13 Where eke the desert shall begin,
full great increase to bring:

The

The little hills shall joy therein,
much fruit in them shall spring.
12 In places plaine the flocks shall feed,
and cover all the earth:
The vales with corn shall so exceed,
that men shall sing for mirth.

PSALM lxvi. T. S.

YE men on earth in God rejoyce,
with praise set forth his Name:
Extol his might with heart and voice,
give glory to the same.
2 How wonderful O Lord, say ye,
in all thy works thou art?
Thy foes for fear shall seek to thee,
full fore against their heart.
3 All men that dwell the earth throughout shall praise the Name of God:
The laud thereof the world about
is shew'd and set abroad.
4 All folk come forth, behold and see what things the Lord hath wrought:
Mark well the wondrous works that he
for man to passe hath brought.
5 He laid the sea like heaps on high,
therein a way they had
On foot to passe both fair and drie,
whereof their hearts were glad.
6 His might doth rule the world alway,
his eyes all things behold:
All such as would him disobey,
by him shall be controld.

7 Ye people give unto our God,
due laud and thanks alwaies:
With joyful voice declare abroad,
and sing unto his praise.
8 Which doth endure our soul with life
and it preserve withal:
He stayes our feet, so that no strife
can make us slip or fall.
9 The Lord doth prove our deeds with
if that they will abide: (fire)
As workmen do when they desire to have their metals tride.
10 Although thou suffer us so long
in prison to be cast:
And there with chains and fetters strong
to lie in bondage fast.

The second Part.

11 Although (I say) thou suffer men
on us to ride and raigne:
• Though we through fire and water run
of very grief and pain.
12 Yet sure thou dost of thy good grace
dispose it to the best:
And bring us out into a place,
to live in wealth and rest.
13 Unto thy house resort will I
to offer and to pray:
And there I will my self apply
my vows to thee to pay.
14 The vows that with my mouth I spake
in all my grief and smart:

The vow I say which I did make
in dolour of my heart.

15 Burnt-offerings I will give to thee,
of Oxen fat and Rams: Yea this my sacrifice shall be of Bullocks, Goats and Lambs.
16 Come forth and hearken here full soon
all ye that fear the Lord:
What he for my poor soul hath done,
to you I will record.
17 Full oft I call so minde his grace,
this mouth to him doth cry:
And thou my tongue make speed space,
to praise him by and by.
18 But if I feel my heart within,
in wicked works rejoyce:
Or if I have delight to sin,
God will not hear my voice.
19 But surely God my voice hath heard,
and what I do require:
My Prayer he doth well regard,
and granterh my desire.
20 All praise to him that hath not put,
nor cast me out of minde:
Nor yet his mercy from me shut,
which I do ever finde.

PSALM lxvij. I. H.

HAVE mercy on us Lord,
and grant to us thy grace:
To shew to us do thou accord,
the brightnesse of thy face.
2 That all the earth may know
the way to godly wealth:
And all the nations on a row,
may see thy saving health.
3 Let all the world O God,
give praise unto thy Name;
O let the people all abroad,
extol and laud the same.
4 Throughout the world so wide
let all rejoyce with mirth:
For thou with truth & right dost guide
the nations of the earth.
5 Let all the world O God,
give praise unto thy name:
O let the people all abroad,
extol and laud the same.
6 Then shall the earth encrease,
great store of fruit shall fall:
And then our God the God of peace
shall blesse us eke withal.
7 God shall us blesse I say,
and then both far and near,
The folk throughout the earth alway,
of him shall stand in fear.

PSALM lxviii, T. S. &

LET God arise, and then his foes
will turn themselves to flight:
His enemies then will run abroad,
and scatter out of sight.
2 And as the fire doth melt the wax,
and wind blowe smoke away:

66 In the presence of the Lord
the wicked shall decay.

5 But righteous men before the Lord,
shall heartily rejoyce
They shall be glad and merry all,
and chearful in their voices.

4 Sing praise, sing praise unto the Lord,
who rideth on the skie:
Exalt the Name of Jah our God,
and him do magnifie.

3 The same is he that is above,
within his holy place:
That father is of fatherlesse,
and judge of widows case.

2 Houses he gives, and issue both,
unto the comfortlesse:
He bringeth bondmen out of thrall,
and rebels to distresse.

1 When thou didst march before thy folk
th' Egyptians from among: [ness
And broughtst them through the wilder-
which was both wide and long. (down
8 The earth did quake, the rain pow'd heard were great claps of thunder:
The mount Sinai shook in such sort,
as it would break in sunder.

9 Thine heritage with drops of rain
abundantly was waikt:
And if so be it barren warr,
by thee it was refreshr.
10 Thy chosen flock doth there remain,
thou hast prepar'd that place:
And for the poor thou dost provide
of thine especial grace.

The second Part.

11 God will give women causes just,
to magnifie his Name:
When as his people triumphs make,
and purchase bruit and fame.

12 For puissant kings for all their power
shall flee and take the foile:
And women which remain at home
shall help to part the spoile.

13 And though you were as black as pors,
your hue shall passe the Dove:
Whose wings and feathers seem to have silver and gold above.

14 When in this land God shall triumph
on Kings both high and low:
Then shall it be like Salmon hill,
as white as any fl ow.

15 Though Basan be a fruitful hill,
and in height others passe:
Yet Zion Gods most holy hill
doth far excel in grace.

16 Why brag ye thus, ye hills most high,
and leap for pride together?
The hill of Zion God doth love,
and there will dwell for ever.

17 Gods army is two millions of warriors good and strong:
The Lord shall dwell on high,
and shall be feared of all.

is present them among.

Thou didst (O Lord) ascend on high,
and captiver ledst them all:
Which in times past thy chosen flock
in bondage kept and thrall.

18 Thou madst them tribute for to pay,
and such as did repine,
Thou didst subdue that they might dwell
in thy Temple divine.

19 Now praised be the Lord for that he poures on us such graces:
From day to day he is the God
of our health and solace.

The third Part.

20 He is the God from whom alone
salvation cometh plaine:
He is the God by whom we scape
all dangers, death and pain.

21 Thus God wil wound his enemies head
and break the hairy scalpe
Of those that in their wickednesse continually do walk.

22 From Basan will I bring, said he,
my people and my sheep:
And all mine own as I have done,
from dangers of the deep.

23 And make them dip their feet in blood
of those that hate my Name:
And dogs that have their tongues imbr'd
with licking of the same.

24 All men may see how thou O God
thine enemies dost deface:
And how thou goest as God and King
into thine holy place.

25 The fingers go before with joy,
the minstrels follow after:
And in the midst the damsel play,
with timbrel and with taber.

26 Now in the Congregation,
O Israel, praise the Lord;
And Jacobs whole posterity,
give thanks with one accord.

27 Their chief was little Benjamin,
but Juda made their host:
With Zebulon and Nephtalim,
which dwell about their coast.

28 As God hath given power to thee,
so Lord make firm and sure
The thing that thou hast wrought in us,
for ever to endure.

29 And in thy Temple gifts will we give unto thee O Lord:
For thine unto Jerusalem,
sure promise made by word.

The fourth Part.

Yea, and strange Kings to us subdu'd,
shall do like in those dayes:
I mean to thee they shall present
their gifts of laud and praise.

30 He shall destroy the spearman's ranks
the calves and bulls of might:
And cause them tribute pay, and dunt
at Gods feet.

8 Then shall the Lords of Egypt come,
and presents with them bring:

The Moors most black shall stretch their unto their Lord and King. (hands)

9 Therefore the Kingdoms of the earth
give praise unto the Lord:

Sing Psalms to God with one consent,
thereto let all accord.

10 Who though he ride and ever hath
above the heavens bright:

Yet by the fearful thunder claps men may well know his might.

11 Therefore the strength of Israel
ascribe to God on high:

Whose might and power doth far extend
above the cloudy skie,

12 O God thy holiness and power
is dread for evermore:

The God of Israel gives us strength,
praised be God therefore,

PSALM lxix. I. H.

SAve me O God, and that with speed,
the waters flow full fast:

So nigh my soul do they proceed,
that I am fore agast.

2 I stick full deep in mire and clay,
whereas I feel no ground:

I fall into such floods I say,
that I am like be drown'd.

3 With crying oft I faint and quail,
my throat is hoarse and drie:

With looking up my sight doth fail,
for help to God on high.

4 My foes that guiltlesse do oppresse
my soule, with hate are led:

In number sure they are no lesse
then hairens are on my head.

5 Though for no cause they vex me sore,
they prosper and are glad:

They do compel me to restore the thing I never had.

6 What I have done for want of wit,
thou Lord all times canst tell;

And all the faults that I commit,
to thee are known full well.

7 O God of Hosts defend and stay
all these that trust in thee.

Let no man doubt or shrink away,
for ought that chanceth me.

8 It is for thee an' for thy sake,
that I do bear this blame:

In spight of thee they would me make
to hide my face for shame.

9 My mother's sons, my brethren all forsake me on a row:

And as a stranger they me call,
my face they will not know.

10 Unto thy house such zeal I bear,
that it doth bane me much:

Their cheeks and taunts at thee to hear,
my heart doth much

The Second Part.

11 Though I do fast my teeth to chaff,
if I do weep and mone:

Yet in my teeth this thing is cast,
they passe not thereupon.

12 If I for pain and grief of heart
in sackcloth use to walk:

Then they anon will in perverse,
thereof they jest and talk.

13 Both high and low and all the throng
that sit within the gate,

They have me ever in their tongue,
of me they talk and prate.

14 The drunkards which in wine delight:
it is their chief pastime.

To seek which way to work me spight,
of me they sing and rime.

15 But thee the while, O Lord, I pray,
that when it pleaseth thee,

For thy great truth thou wilt alway
send down thine aid to me.

16 Pluck thou my feet out of the mire,
from drowning do me keep,

From such as owe me wrath and ire,
and from the waters deep.

17 Left with the waves I should be drown'd
and depth my soul devour,

And that the pit should me confound,
and shut me in her power.

18 O Lord of hosts to me give ear,
as thou art good and kind;

And as thy mercy is most dear,
Lord have me in thy mind.

19 And do not from thy servant hide,
nor turn thy face away:

I am oppress'd on every side,
in hast give ear I say.

20 O Lord unto my soul draw nigh,
the same with aid repose:

Because of their great tyrannie
acquitt me from my foes.

The third part.

21 That I abide rebuke and shame,
thou knowest and thou canst tell:

For those that seek and work the same,
thou seest them all full well.

22 When they with brags do break my
I seek for help anon: (heart)

But find no friends to ease my smart:
to comfort me nor one.

23 But in my meat they gave me gall,
too cruel for to think:

And gave me in my thirst withal
strong vinegar to drink.

24 Lord turn their table to a snare,
to take themselves therein:

And when they think full well to fare,
then trap them in the gin.

25 And let their eyes be dark and blind,
that they may nothing see:

Bow down their backs and do them bind
in thralldom for to be.

26 Pour out thy wrath as hot as fire,
that it on them may fall:

Let thy displeasure in thine ire,
take hold upon them all.

87 As deſerts dry their howle diſgrace,
their off-ſpring eke expell:

That none thereof poſſeſſe their place,
nor in their tents do dwell.

88 If thou doſt ſtrike the man to tame,
on him they lay full fore:

And if that thou doſt wound the ſame,
they ſeek to hurt him more.

89 Then let them heep up miſchief ſtill,
(ſith they are all pervert)

That of thy favour and good will they never have a part.

90 And raze them clean out of thy book
of life, of hope, of truſt:

That for their name they never look
in number of the juſt.

The fourth Part.

91 Though I, O Lord, with wo and grief
have been full ſore oppreſt:

Thy help ſhall give me ſuch relief,
that all ſhall be redreſt.

92 That I may give thy name the praiſe
and ſhew it with a ſong;

I will extol the ſame alwayes,
with hearty thanks among.

93 Which is more pleaſant unto thee,
(ſuch munde thy grace hath born)

Then either ox or calf can be,
that hath both hoof and horn.

94 When ſimple folk do this behold,
it ſhall rejoyce them ſure:

All ye that ſeek the Lord behold
your life for aye ſhall dure.

95 For why? the Lord of hoſts doth hear
the poor when they complain:

His prifoners are to him full dear,
he doth them not diſdain.

96 Wherefore the ſkie and earth below,
the ſea with flood and ſtream,

His praiſe they ſhall declare and ſhew,
with all that live in them.

97 For ſure our God will Sich ſave,
and Judae Cities build:

much folk poſſeſſion there ſhall have her ſtreets ſhall all be fill'd.

98 His ſervants ſeed ſhall keep the ſame,
all ages out of minde:

99 And there all they that love his Name,
a dwelling place ſhall finde.

Pſalm Lxx. I. H.

O God to me take heed,
of help I thee require:

O Lord of hoſts with haile and ſpeed,
be p help. I thee deſire.

2 With ſhame confound them all,
that ſeek my ſoul to ſpill:

Rebuke them back with blame to fall,
that think and wiſh me ill.

3 Confound ſuch that apply,

And at my harm do laugh and cry,
ſo ſo, there goes the game.

4 But let them joyfull be in thee with joy and wealth:

Which only truſt and ſeek to thee
and to thy ſaving health.

5 That they may ſay alwayes,
in mirth and one accord:

All glory, honour, laud and praiſe,
be given to thee O Lord.

6 But I am weak and poor,
come Lord thine aid I lack.

Thou art my ſtay and help, therefore make ſpeed and be not ſlack.

Pſalm Lxxi. I. H.

MY Lord my God in all diſtreſſe,
my hope is whole in thee,

Then let no ſhame my ſoul oppreſſe,
nor once take hold on me.

2 As thou art juſt defend me Lord,
and rid me out of dread:

Give ear and to my ſuit accord,
and ſend me help at need.

3 Be thou my rock, to whom I may
for aid all times reſort:

Thy promiſe is to help alway,
thou art my fence and fort.

4 Save me my God from wicked men,
and from their ſtrength and power,

From ſolk unjuſt, and eke from them
that cruelly devoure.

5 Thou art the ſtay wherein I truſt,
thou Lord of Hoſts art he:

Yea from my youth I had a juſt,
ſtill to depend on thee.

6 Thou haſt me kept even from my birth,
and I through thee was born:

Wherefore I will thee praiſe with mirth
both evening and at morn.

7 As to a monaſter ſeldome ſeen,
much ſoll about me throng:

But thou art now and ſtill haſt been my fence and aid ſo ſtrong.

8 Wherefore my mouth no time ſhall lack thy glory and thy praiſe:

And eke my tongue ſhall not be ſlack
to honour thee alwayes.

9 Reſuſe me not, O Lord, I ſay,
when age my limbs doth take:

And when my ſtrength doth waſte away,
do not my ſoul forſake.

10 Among themſelves my ſons enquire,
to take me thru gh dereir,

And they againſt me do conſpire,
that for my ſoul laid wait.

The ſecond Part.

11 Lay hand and take heed now, ſay ſaid,
for God from him is gone:

Diſpatch him quire, for to him aid
(twiſ) here cometh none.

12 Do not abſent thy ſelf away,

But that in time of grief thou may in haste give help to me.

13 With shame confound and overthrow
all those that seek my life :
Oppresse them with rebuke also,
that faine would work me strife.

14 But I will patiently abide thy help at all assaies :
Still more and more each time and ryde,
I will set forth thy praise.

15 My mouth thy justice shall record,
that daily help doth send :
But of thy benefits O Lord,
I know no count nor end.

16 Yet will I go and seek forth one with thy good help O God :
The saving health of thee alone,
to shew and set abroad.

17 For of my youth thou tookst the care,
and dost instruct me still :
Therefore thy wonders to declare,
I have great minde and will.

18 And as in youth from wanton rage,
thou didst me keep and stay :
Forake me nor unto mine age,
and till my head be gray.

The third Part.

19 That I thy strength & might may show
to them that now be here :

And that our seed thy power may know
hereafter many a year.

20 O Lord thy justice doth exceed,
thy doings all may see :
Thy works are wonderful indeed,
Of who is like to thee ?

21 Thou mad'st me feel affliction sore,
and yet thou didst me save :

Yea thou didst help and me restore,
and tookst me from the grave.

22 And thou mine honour dost increase,
my dignity maintaine :

Yea thou dost make all strife to cease,
and comfort'st me again.

23 Therefore thy faithfulness to praise,
I will with viol sing,

My harp shall sound thy praise alwaies,
O Israels holy King.

24 My mouth will joy with pleasant voice
when I shall sing to thee.

And eke my soul will much rejoyce,
for thou hast made me free.

25 My tongue thy uprightness shall sound,
and speak it daily still :

For grief and shame do them confound,
that seek to work me ill.

PSALM lxxii. I.H.

I Lord give thy judgments to the King,
therein instruct him well :

And with his son that princely thing,
Lord let thy justice dwell.

That he may govern uprightly,
and rule the folk aright :

And so defend through equity,
the poor that have no might.

3 And let the mountains that are high,
unto thy folk give peace :
And eke let little hills apply,
in justice to increase.

4 That he may help the weak and poor
with aid and make them strong :
And eke destroy for evermore,
all those that do them wrong.

5 And then from age to age shall they regard and fear thy might :
So long as Sun doth shine by day,
or else the Moon by night.

6 Lord make the King unto the just,
like raine to fields new mown :
And like to drops that lay the dust,
and fresh the land new sowne.

7 The just shall flourish in his time,
and all shall be at peace :
Until the Moon shall leave to prime,
waste, change, and to increase.

8 He shall be Lord of sea and land,
from shore to shore throughout :
And from the floods within the land,
through all the earth about.

9 The people that in deserts dwell,
shall kneel to him full thick :
And all his enemies that rebel,
the earth and dust shall lick.

10 The Lords of all the isles then by,
great gifts to him shall bring :
The Kings of Saba and Arabe,
give many a costly thing.

The second Part.

11 All Kings shall seek with one accord,
in his good grace to stand :

And all the people of the world,
shall serve him at his hand.

12 For he the needy sort doth save,
that unto him do call :

And eke the simple folk that have no help of man at all.

13 He taketh pity on the poor,
that are with need oppress :
He doth preserve them evermore,
and bring their souls to rest.

14 He shall redeem their lives from dread,
from fraud, from wrong, from might :
And eke the blood that they shall bleed
is precious in his sight.

15 But he shall live and they shall bring to him of Sakes gold :
He shall be honoured as a King,
and daily be extold.

16 The mighty mountaines of his land
of corn shall bear such throng :
That it like Cedar-trees shall stand,
in Libanus full long.

17 Their Cities eke full well shall speed,
the fruit thereof shall grow :

In plenty it shall far exceed,
and spring as green as grass.
For ever they shall praise his Name,
while that the Sun is light.
And think them happy, though the same
all folk shall best his might.
19 Praise ye the Lord of hosts, and sing
to Israel's God each one:
For he doth every wondrous thing,
yea he himself alone.
20 And blesse be his holy Name,
all times eternally:
That all the earth may praise the same,
Amen, amen, say I.

PSALM lxxxiiij. T. S.

How ever it be, yet God is good
and kind to Israel:
And to all such as faithfully keep their conscience pure and well.
2 Yet like a fool I almost slip,
my feet began to slide:
And ere I wist, even at a pinch
my steps awry gan glide.
3 For when I saw such foolish men,
I grudg'd and did disdain
That wicked men all things should have without trouble or pain.
4 They never suffer pangs nor grief,
as if death should them smite:
Their bodies are both stout and strong,
and ever in good plight.
5 And free from all adversary,
when other men be ibent:
And with the rest they take no part of plague or punishment.
6 Therefore presumption doth embrace their necks, as doth a chaine:
And are even wrapt in a robe,
with rapine and disdain.
7 They are so fed, that even for fat
their eyes oft times out-stare:
And as for worldly goods, they have more then can with their heart.
8 Their life is most licentious,
boasting much of their wrong:
Which they have done to simple men,
and ever pry'd among.
9 The heavens and the living Lord
they spare not to blaspheme:
And prate they do of worldly things,
no wight they do esteem.
10 The people of God oft times turn back to see their prosperous state:
And almost drink the self same cup,
and follow the same race.

The second Part

11 How can it be that God (say they) should know or understand These worldly things, with wicked men
be Lords of sea and land?
12 For we may see how wicked men
in riches still increase:
Reward'd well with worldly goods,
and live in rest and peace.

13 Then why dost thou from wicked men
my fancie estray?
And wash my hand with innocents,
and cleanse my heart in vain?
14 And suffer scourges every day,
as if best to all blame
And every morning from my youth sustain rebuke and shame?
15 And I had almost said as they,
misliking mine estate:
But that I should thy children judge,
as folk unfortunate.
16 Then I bestought me how I might thine anger under stand:
But yet the labour was too great
for me to take in hand.
17 Until the time I went into thy holy place, and then;
I understood right perfectly
the end of all these men.
18 And namely how thou settest them
upon a slippery place:
And at thy pleasure and thy will thou dost them all deface.

19 Then all men muse at that strange sight
to see how suddenly
They are destroyed, disparted, consum'd,
and dead so horribly.
20 Much like a dream when one awakes,
so shall their wealth decay:
Their famous names in all mens sight,
shall ebbe and passe away.

The third Part.

21 Yet thus my heart was griev'd then
my mind was much oppress'd:
22 So fond was I, and ignorant,
and in this point a blast.
23 Yet never thelesse by thy right hand,
thou hold'st me alwayes fast:
24 And with thy counsel dost me guide
to glory at the last.
25 What thing is there that I can wish,
but thee in heaven above?
And in the earth there is nothing
like thee that I can love.
26 My flesh and eke my heart doth fail,
but God doth fail me never:
For of my health God is the strength,
my portion eke for ever.
27 And to all such as thee forsake,
thou shalt destroy each one:
And those that trust in any thing,
saving in thee alone.
28 Therefore I will draw near to God,
and ever with him dwell:
In God alone I put my trust,
thy wonders I will tell.
PSALM lxxxiv. I. H.
Why art thou (Lord) so long from us,
in all this danger deep?
Why doth thine anger kindle thus,
at thine own pasture sheep?
2 Lord call thy people to thy thought,
which have been thine so long.

The which thou hast redeemed & brought from bondage sore and strong.

3 Have mind therefore and think upon,
remember is full well:

Thy pleasant place, thy mount Zion,
where thou wast wont to dwell.

4 Lift up thy feet and come in haste,
and all thy foes deface:

Which now at pleasure rob and waste
within thy holy place.

5 Amid thy congregations all,
thine enemies roar, O God:
They set as signs on every wall,
their banners spai'd abroad.

6 As men with axes hew down trees,
that on the hills do grow:

So shine the bills and swords of these within thy Temple now.

7 The feeling sawd, the carved boards,
the goodly graven stones,
With axes, hammers, bills and swords,
they beat them down at once.

8 Thy places they consume with flame,
and eke in all this toile,
The house appointed to thy Name,
they raze down to the soile.

9 And thus they say within their heart,
dispatch them out of hand:

Then burn they up in every part
Gods houses through the land.

10 Yet thou no sign of help dost send,
our Prophets all are gone:

To tell when this our plague shall end,
among us there is none.

11 When wilt thou (Lord) once end this and cease thine enemies strong? (shame
shall they alwaies blaspheme thy Name,
and rail on thee so long?)

12 Why dost thou draw thy hand aback,
and hide it in thy lap?

O pluck it out and be not slack
to give thy foes a rap.

The second part.

13 O God thou art our King and Lord,
and evermore hast been:

Yea thy good grace throughout the world
for our good help hath seen.

14 The seas that are so deep and dead,
thy might did make them drie,

And thou didst break the Serpents head,
that he therein did die.

15 Yea thou didst break the head so great
of Whales that are so fell:

And gavst them to the folk to eat,
(rise that in the deserts dwell.)

16 Thou madst a spring with streams, to
from rock both hard and high:

And eke thy hand hath made likewise
deep rivers to be drie.

17 Both day and eke the night are thine
by thee they are begun:

Thou sett'st to serve us with their mind
the light and eke the Sun,

18 Thou didst appoint the ends and coasts
of all the earth about:

For summer-heats, and winter-frosts,
thy hand hath found them out.

19 Think on (O Lord) to time forget
thy foes that thee defame:

And how the foolish folk are set
to rail upon thy Name.

20 O let no cruel beasts devour
the Turtle that is true;

Forger nor alwaies in thy power
the poor that much do rue,

21 Regard thy Covenant and behold
thy foes possess the land:

All sad and dark, forlorn and old,
our Realm as now doth stand.

22 Let not the simple go away,
nor yet return with shame:

But let the poor and needy aye
give praise unto thy Name.

23 Rise (Lord) let be by thee maintained
the cause that is thine own:

Remember how that thou blasphem'd
art by the foolish one.

24 The voice forget not of thy foes,
for the presumption he

Is more and more increas't of those that hate thee spitefully.

PSALM lxxv. I.H.

Unto thee God will we give thanks,
we will give thanks to thee:

Such thy name is so near, declare thy wondrous works will we.

2 I will uprightly judge, when get convenient time I may:

The earth is weak, and all therein,
but I her pillars stay.

3 I did so the mad people say,
deal not so furiously:

And unto the ungodly ones,
set not your horns on hie.

4 I said unto them, set not up
your raised horns on hie:

And see that you do with stiff neck
not speak presumptuously.

5 For neither from the eastern parts,
nor from the western side:

Nor from forsaken wilderness
promotion doth proceed.

6 For why? the Lord our God he is the righteous judge alone:

He putteth down the one, and sets
another in the Throne.

7 For why? a cup of mighty wine
is in the hand of God:

And all the mighty wine therein,
himself doth pour abroad.

8 As for the lees and filthye dregs
that do remain of it:

Psalm Lxxvi, Lxxvii.

The wicked of the earth shall drink,
and suck them every whit.

9 But I will talk of God, I say,
of Jacobs God therefore:
And will not cease to celebrate
his praise for evermore.
10 In sundry break the horns of all ungodly men will I:
But then the horns of righteous men
shall be exalted high.

Gloria Patri.

To Father, Son and holy Ghost,
all glory be therefore:
As in beginning was, is now,
and shall be evermore.

PSALM lxxvj. I.H.

To all that now in Iury dwell,
the Lord is clearly known:

His name is great in Israel,
a people of his own.

2 At Salem he his tents hath pight,
to carry there a place:

In Sion eke he hath delight
to make his dwelling place.

3 And there he brake both shaft and bow,
the sword, the spear, and shield:
And brake the ray to overthrow
in barrel on the field.

4 Thou art more worthy honour Lord,
more might in thee doth lie,
Than in the strongest of the world,
that rob on mountains high.

5 But now the proud are spoild through and they are slain on sleep: (thou,
Through men of war no help can be,
themselves they could not keep.

6 At thy rebuke O Jacobs God,
when thou dost them reprove,
As half on sleep their chariots stood,
no horsemen once did move.

7 For thou art dreadful, Lord, indeed,
what man the courage hath
To bide thy sight, and doth not dread
when thou art in thy wrath? (heard

8 When thou dost make thy judgements
from heaven through the ground,
Then all the earth full fore afraid,
in silence shall be found.

9 And that when thou O God dost stand
in judgement for to speak,
To save the afflicted of the land,
on earth that are full weak.

10 The fury that in man doth raise shall turn unto thy praise:
Hereafter (Lord) do thou restrain their wrath and threats always.

11 Make vows, and pay them to our God,
ye folk that nigh him be,
Bring gifts all ye that dwell abroad,
for dreadful sure is he.

12 For he doth take both life and might
from Prince: great of birth,
And full of requour is his sight
to all the Kings on earth.

PSALM lxxvij. I.H.

I With my voice to God do cry,
with heart, and hearty cheer:
My voice to God I lift on high,
and he my sin doth hear.
2 In time of grief I sought to God,
by night no rest I took:
But stretch my hands to him abroad,
my soul comfort forsook.

3 When I do think on God intend,
my trouble then is more:
I spake, but could not make an end,
my breath was stoppt so sore.

4 Thou holdst mine eyes alwayn from rest
that I always awake:
With fear I am so fore oppressd,
my speech doth me forsake.

5 The dayes of old in minde I cast,
and oft did think upon,
The times and ages that are past
full many years ago.

6 By night my songs I call to minde,
once made thy praise to show:
And with my heart much talk I finde,
my spirits do search to know.

7 Will God, said I, at once for all cast off his people thus:
So that henceforth no time he shall be friendly unto us?

8 What, is his goodnesse clean decayd
for ever and a day?
Or is his promise now decayd,
and doth his truth decay?

9 And will the Lord our God forget his mercies manifold?
Or shall his wrath increase so hot,
his mercies to with-hold?

10 At last I said, my weaknesse is the cause of this mistrust, Gods mighty hand can help all this,
and change it when he lust.

The second Part.

11 I will regard and think upon
the working of the Lord;
Of all his wonders past and gone,
I gladly will record.

12 Yet all his works I will declare,
and what he did devise:
To tell his facts I will not spare,
and eke his counsel wise.

13 Thy works (O Lord) are all upright,
and holy all abroad:
What one hath strength to march & might
of thee O Lord our God?

14 Thou art a God that dost forth show
thy wonders every hour:
And so dost make the people know
thy vertue and thy power.

15 And thine own folk thou dost defend with strength and stretched arm:
The sons of Jacob that descend,
and Josephs seed from harm.

16 The warden Lord perceived thee,

the waters saw that well:
 And they for fear away did flee,
 the depths on trembling fell.

17 The clouds that were both thick and did rain full plentifully: (black
 The thunder in the aire did crack,
 thy shafts abroad did flie.

18 Thy thunder in the aire was heard,
 thy lightnings from above,
 With flashes great made men afraid,
 the earth did quake and move.

19 Thy wayes within the sea do lie,
 thy paths in waters deep Yet none can there thy steps espie,
 nor know thy paths to keep:

20 Thou ledst thy folk upon the land,
 as sheep on every side:
 Through Moses and through Aarons hand
 thou didst them safely guide.

P S A L M lxxvij. I. H.

Attend my people to my law,
 and to my words incline:
 2 My mouth shall speak strange parables and sentences divin.

3 Which we our selves have heard and even of our fathers old: (learn'd
 And which for our instruction
 our fathers have us told.

4 Because we should not keep it close from them that should come after:
 Who should Gods power to their race
 and all his works of wonder. (praise

5 To Jacob he commandment gave,
 how Israel should live:
 Willing our fathers should the same
 unto their children give.

6 That they and their posterity,
 that were nor sprung up tho,
 Should have the knowledge of the law,
 and teach their seed also.

7 That they might have the better hope
 in God that is above:
 And nor forget to keep his laws,
 and his precepts in love.

8 Nor being as their fathers were;
 rebelling in Gods sight:
 And would nor frame their wicked hearts
 to know their God aright.

9 How went the people of Ephraim their neighbours for to spoil:
 Shooting their darts in day of war,
 and yet they took the foil?

10 For why they did not keep with God
 the covenant that was made:
 Nor yet would walk or lead their lives
 according to his trade.

11 But put into oblivion,
 his counsel and his will:
 And all his works most magnifque
 which he declared still.

The second Part.

12 What wonders to our fore-fathers
 did he himself disclose?

In Egypt land within the field,
 that call'd is Thaneos?

13 He did divide and cut the sea,
 that they might passe at once:
 And made the waters stand as still
 as doth an heap of stones.

14 He led them secret in a cloud
 by day when it was bright:
 And in the night when dark it was,
 with fire he gave them light.

15 He brake the rocks in wilderness,
 and gave the people drink:
 As plentiful as when the deeps
 do flow up to the brink.

16 He drew out rivers out of rocks
 that were both drie and hard:
 Of such abundance, that no floods
 to them might be compar'd.

17 Yet for all this against the Lord
 their sin they did encrease:
 And stirred him that is most high,
 to wrath in wilderness.

18 They tempted God within their hearts
 like people of mistrust, Requiring such a kind of meat,
 as served to their lust.

19 Saying with murmuration,
 in their unfaithfulness:
 What? can this God prepare for us
 a feast in wilderness?

20 Behold he brake the stony rocks,
 and floods forthwith did flow:
 But can he now give to his folk both bread and flesh also?

21 When God heard this, he waxed wroth
 with Jacob and his seed:
 So did his indignation
 on Israel proceed.

The third Part.

22 Because they did not faithfully believe and hope that he,
 Could always help and succor them
 in their necessity.

23 Wherefore he did command the clouds,
 forthwith they brake in thunder:

24 And rain'd down Manna for them to a food of mickle wonder. (eat,

25 When earthly men with Angels food
 were fed at their request:

26 He bad the east winde blow away,
 and brought in the South-West.

27 He rain'd down flesh as thick as dust,
 and fowle as thick as sand:

28 Which he did cast amid the place,
 where all their tents did stand.

29 Then did they eat exceedingly,
 and all men had their fill:
 Yet more and more they did desire,
 to serve their lust and will.

30 But as the meat was in their mouths,
 his wrath upon them fell:

31 And slew the flower of all their youth,
 and choice of Israel.

31 Yet tell they to their wonted sin,
and still they did him grieve:
For all the wonders that he wrought,
they would him not believe.
32 Their days therefore he shortened,
and made their honour vain:
Their years did waste and passe away,
with terroure and with pain.
33 But ever when he plagued them,
they sought him by and by:
34 Remembring that he was their strength
their help and God most high.
35 Though in their mouths they did bur
and flatter with the Lord: (glose
And with their tongues &c in their hearts
dissembled every word.

The fourth Part.

37 For why their hearts were nothing bent
to him nor to his trade:
Nor yet to keep or to performe
the covenant that was made.
38 Yet was he still so merciful,
when they deserv'd to die:
That he forgave them their misdeeds,
and would not them destroy.

Yea, many a time he turn'd his wrath,
and did himself advise:
And would not suffer all his whole displeasure to arise.
39 Considering that they were but flesh,
and even as a winde,
That passeth away and cannot well
return by his own kind.

40 How oftentimes in wilderness
did they the Lord provoke?
How did they move and stir the Lord
to plague them with his stroke?
41 Yet did they turn again to sin,
and tempted God eie-soone:
Prescribing to the holy Lord,
what things they would have done.

42 Not thinking of his hand and power
nor of the day when he Delivered them out of the hands
of their fierce enemy.

43 Nor how he wrought his miracles,
(as they themselves beheld)
In Egypt and the wonders that he did in Zoan field.

44 Nor how he turned by his power,
their waters into blood:
That no man might receive his drink
at river nor at flood.

45 Nor how he sent them swarms of flies,
which did them sore annoy:
And filld their countrey full of frogs
which did their land destroy.

The fifth Part.

46 Nor how he did commit their sin
unto the caterpillar:
And all the labour of their hands
he gave to the grasshopper. (vines, 47 With hail-stones he destroyed their
so that they were all lost:

And not so much as wild fig-trees,
but he consum'd with froe.

48 And yet with hailstones once again
the Lord their cattell smore:
And all their flocks and herds likewise
with thunderbolts full hot.

49 He cast upon them in his ire,
and in his fury strong,
Displeasure, wrath and evil spirits,
to trouble them among.

50 Then to his wrath he made a way,
and spared not the least:
But gave unto the pestilence
the man and eke the beast.

51 He struck also the first-born all,
that up in Egypt came:
And all the chief of men and beasts
within the tents of Ham.

52 But as for all his own dear folk,
he did preserve and keep:
And carried them through wilderness,
even like a flock of sheep.

53 Without all fear both safe and sound
he brought them out of thrall:
Whereas their foes with rage of sea:
were overwhelmed all.

54 And brought them out into the coasts
of his own holy land:
Even to the mount which he had got
by his strong arm and hand.
55 And there cast out the heathen folk,
and did their land divide:
And in their tents he sets the Tribes
of Israel to abide.

56 Yet for all this, their God most high they stir'd and tempted still:
And would not keep his Testaments,
nor yet obey his will.
57 But as their fathers turned back,
even so they went astray:
Much like a bowe that would not bend,
but slip and start away.

The sixth Part.

58 And griev'd him with their hill-sacrifices,
with offerings and with fire:
And with their idols vehemently
provoked him to ire.

59 Therewith his wrath began again
to kindle in his brest:
The naughtynesse of Israel
he did so much detest.

60 Then he forsook the Tabernacle of Shilo where he was Right conversant with earthly men,
even as his dwelling place.

61 Then suffered he his might and power
in bondage for to stand:
And gave the honour of his Ark
into his enemies hand.

62 And did commit them to the sword
wrath with his heritage:

63 Their young men were devour'd with maids had no marriage.

64 And with the sword the priests also did perish every one:
And not a widow left alive,
their death for to be none.

65 And then the Lord began to wake,
like one that slept a time:
And like a valiant man of war,
refreshed after wine.

66 With Enrod's in the hinder parts
he strake his enemies all:
And put them then unto a shame
that was perpetual.

67 Then he the tent and tabernacle
of Joseph did refuse:

As for the Tribe of Ephraim,
he would in no wise chuse.

68 But chose the Tribe of Judah;
whereas he thought to dwell:
Even the noble mount Sion,
which he did love to well.

69 Whereas he did his Temple build,
both sumptuously and sure:
Like as the earth which he hath made
for ever to endure.

70 Then chose he David, him to serve,
his people for to keep:
Whom he took up and brought away,
even from the folds of sheep.

71 As he did follow th' Ewes with young,
the Lord did him advance:
To feed his people Israel,
and his inheritance.

72 Thus David with a faithful heart
his flock and charge did feed,
And prudently with all his power,
did govern them indeed.

PSALM lxxix. I. H.

O God the Gentiles do invade
thine heritage to spoil:
Jerusalem an heap is made,
thy Temple they defile.

1 The bodies of thy Saints most dear abroad to birds they cast.
The flesh of them that do thee fear,
the beasts devour and waste.

2 Their blood throughout Jerusalem,
as waters spilt they have:
So that there is not one of them
to lay their dead in grave.

3 Thus are we made a laughing stock,
almost the world throughout:
The enemies at us jest and mock,
which dwell our coasts about.

4 Wilt thou O Lord thus in thine ire,
against us ever fume.
And shew thy wrath as hot as fire,
thy folk for to consume?

5 Upon those people pour the same,
which did thee never know:

6 All Nations which call not on thy Name,

7 For they have got the upper hand;
and Jacobs seed destroyed:
His habitation his land,
they have left waste and void.

8 Bear not in mind our former faults,
with speed some pity show:
And aid us Lord in all assaults,
for we are weak and low.

The second Part.

9 O God that giv'st all health and grace,
on us declare the same:

Weigh not our works, our sins deface,
for honour of thy Name.

10 Why shall the wicked still away,
to us as people dumb,
In thy reproach rejoyce and say,
where is their God become?

Require (O Lord) as thou seest good,
before our eyes in fight,
Of all these folk thy servants blood,
which they spilt in despite.

11 Receive into thy fight in haste,
the clamours, grief and wrong
Of such as are in prison cast,
sustaining irons strong.

Thy force and strength to celebrate,
Lord set them out of hand,
Which unto death are destinate,
and in their enemies hand.

12 The nations which have been so bold
as to blaspheme thy Name:
Into their laps with seven-fold
repay again the same.

13 So we thy folk and pasture sheep
will praise thee evermore,
And teach all ages for to keep
for thee like praise in store.

PSALM lxxx. I. H.

Thou herd that Israel dost keep,
give ear and take good heed:
Which ledest Joseph like a sheep,
and dost him watch and feed.

2 Thou Lord, I say whose seat is set on Cherubim most bright:
Shew forth thy self and do not let
send down thy beams of light.

3 Before Ephraim and Benjamin,
Manasses eke likewise:
To shew thy power do thou begin,
come help us, Lord arise.

4 Direct our hearts unto thy grace,
convert us, Lord, to thee:
Shew us the brightness of thy face,
and then full safe are we.

5 Lord God of host, of Israel,
how long wilt thou, I say,
Against thy folk in anger swell,
and wilt not hear them pray?

6 Thou dost them feed with sorrows deep
their bread with tears they eat:
And drink the tears that they do weep:

1 Thou hast made a very strife
to those that dwell about.

And that our foes do love a life,
they laugh and jest it out.

2 O take us (Lord) unto thy grace,
convert our hearts to thee:
Shew forth to us thy joyful face,
and we full safe shall be.

3 From Egypt where it grew not well,
thou broughtest a vine full dear:
The heathen folk thou didst expel,
and thou didst plant it there.

4 Thou didst prepare for it a place,
and set her roots full fast:
That it did spring and grow apace,
and fill the land at last.

The second part.

5 The hills were covered about with shade that from it came:
And eke the Cedars strong and stout,
with branches of the same.

6 Why then didst thou her walls destroy?
her hedge pluckt up thou hast:
That all the folk that passe thereby,
thy vine may spoil and waste.

7 The boar out of the wood so wilde,
doth dig and roor it out:
The furious beasts out of the field
devour it all about.

8 O Lord of hosts, return again,
from heaven look betime:
Behold, and with thy help sustain
this poor vineyard of thine.

9 Thy plant, I say, thine Israel,
whom thy right hand hath set,
The same which thou didst love so well,
O Lord do not forget.

10 They lop and cut it down apace,
they burn it eke with fire:
And through the frowning of thy face,
we perish in thine ire.

11 Let thy right hand be with them now
whom thou hast kept so long:
And with the son of man whom thou
to thee hast made so strong.

12 And so when thou hast set us free,
and saved us from shame:
Then will we never fall from thee,
but call upon thy Name.

13 O Lord of hosts through thy good convert us unto thee: (grace)
Behold us with a pleasant face,
and then full safe are we.

PSALM LXXI. I.H.

BE light and glad, in God rejoyce,
which is our strength and stay:
Be joyful and lift up your voice,
to Jacob: God I say.

2 Prepare your instruments most meet
some joyful Psalm to sing:
Strike up with harp and lute so sweet,
on every pleasant string.

3 Blow as it were in the new Moon,
with trumpets of the best:
As it is used to be done
at any solemn feast.

4 For this is unto Israel,
a statute and a trade:

5 A law that must be kept full well;
which Jacobs God hath made.

6 This clause with Joseph was decreed
when he from Egypt came:
That as a witness all his seed
should still observe the same.

7 When God, I say, had so prepar'd
to bring him from that land:
Whereas the speech which he had heard,
he did not understand.

8 I from his shoulders took (saith he)
the burthen clean away:
And from the furnace quit him free
from burning brick of clay.

9 When thou in grief didst cry and call,
I holpt thee by and by:
And I did answer thee withal
in thunder secretly.

10 Yea at the waters of discord
I did thee tempt and prove:
Whereas the goodnesse of the Lord
with muttering thou didst move.

11 Hear, O my folk, O Israel,
and I assure it thee:
Regard and mark my words full well,
if thou wilt cleave to me.

The second part.

12 Thou shalt no God in thee reserve
of any land abroad:

Nor in no wife to bow or serve
a strange or foreign god.

13 I am the Lord thy God, and I
from Egypt set thee free:
Then ask of me abundantly,
and I will give it thee.

14 And yet my people would not hear
my voice when that I spake:
Nor Israel would not obey,
but did me quite forsake.

15 Then did I leave them to their will
in hardnesse of their heart,
To walk in their own counsels still,
themselves they might pervert.

16 O that my people would have heard
the words that I did say:
And eke that Israel would regard
to walk within my way!

17 How soon would I confound their foes
and bring them down full low:
And turn my hand upon all those
that would them overthrow!

18 And they that at the Lord do rage,
as slaves should seek him still:
But of his folk the time and age,
should flourish ever still.

19 I would have fed them with the crop
and food of their own land:

And made the rock with honey drop,
that they their fills should ear.

PSALM lxxxii. I.H.

A Mid the prefic with men of might
the Lord himself doth stand
To plead the cause of truth and right,
with Judges of the land.

1 How long (saith he) will you proceed
false judgement to award,
And have respect for love of meed,
the wicked to regard?

2 Whereas of due you should defend
the fatherless and weak:
And when the poore man doth contend,
in judgement justly speak.

3 If ye be wise, defend the cause
of poor men in their right:
And rid the needy from the claws
of tyrants force and might.

4 But nothing will they know or learn,
in vain to them I talk:
They will not see, or ought discern,
but still in darkness walk.

5 For lo, even now the time is come,
that all things fall to nought:
And likewise laws both all and some,
for gain are sold and bought.

I had decreed it in my fight,
as gods to take you all:
And children to the moit of might,
for love I did you call.

7 But now withstanding ye shall die
as men, and so decay:
O tyrants I shall you destroy,
and pluck you quite away.

8 Up Lord, and let thy strength be known,
and judge the world with might:
For why all nations are thine own
to take them as thy right.

PSALM lxxxiii. I.H.

DO not (O God) refrain thy tongue,
in silence do not stay:
Withhold not, Lord, thy self so long,
and make no more delay.

2 For why, behold thy foes, and see how they do rage and cry:
And those that bear an hate to thee,
hold up their heads on high.

3 Against thy folk they use deceit,
and craftily they enquire:
For thine elect to lie in wait,
their counsel dorth conspire.

4 Come on, say they, let us expel,
and pluck these folk away:
So that the Name of Israel
may utterly decay.

5 They all conspire within their heart,
how they may thee withstand:
Against the Lord to take a part,
they are in league and band.
6 The tents of all the Edomites,

The Hagarens and Moabites,
with divers others mo.

7 Gebal with Ammon, and likewise
dorth Amalek conspire:

The Philistims against thee rise,
with them that dwell at Tyre.

8 And Assur eke is well appaid,
with them in league to be:
And dorth become a sence and aid
to Lots posterity.

9 As thou didst to the Midianites,
so serve them Lord each one:

As to Siser and to Jabin,
beside the brook Kison.

10 Whom thou in Endor didst destroy,
and waste them through thy might:
That they like dung on earth did lie,
and that in open sight.

The second Part.

11 Make them now & their Lords appear like Zeb and Oreb than:

As Zeba and Zalmunna were the Kings of Midian.

12 Which said, let us throughout the land
in all the coasts abroad
Possesse and take into our hand
the faire houses of God.

13 Turn them O God with storms as fast,
as wheels that have no stay:
Or like the chaff which men do cast,
with windes to flie away.

14 Like as the fire with rage and fume,
the mighty forests spils:
And as the flame dorth quite consume
the mountains and the hills.

15 So let the tempest of thy wrath
upon their necks be laid:
And of thy stormy winde and showre,
Lord make them all afraid.

16 Lord bring them all I thee desire,
to such rebuke and shame,
That it may cause them to enquire
and learn to seek thy Name,

17 And let them evermore daily
to shame and slander fall:
And in rebuke and obloquit,
to perish eke withall.

18 That they may know and feel full well
that thou art called Lord:
And that alone thou dost excel,
and raigh throughout the world.

PSALM lxxxiv. I.H.

How pleasant is thy dwelling place,
O Lord of hosts to me!

The Tabernacles of thy grace
how pleasant Lord they be!

2 My Soul doth long full fore to go into thy courts abroad:
My heart doth lust my flesh also,
in thee the living God.

3 The sparrows finde a roome to rest,
and save themselves from wrong:
And eke the swallow hath a nest

These birds full nigh thine Altar may have place to sit and sing :

Lord of hosts, thou art I say,
my God and the my King.

O they be blessed that may dwell
within thy house always :

For they all times thy facts do tell,
and ever give thee praise.

Yea happy sure likewise are they whose day and strength thou art :
Which to thy house do minde the way,
and seek it in their hearts.

As they go through the vale of tears,
they dig up fountains still :

That as a spring it all appears,
and thou their piss dost fill.

From strength to strength they walk full no faintness there shall be : (left

And so the God of gods at last in Zion they do see.

O Lord of hosts to me give heed,
and hear when I do pray :

And let it through thine ears proceed,
O Jacobs God, I say.

O Lord our shield, of thy good grace regard, and so draw near :

Regard, I say, behold the face
of thine anointed dear.

For why ? within thy Courts one day
is better to abide,

Then other where to keep or stay,
a thousand days beside.

Much rather would I keep a door
within the house of God,

Than in the tents of wickedness
to settle mine abode.

For God the Lord, light and defence,
will grace and worship give :

And no good thing shall he with-hold
from them that purely live.

O Lord of hosts, that man is blest,
and happy sure is he,

That is persuaded in his breast,
to trust all times in thee.

PSALM lxxv. J. H.

Thou hast been merciful indeed,
O Lord unto thy land :

For thou restoredst Jacobs seed,
from thraldome out of hand.

The wicked ways that they were in thou didst them clean remit :

And thou didst hide thy peoples sin,
full close thou coveredst it.

Thine anger eke thou didst assuage,
that all thy wrath was gone :

And so didst turn thee from thy rage,
with them to be at one.

O God our health do now convert thy people unto thee :

For all thy wrath from us apart,
and angry cease to be.

Why shall all thine anger never end,
but still proceed on us ?

And shall thy wrath in self extend upon all ages thus ?

With duty not rather turn therefore,
and quicken us, that we,

And all thy folk may evermore
be glad and joy in thee ?

O Lord on us do thou declare
thy goodness to our wealth :

Shew forth to us, and do not spare,
thine aid and saving health.

I will heark what God faith, for he speaks to his people peace,

And to his Saints, that never they return to foolishness.

For why this help is still at hand
to such as do him fear :

Whereby great glory is our land shall dwell and flourish there.

For truth and merry there shall men
in one to take their place :

And peace shall justice with kisse greet,
and there they shall embrace.

As truth from earth shall spring apace
and flourish pleasantly :

So righteousness shall shew her face,
and look from heaven high.

Yea God himself doth take in hand
to give us each good thing :

And through the coasts of all the land
the earth her fruit shall bring.

Before his face shall justice go,
much like a guide or stay :

He shall direct his steps also,
and keep them in the way.

PSALM lxxvi. J. H.

Lord bow thine ear to my request,
and hear me by and by :

With grievous pain and grief oppress,
full poor and weak am I.

Preserve my soul, because my ways
and doings holy be :

And save thy servant, O my Lord,
that puts his trust in thee.

Thy mercy (Lord) on me expect,
defend me eke withall :

For through the day I do not cease
on thee to cry and call.

Comfort (O Lord) thy servants soul,
that now with pain is pin'd :

For unto thee (Lord) I extoll
and lift my soul and mind.

For thou art good and bountiful,
thy gifts of grace are free :

And eke thy mercy plentiful
to all that call on thee.

O Lord likewise when I do pray,
regard and give an ear :

Mark well the words that I do say,
and all my prayers hear.

In time when trouble doth me move,
to thee I do complain.

For why I know and well do prove,
thou answerest me again.

Among the gods (O Lord) there none
with thee to be compared.

And none can do as thou alone,
the like hath not been heard.

The second Part.

9 The Gentiles and the people all,
which thou didst make and frame,
Before thy face on knees shall fall,
and glorifie thy Name.

10 For why? thou art so much of might,
all power is thine own :

Thou workest wonders still in fight,
for thou art God alone.

11 O teach me, Lord, the way, and I
shall in thy trust proceed :

12 Joyn my heart to thee so nigh,
that I thy Name may dread.

13 To thee my God will I give praise,
with all my heart O Lord :

And glorifie thy Name always,
for ever through the world.

14 O teach me, Lord, the way, and I
shall in thy trust proceed :
15 Joyn my heart to thee so nigh,
that I thy Name may dread.

16 To thee my God will I give praise,
with all my heart O Lord :

And glorifie thy Name always,
for ever through the world.

17 O teach me, Lord, the way, and I
shall in thy trust proceed :

18 Joyn my heart to thee so nigh,
that I thy Name may dread.

19 To thee my God will I give praise,
with all my heart O Lord :

And glorifie thy Name always,
for ever through the world.

20 O teach me, Lord, the way, and I
shall in thy trust proceed :

21 Joyn my heart to thee so nigh,
that I thy Name may dread.

22 To thee my God will I give praise,
with all my heart O Lord :

And glorifie thy Name always,
for ever through the world.

23 O teach me, Lord, the way, and I
shall in thy trust proceed :

24 Joyn my heart to thee so nigh,
that I thy Name may dread.

25 To thee my God will I give praise,
with all my heart O Lord :

And glorifie thy Name always,
for ever through the world.

26 O teach me, Lord, the way, and I
shall in thy trust proceed :

27 Joyn my heart to thee so nigh,
that I thy Name may dread.

28 To thee my God will I give praise,
with all my heart O Lord :

And glorifie thy Name always,
for ever through the world.

29 O teach me, Lord, the way, and I
shall in thy trust proceed :

30 Joyn my heart to thee so nigh,
that I thy Name may dread.

31 To thee my God will I give praise,
with all my heart O Lord :

And glorifie thy Name always,
for ever through the world.

32 In their records to them it shall through Gods device appear Of Sion, that the chief of all had his beginning there.

33 The trumpeters, with such as sing,
there in great plenty be :

My fountains and my pleasant springs
are compass all in thee.

PSALM LXXXVIII. J. H.

Lord God of health, the hope and stay
thou art alone to me :

I call and cry throughout the day,
and all the night to thee.

3 O let my prayer soon ascend unto thy sight on high :

Incline thine ear, O Lord, attend,
and hearken to my cry.

4 For why? with woe my heart is fill'd,
and doth in trouble dwell :

My life and breath almost doth yield,
and draweth nigh to hell.

5 I am esteem'd as one of them
that in the pit do fall,

And made as one among those men
that have no strength at all.

6 As one among the dead, and free
from things that here remain :

It were more ease for me to be
with them the which are slain.

7 As those that lie in grave, I say,
whom thou hast clean forgot :

The which thy hand hath cut away,
and thou regard'st them not.

8 Yea like to one shut up full sure
within the lower pit,

In places dark and all obscure,
and in the depth of it.

9 Thine anger and thy wrath likewise
full sore on me do lie :

And all thy storms against me rise,
my soul to vex and trie.

10 Thou purst away friends far off from me
and mak'st them hate me sore :

I am shut up in prison fast,
and can come forth no more.

11 My fight doth fail through grief and I call to thee O God :

Throughout the day my hands also
to thee I stretch abroad.

The second Part,

12 Dost thou unto the dead declare
thy wondrous works of fame?

Shall dead to life again repair,
and praise thee for the same?

13 Or shall thy loving kindness, Lord,
be preached in the grave?

Or shall with them that are despoil'd,
thy truth her honour have?

14 Shall they that lie in dark full low,
of all thy wonders wot?

Or there shall they thy justice know,
where all things are forgot?

15 But I, O Lord, to thee always
do cry and call apace :

My prayer eke ere it be day,
shall come before thy face.

25 Why dost thou, Lord, abhor my soul
in grief that seeketh thee?
And now, O Lord, why dost thou hide
thy face away from me?

26 I am afflicted, dying still,
from youth, this many a year:
Thy terrors which do vex me ill,
with troubled mind I bear.

27 The furies of thy wrathful rage
full sore upon me fall:

Thy terrors eke do not assuage,
but me oppress withall.

28 All day they compass me about,
as waters at the tide:
And all at once with streams full stout
beset me on each side.

29 Thou ferrest far from me my friends,
and lovers every one:

Yea and mine old acquaintance all
out of my sight are gone.

PSALM Lxxxix. J. H.

To sing the mercies of the Lord,
my tongue shall never spare:
And with my mouth from age to age,
thy truth I will declare.

3 For I have said, that mercy shall
for evermore remain:

In that thou dost the heavens stay,
thy truth appeareth plain.

3 To mine elect, saith God, I made a covenant and behest:

My servant David to persuade,
I swore and did protest.

4 Thy seed for ever I will stay,
and stablish it full fast:

And still uphold thy Throne alway,
from age to age to last.

The heavens shew with joy and mirth
thy wondrous works, O Lord:

Thy saints within thy Church on earth,
thy faith and truth record.

5 Who with the Lord is equal then,
in all the clouds abroad?

Among the sons of all the gods,
what one is like our God?

6 God in assembly of his Saints
is greatly to be dread:

And over all that dwell about,
in terror to be had.

7 Lord God of hosts, in all the world,
what one is like to thee?

On every side, most mighty Lord,
thy truth is seen to be.

8 The raging sea by thine advice, thou rulest as thy will:

And when the waves thereof arise,
thou mak'st them calm and still.

9 And Egypt (Lord) thou hast subdu'd,
and thou hast it destroyed:

Yea, thou thy foes with mighty arm
hast scatter'd all abroad.

The second Part.

11 The heavens are thine, & still have been,
likewise the earth and land:

The world, and all that is therein,
thou foundedst with thy hand:

12 Both North & South, with East & West,
thy self didst make and frame:

Both Tabor mount, and eke Hermon,
rejoyce and praise thy Name.

13 Thine arm is strong and full of power,
all might therein doth lie:

The strength of thy right hand each hour
thou liftest up on high:

14 In righteousness and equity
thou hast thy seat and place:

Mercy and truth are still with thee,
and go before thy face.

15 That folk is blest that knows aright,
thy present power O God:

For in the favour of thy fight
they walk full safe abroad.

16 For in thy Name throughout the day
they joy and much rejoyce:

And through thy righteousness have they
a pleasant fame and noise.

17 For why? their glory, strength and aid,
in thee alone doth lie:

Thy goodness eke that hath us staid,
shall lift our horn on high.

18 Our strength that doth defend us well
the Lord to us doth bring:

The holy One of Israel,
he is our guide and King.

19 Sometimes thy will unto thy Saints
in visions thou didst show:

And thus then didst thou say to the
thy mind to make them know.

20 A man of might I have crept,
your King and guide to be

And set him up whom I elect,
among the folk to me.

The third Part.

21 My servant David I appoint,
whom I have searched out:

And with my holy oyl anoint
him King of all the rout.

22 For why? my hand is ready still
with him for to remain:

And with my arm also I will
him strengthen and sustain.

23 The enemies shall not him oppress,
they shall him not devour:

Ne yet the sons of wickedness
on him have any power.

24 His foes likewise I will destroy
before his face in sight:

And those that hate him I will plague,
and strike them with my might.

25 My truth and mercy eke withall,
shall still upon him lie:

And in my name his horn eke shall be lifted up on high.

- 40 His Kingdom I will set so be upon the sea and land:
And eke the running floods shall he embrace with his right hand.
- 41 He shall depend with all his heart
on me, and thus shall say:
My Father and my God thou art,
my rock of health and stay.
- 42 As my first-born I will him take,
of all on earth that springs:
His might and honour I will make above all earthly Kings.
- 43 My mercy shall be with him still,
as I my self have told:
My faithful covenant so fulfill,
my mercy I will hold.
- 44 And eke his seed I will sustain
for ever strong and sure:
So that his seed shall still remain
while heaven doth endure.
- The fourth Part.
- 45 If that his sons forsake my Law,
and so begin to swerve:
And of my judgements have none awe,
nor will nor them observe.
- 46 Or if they will not use aright
my statutes to them made:
And set all my commandments light,
and will not keep my trade.
- 47 Then with the rod will I begin,
their doings to amend:
And so will scourge them for their sin,
if that they do offend.
- 48 My mercy yet and my goodnesse,
I will not take him fro:
Nor handle him with crueltie,
and so my truth forego.
- 49 But sure my covenant I will hold,
with all that I have spoke:
No word the which my lips have told,
shall alter or be broke.
- 50 Once sware I by my holinesse,
and that perform will I:
With David I shall keep promise,
to him I will not lie.
- 51 His seed for evermore shall reign,
and eke his throne of might,
As doth the Sun at shall remain
for ever in his light.
- 52 And as the Moon within the skie
for ever standeth fast:
faithful willeth from on hie,
so shall his kingdome last.
- 53 As ut now, O Lord, thou dost reject,
and now thou changest cheer:
Yet thou art wroth with thine elect,
thine own anointed deare.
- 54 The covenant with thy servant made,
Lord thou hast quite undone:
And down upon the ground also hast cast his royal crown.
- The fifth Part.
- 55 Thou plucktst his hedges up with razors, thou dost confound his light,
- Thou beatest eke his bulwarks down,
and breakst it them to the ground:
43 That he is sore destroy'd and torn,
of corners by throughout:
And so is made a mock and scorn
to all that dwell about.
- 43 Thou their right hand hast lifted up,
that him so sore annoy:
And all his foes that him devour,
lo thou hast made to joy.
- 44 His sword's edge thou dost take away
that should his foes withstand:
To him in war no victory
thou giv'st, nor upper hand.
- 45 His glory thou dost also waste;
his throne, his joy, his mirth,
By thee are overthrown, and cast
still low upon the earth.
- 46 Thou hast cut off and made full short
his youth and lusty days,
And rais'd of him an ill report,
with shame and great dispraise.
- 47 How long away from me, O Lord,
for ever wilt thou turn?
And shall thine anger still alway,
as fire consume and burn?
- 48 O call to minde, remember then,
my time consumeth fast:
Why hast thou made the formes of men
as things in vain to waste?
- 49 What man is he that liveth here,
and death shall never see?
Or from the hand of Hell his soul
shall he deliver free?
- 50 Where is O Lord, thine old goodnesse
so oft declar'd before,
Which by thy truth and uprightness
to David thou hast swore?
- 51 The great rebukes to minde I call,
that on thy servant lie:
The railings of the people all
borne in my brest have I:
- 52 Wherewith O Lord, thine enemies
blasphemed have thy Name:
The steps of thine anointed One
they cease not to defame.
- 53 All praise to thee, O Lord of hosts,
both now and eke for aye:
Through heie and earth, and all the coast,
Amen, Amen, I say.
- P S A L M xc. I. H.
- Thou Lord hast been our sure defence,
our place of ease and rest:
In all times past, yea so long since,
as cannot be express.
- 3 Ere there was made mountain or hill,
the earth and world abroad:
From age to age, and always still,
for ever thou art God.
- 3 Thou grindest man through grief and to dust, or clay and then, (pain
And then thou rais'st him, returns
again ye bones of men.

The lasting of a thousand years,
what is it in thy sight?
As yesterday it doth appear,
or as a watch by night.
So soon as thou dost scatter them,
then is their life and trade
All as a sleep, and like the grass,
whose beauty soon doth fade.
Which in the morning shines full but fadeth by and by: (bright
And is cut down ere it be night,
all withered, dead and drie.

For through thine anger we consume,
our might is much decayd:
And of thy fervent wrath and fume
we are full sore afraid.

The wicked works that we have wrought
thou setst before thine eye:
Our privy faults, yea eke our thoughts
thy countenance doth spie.

For through thy wrath our days do thereof doth nought remain: (waste,
Our years consume as words or blasts,
and are not cal'd again.

Our time is threescore years and ten,
that we do live on mold:
If one see fourscore, surely then,
we count him wondrous old.

The second Part.

Yet of this time the strength & chief
the which we count upon,
is nothing else but painfull grief,
and we as blasts are gone. (there

Who once doth know what strength is what might thine anger hath:
Or in his heart who doth thee fear,
according to thy wrath?

Inferus us, Lord, to know and try,
how long our daies remain:
That then we may our hearts apply
true wisdom to again.

Return, O Lord, how long wilt thou forth on in wrath proceed?
Shew favour to thy servants now,
and help them at their need.

Refresh us with thy mercy soon,
and then our joy shall be,
All times so long as life doth last,
in heart, rejoyce will we.

As thou hast plagued us before,
now also make us glad:
And for the years where in full sore
affliction we have had.

O let thy work and power appear
and on thy servant light:
And shew unto thy children dear,
thy glory and thy might.

Lord let thy grace and glory stand
on us thy servants thus:
Confirm the words we take in hand,
Lord prosper them to us.

PSALM xcii. J. H.

It shall within the secret place
of God most high doth dwell,

In shadow of the mightyest grace,
at rest shall keep him well.
Thou art my hope and my strong hold
I to the Lord will say:
My God is he in him will I
my whole affiance lay.

He shall defend thee from the spave,
the which the hunter laid:
And from the deadly plague and rave,
whereof thou art afraid.

And with his wings shall cover thee,
and keep thee safely there:
His faith and truth thy fence shall be,
as sure as shield and spear.

So that thou shalt not need, I say,
to fear or be affright:
Of all the shafts that fly by day,
nor terrors of the night.

Nor of the plague that privily
doth walk in dark so fast:
Nor yet of that which doth destroy,
and at noon day doth waste.

Yea at thy side as thou dost stand,
a thousand dead shall be,
Ten thousand eke at thy right hand,
and yet shalt thou be free.

But thou shalt see it for thy part,
thine eyes shall well regard:
That even like to their desert
the wicked have reward.

For why? O Lord, I only trust
to stay my hope on thee:
And in the high it I put my trust,
my sure defence is he.

Thou shalt not need none ill to fear,
with thee it shall be well:
Nor yet the plague shall once come near
the house where thou dost dwell.

For why? unto his Angels all
with charge commanded he:
That still in all thy ways they shall preserve and prosper thee.

And in their hands shall bear thee up,
still waiting thee upon:
So that thy foot shall never chance
to spurn at any stone.

Upon the Lions thou shalt go,
the Adder fell and long:
And tread upon the Lions young,
with Dragons stout and strong.

For he that trusteth unto me,
I will acquit him quite:
And him defend, because that he doth know my Name aright.

When he for help on me doth cry,
an answer I will give:
And from his grief take him will I
in glory for to live.

With length of years and daies of
I will fulfill his time: (weak h
The goodness of my saving health
I will declare to him.

PSALM xcii. J. H.

It is a thing both good and meet,
to praise the highest Lord:

And to thy Name, O thou most High,
to sing with one accord.

2 To shew the kindnesse of the Lord,
betime ere day he light :

And eke declare his truth abroad,
when it doth draw to night.

3 Upon ten-stringed instruments,
on Lute and Harp so sweet :
With all the mirth you can invent,
of instruments most meet.

4 For thou hast made me to rejoyce
in things so wrought by thee :
And I have joy in heart and voice,
thy handy-works to see.

5 O Lord, how glorious and how great,
are all thy works so stout ?

So deeply are thy counsels set,
that none can try them out.

6 The man unwise hath nor the wit,
these things to pass to bring :
And all such fools are nothing fit
to understand this thing.

7 When so the wicked at their will,
as grass do spring full fast :
They when they flourish in their ill,
for ever shall be waste.

8 But thou art mighty, Lord, most High,
yea thou dost reign therefore :
In every time eternally,
both now and evermore.

9 For why ? O Lord behold and see,
behold thy foes I say :
How all that work iniquity,
shall perish and decay.

10 But thou like as an Unicorn shalt lift mine horn on high :
With fresh and new prepared oyle,
thine oyned King am I.

11 And of my foes before mine eyes shall see the fall and shame :
Of all that up against me rise,
mine ears shall hear the same.

12 The just shall flourish up on high,
as Date-trees bud and blow :
And as the Cedars multiply,
in Libanus that grow.

13 For they are planted in the place,
and dwelling of our God :
Within his courts they spring apace,
and flourish all abroad.

14 And in their age much fruit shall bring both far and well beeen :
And pleasantly both bud and spring,
with boughs and branches green.

15 To shew that God is good and just,
and upright in his will :
He is my rock, my hope and trust,
in him there is none ill.

PSA L M xciii. J. H.

The Lord as King aloft doth reign,
with glory goodly dight :
And he do shew his strength most main,
hath girt himself with might.

2 The Lord likewise the earth hath made
and shaped it so sure ;
No might can make it move or fade,
at stay it doth endure.

3 Ere that the world was made or wrought
thy seat was set before :

Beyond all time that can be thought
thou hast been evermore.

4 The floods, O Lord, the floods do rise ;
they roar and make a noise :
The floods (I say) did enterprife,
and lifted up their voice.

5 Yea, though the storms arise in fight,
though seas do rage and swell :
The Lord is strong and more of might,
for he on high doth dwell.

6 And look what promise he doth make his household to defend :
For just and true they shall it take,
all times without an end.

PSA L M xciv. J. H.

O Lord thou doth revenge all wrong,
that office longs to thee :
Sith vengeance doth to thee belong,
declare that all may see,

2 Set forth thy self, for thou of right
the earth dost judge and guide :
Reward the proud and men of might
according to their pride,

3 How long shall wicked men bear sway,
with lifting up their voice ?
How long shall wicked men, I say,
thus triumph and rejoyce ?

4 How long shall they with brags burn and proudly prate their fill ? (out shall they rejoyce that be so stout,
whose works are ever ill ?

5 Thy stock, O Lord, thine heritage,
they spoil and vex full sore :
Against thy people they do rage
still daily more and more.

6 The widows which are comfortless,
and strangers they destroy :
They slay the children fatherlesse,
and none doth put them by.

7 And when they take those things in hand
this talk they have of thee :
Can Jacobs God this understand ?
nash, no, he cannot see.

8 O folk unwise, and people rude,
some knowledge now discern :
Ye fools among the multitude,
at length begin to learn.

9 The Lord which made the ear of man,
he needs of right must hear :
He made the eye, all things must then before his sight appear.

10 The Lord doth all the world correct
and make them understand :
Shall he not then your deeds detect ?
how can you scape his hand ?

The Second Part

11 The Lord doth know the thoughts of his heart he sees full plain :

The Lord (I say) mans thoughts doth scan
and findeth them but vain.

12 But Lord that man is happy sure,
whom thou dost keep in awe :
And through correction dost procure
to teach him in thy Law.

13 Whereby he shall in quiet rest
in time of trouble sit :
When wicked men shall be suppress'd,
and fall into the pit.

14 For sure, the Lord will not refuse
his people for to take :
His heritage whom he did chuse,
he will no time forsake.

15 Until that judgments be decreed
to justice to convert :
That all may follow her with speed,
that are of upright heart.

16 But who upon my part shall stand against the curst strain ?
Or who shall rid me from their hand
that wicked works maintain ?

17 Except the Lord had been mine aid,
mine enemies to repell :
My soul and life had now been laid
almost as low as hell.

18 When I did say my foot did slide
I now am like to fall :
Thy goodness, Lord, did so provide
to stay me up withall.

19 When with my self I mused much,
and could no comfort find :
Then Lord thy goodness did me touch,
and that did ease my mind.

20 Wilt thou inhau'th my self and draw with wicked men to it ?
Which with pretence instead of law,
much mischief do commit.

21 For they consult against the life
of righteous men and good :
And in their counsels they are rife,
to shed the guiltless blood.

22 But yet the Lord he is to me
a strong defence or lock :
He is my God, to whom I flee,
he is my strength and rock.

23 And he shall cause their mischiefs all themselves for to annoy :
And in their malice they shall fall,
our God shall them destroy.

PSALM xcv. J. H.

○ Come let us lift up our voice,
and sing unto the Lord :
In him our rock of health rejoice
let us with one accord.

2 Yea let us come before his face,
to give him thanks and praise :
In singing Psalms unto his grace,
let us be glad alway.

3 For why ? the Lord he is no doubt
a great and mighty God :
A King above all gods, throughout
in all the world abroad.

4 The secrets of the earth so deep
and corners of the land :
The tops of hills that are so steep,
he hath them in his hand.

5 The sea and waters all are his,
for he the same hath wrought :
The earth and all that therein is,
his hand hath made of nought.

6 Come let us bow and praise the Lord,
before him let us fall :
And kneel to him with one accord,
the which hath made us all.

7 For why ? he is the Lord our God,
for us he doth provide :
We are his flock, he doth us feed,
his sheep, and he our guide.

8 To day if ye his voice will hear,
then harden not your heart :
As ye with grudging many a year
provok'd me in desert.

9 Whereas your fathers tempted me,
my power for to prove :
My wondrous works when they did see
yet still they would me move.

10 Twice twenty years they did me grieve
and I to them did say,
They erre in heart, and not believe,
they have not known my way.

11 Wherefore I swear, when that my wrath
was kindled in my brest,
That they should never tread the path
to enter in my rest.

PSALM xcvi. J. H.

○ Sing ye with praise unto the Lord,
new songs with joy and mirth
sing unto him with one accord,
all people on the earth.

2 Yea sing unto the Lord, I say,
praise ye his holy Name :
Declare and shew from day to day
salvation by the same.

3 Among the heathen eke declare his honour round about :
To shew his wonders do not spare,
in all the world throughout.

4 For why, the Lord is much of might
and worthy praise alway :
And he is to be dread of right,
above all gods, I say.

5 For all the gods of heathen folk
are idols that will fade :
But yet our God, he is the Lord
that hath the heavens made.

6 All praise and honour eke do dwell
for aye before his face :
Both power and might likewise excel
within his holy place.

7 Ascribe unto the Lord alway,
ye people of the world :
All might and worship eke I say,
ascribe unto the Lord.

Ascribe unto the Lord also,
the glory of his Name :
And eke unto his courts do go,
with gifts unto the same.

The second Part.

9 Fall down and worship ye the Lord,
within his Temple bright :
Let all the people of the world
be fearfull at his sight.
10 Tell all the world, be not agast,
the Lord doth reign above :
Yea, he hath set the earth to shak,
that it can never move.

11 And that it is the Lord alone that rules with princely might
To judge the nations every one
with equiuy and right.
12 The heavens shall great joy begin,
the earth eke shall reioyce :
The sea and all that is therein,
shall shout and make a noyse.

13 The field shall joy, and every thing
that springeth on the earth :
The wood and every tree shall sing
with gladness and with mirth.
14 Before the presence of the Lord,
and coming of his might :
When he shall iustly judge the world,
and rule his folk with right.

P S A L M xcvi. J. H.

THe Lord doth reign, wherest the earth
may joy with pleasant voice :
And eke the Isles with joyfull mirth
may triumph and reioyce.
1 Both clouds and darkness eke do swell
and round about him bear :
Yea right and justice ever dwell,
and bide about his seat.

2 Yea fire and heat at once do run,
and go before his face :
Which shall his foes and enemies burn abroad in every place.
3 His lightnings eke full bright did blaze
and to the world appear :
Wherest the earth did look and gaze,
with dread and deadly fear.

4 The hills like wax did melt in sight
and presence of the Lord :
They fled before that Rulers might,
which guideth all the world.
5 The heavens eke declare and shew
his justice forth abroad :
That all the world may see and know
the glory of our God.

6 Confusion sure will come to such as worship idols vain :
And eke to those that glory much,
dumb pictures to maintain.
7 For all the idols of the world
which they as gods do call,
shall feel the power of the Lord,
and down to him shall fall.

8 With joy shall Sion hear this thing,
and Juda shall reioyce.

For at thy judgments they shall sing,
and make a pleasant noyse
To That thou, O Lord, art set on high,
in all the earth abroad :
And art exalted wondrously
above each other god.

9 All ye that fear the Lord, do shew,
hate all things that are ill :
For he doth keep the souls of his
from such as would them spill.
10 And light doth spring up to the just,
with pleasure for his part :
Great joy with gladness, mirth, and lust,
to them of upright heart.

11 Ye righteous in the Lord reioyce,
his holiness proclaim :
Be thankfull eke with heart and voice,
and mindfull of the same.

P S A L M xcvi. J. H.

O Sing ye now unto the Lord,
a new and pleasant song, (world)
For he hath wrought throughout the his wonders great and strong.
1 With his right hand full worthily,
he doth his foes devour :
And get himself the victory,
with his own arm and power.
2 The Lord doth make his people know
his saving health and might :
The Lord doth eke his justice shew,
in all the heathens fight.
3 His grace and ruth to Israel,
in mind he doth record :
That all the earth hath seen right well
the goodness of the Lord.

4 Be glad in him with joyfull voice,
all people of the earth :
Give thanks to God, sing and reioyce,
to him with joy and mirth.
5 Upon the harp unto him sing,
give thanks to him with Psalms :
Reioyce before the Lord our King,
with Trumpets and with Shalmes.

6 Yea let the sea with all therein
for joy both roar and swell :
The earth likewise let it begin,
with all that therein dwell.
7 And let the floods reioyce their fill,
and clap their hands apace :
And eke the mountains and the hills
before the Lord his face.

8 For he shall come to judge and trie
the world and every wight :
And rule the people mightily
with justice and with right.

P S A L M xcix. J. H.

THe Lord doth reign, although at it
the people rage full sore :
Yea he on Cherubim doth sit,
though all the world doth roar.
1 The Lord that doth in Sion dwell,
is high and wondrous great :
Above all sin he doth exalt,
and he aloft is set.

Let all men praise thy mighty Name,

for it is fearfull sure:

And let them magnifie the same,
that holy is and pure.

The princely power of our King
doth love iudgement and right:

Thou rightly rulest every thing
in Jacob through thy might.

To praise the Lord our God devise,
all honour to him doe:

Before his footstool worship him,
for he is holy too.

Moses, Aaron, and Samuel,
as Priests on him did call:

When they did pray he heard them wel,
and gave them answer all.

Within the cloud to them he spake,
then did they labour still,

To keep such laws as he did make,
and pointed them untill.

O Lord our God thou didst them hear,
and answeredst them again:

Thy mercy did on them appear,
their deeds didst not maintain.

O laud and praise our God and Lord
within his holy hill:

For why? our God throughout the world
is holy ever still.

PSALM C. J. H.

All people that on earth do dwell,
sing to the Lord with chearful voice:

Let him serve with fear, his praise forth tel,
come ye before him and rejoyce.

The Lord ye know is God indeed,
without our aid he did us make:

We are his flock, he doth us feed,
and for his sheep he doth us take.

O enter then his gates with praise,
approach with joy his courts unto:

Praise, laud, and bless his Name alwaies,
for it is seemly so to do.

For why? the Lord our God is good,
his mercy is for ever sure:

His truth at all times firmly stood,
and shall from age to age endure.

Another of the same by J. H.

In God the Lord be glad and light,
praise him throughout the earth:

Serve him and come before his sight
with singing and with mirth.

Know that the Lord our God he is,
he did us make and keep:

Nor we our selves, for we are his own flock and pasture sheep.

O go into his gates alwaies,
give thanks within the same:

Within his courts let forth his praise,
and laud his holy Name.

For why? the goodness of the Lord
for evermore doth reign:

From age to age throughout the world,

PSALM c. II.

Mercy will and iudgment sing,
O Lord God turne thee:

And wisely do in perfect way,
untill thou come to me.

And in the midst of my house walk,
in pureness of my spirit:

And I no kind of wicked thing
will set before my sight.

I hate their works that fall away,
it shall not cleave to me:

From me shall part the froward heart,
none evil will I see.

Him will I stroy that slandereth
his neighbour privily:

The lofty heart I cannot bear,
nor him that looketh high.

Mine eyes shall be on them within
the land that faithfull be:

In perfect way who walketh shall be servant unto me.

I will no guiltfull person have
within my house to dwell:

And in my presence he shall not remain that lieth doth tell.

Sometimes I will destroy even all
the wicked of the land:

That I may from Gods City cut,
the wicked workers hand:

PSALM cii. N.

O Hear my prayer, Lord, and let
my cry come unto thee:

In time of trouble do not hide
thy face away from me.

Incline thine ear to me, make haste
to hear me when I call:

For as the smoke doth fade, so do
my days consume and fall.

And as an heath my bones are burnt,
my heart is smitten dead:

And withers like the grass, that I forget to eat my bread.

By reason of my growning voice,
my bones cleave to my skin:

As Pelican in wilderness,
such case now am I in.

And as an Owle in desert is,
so I am such an one:

I warch, and as a Sparrow on
the house top am alone.

Lo daily in repproachfull wise,
mine enemies do me scorn:

And they that do against me rage,
against me they have sworn.

Surely with ashes as with bread,
my hunger I have filld:

And mingled have my drink with tears,
that from mine eyes have filld.

Because of thy displeasure Lord,
thy wrath and thy disdain:

For thou hast lifted me aloft,
and cast me down again.

11 The daies wherein I passe my life,
are like the fleeting shade:
And I am withered like the grass,
which soon away doth fade.
12 But thou O Lord for ever dost
remain in steady place:
And thy remembrance ever doth abide from race to race.

The second Part.

13 Thou wilt arise, and mercy thou
to Sion wilt extend:
The time of mercy, now the time
forever is come to end.
14 For even in the stones thereof
thy servants do delight:
And on the dust thereof they have compassion in their spirit.
15 Then shall the heathen people fear -
the Lords most holy name:
And all the Kings on earth shall dread,
thy glory and thy fame.
16 Then when the Lord the mighty God again shall Sion rear:
And then when he most nobly in his glory shall appear.
17 To prayer of the desolate,
when he himself doth bend:
When he shall not disdain unto their prayers to attend.
18 This shall be written for the age
that after shall succeed:
The people yet uncreated
the Lords renown shall spread.
19 For he from his high Sanctuary
hath looked down below:
And out of heaven hath the Lord
beheld the earth also.
20 That of the mourning captive he might hear the woful cry:
And that he might deliver those
that damned are to dy.
21 That they in Sion may declare
the Lords most holy Name:
And in Jerusalem set forth
the praises of the same.
22 Then when the people of the lands
and kingdoms with accord,
shall be assembled for to do their service to the Lord.

The third Part.

23 My former force of strength he hath abated in the way:
And shorter he hath cut my daies;
thus I therefore did say:
24 My God in midst of all my daies
now take me not away:
Thy years endure eternally,
from age to age I say.

25 Thou the foundations of the earth
before all times hast laid:
And thou the heavens art the work
of thine own hands have made.

26 Yea they shall perish and decay:
but thou shalt carry still:
And they shall all in time wax old,
even as a garment will.

27 Thou as a garment shalt them change
and changed they shall be:
But thou dost still abide the same,
thy years do never see.
28 The children of thy servants shall continually endure:
And in thy sight their happy seed
for ever shall stand sure.

PSALM ciii. T. S.

MY soul give laud unto the Lord;
my spirit shall do the same:
And all the secrets of my heart,
praise ye his holy Name.

2 Give thanks to God for all his gifts:
shew not thy self unkind:
And suffer not his benefits
to slip out of thy mind.

3 That gave thee pardon for thy faults,
and thee restor'd again,
For all thy weak and frail disease,
and heal'd thee of thy pain.

4 That did redeem thy life from death,
from which thou couldst not see:
His mercy and compassion both
he did extend to thee.

5 That fill'd with goodness thy desire,
and did prolong thy youth:
Like as the Eagle casts her bill,
whereby her age renew'd.

6 The Lord with justice doth repay
all such as be oppress'd:
So that their sufferings and their wrongs
are turned to the best.

7 His ways and his commandments
to Moses he did shew:
His counsels and his valiant acts
the Israelites did know.

8 The Lord is kind and mercifull
when sinners do him grieve:
The slowest to conceive a wrath,
and readiest to forgive.

9 He chides us not continually,
though we be full of strife:
Nor keeps our faults in memory,
for all our sinfull life.

10 Nor yet according to our sin
the Lord doth us regard:
Nor after our iniquities
he doth not us reward.

11 But as the space is wondrous great
'twixt earth and heaven above:
So is his goodness much more large
to them that do him love.

12 God doth remove our sin from us,
and our offences all,
As far as is the South-east
from the North-west.

The Second Part.

3 And look what pious parents dear
unto their children bear:
Like pious beareth God to such as worship him in fear.
4 The Lord that made us knows our mold and fashion just: (shape, How weak and frail our nature is,
and how we are but dust.
5 And how the time of mortal men
is like the withering hay:
Or like the flower right fair in field,
that fades full soon away.
6 Whose gloss & beauty stormy winds
do utterly disgrace:
And make that after their assault
such blossoms have no place.
7 But yet the goodness of the Lord
with his shall ever stand:
Their childrens children shall receive
his righteousness at hand.
8 I mean, which keep his covenants
with all their whole desire:
And not forget to do the thing
that he doth them require.
9 The heavens high are made the seat
and foot-stool of the Lord:
And by his power imperiall
he governs all the world.
10 Ye Angels which are great in power,
praise ye and bless the Lord:
Which to obey and do his will,
immediately accord.
11 Ye noble host and ministers,
cease not to laud him still:
Which ready are to execute
his pleasure and his will.
12 Yea all his works in every place
praise ye his holy Name:
My heart, my mind, and eke my soul
praise ye also the same.

PSALM CIV. W. K.

MY soul praise the Lord,
speak good of his Name.
O Lord our great God,
how dost thou appear
So passing in glory,
that great is thy fame!
Honour and Majesty
in thee shine most clear.
a With light as a robe
thou hast thee beclad:
Whereby all the earth
thy greatness may see.
The heaven in such sort
thou also hast spread,
That it to a curtain
compared may be.
b His chamber-beams lie
in the clouds full sure:
Which as his chariot
are made like to him.

And there with much swiftness
his course doth endure,
Upon the wings riding
of winds in the air.
4 He maketh his spirits
as Heralds to go:
And lightnings to serve,
we see also prest:
His will to accomplish,
they run to and fro,
To save or consume things,
as seemeth him best.
5 He groundeth the earth
so firmly and fast,
That it once to move
none shall have such power.
6 The deep a fair covering
for it made thou hast:
Which by his own nature
the hills would devoure.
7 But at thy rebuke
the waters do flee:
And so give due place
thy word to obey.
At thy voice of thunder
so fearfull they be:
That in their great raging,
they haste soon away.
8 The mountains full high
they then up ascend:
If thou dost but speak,
thy word they fulfill:
So likewise the vallies
most quickly descend, Whereto thou them appointest remain they do still.
9 Their bounds thou hast set,
how far they shall run:
So that in their rage
not that pass they can.
For God hath appointed
they shall not return
The earth to destroy more,
which made was for man.

The Second Part.

20 He sendeth the springs
to strong streams or lakes,
Which run do full swift
among the huge hills.
21 Where both the wild asses
their thirst oft times shake,
And beasts of the mountains
theroof drink their fill.
22 By these pleasant springs
of fountains full fair,
The fowls of the Air
abide shall and dwell:
Who moved by nature
to hop here and there, Among the green branches
these songs shall sing.

4 Seek ye the Lord, and seek the strength of his eternal might:
And seek his face continually,
and presence of his light.

5 The wondrous works that he hath done
keep still in mindfull heart:
Ne let the judgments of his mouth
out of your mind depart.

6 Ye that of faithfull Abraham
his servants are the seed:
Ye his elect, the children that of Jacob do proceed.

7 For he, he only is I say,
the mighty Lord our God:
And his most rightfull judgments are through all the earth abroad.
8 His promise and his covenant
which he hath made to his,
He hath remembered evermore,
to thousands of degrees.

The second Part.

9 The covenant which he hath made
with Abraham long ago:
And faithfull oath which he hath sworn to Isaac also.

10 And did confirm the same for law,
that Jacob should obey:
And for eternal covenants
to Israel for aye.

11 When thus he said, Lo, I to you all Canaan land will give:
The lot of your inheritance,
wherein your seed shall live.

12 Although the number at that time
did very small appear:
Yea very small, and in the land
they then but strangers were.

13 While yet they walk'd from land to without a sure abode: (land)
And while from sundry kingdoms they did wander all abroad.

14 And wrong at no oppressors hand
he suffered them to take:
But even the great and mighty Kings
reproved for their sake.

15 And thus he said, Touch ye not those that mine anointed be:
Ne do the Prophets any harm
that do pertain to me.

16 He cal'd a dearth upon the land,
of bread he strow'd the store:
But he against the time of need
had sent a man before.

The third Part.

17 Even Joseph which had once been sold
to live a slave in wo:
Whose feet they hurt in stocks, whose soul
the irons peirc'd also.

18 Until the time came when his cause
was known apparently:
The mighty word of God the Lord
his servants did true.

19 The King forsook and delivered him
from prison where he was:

20 The ruler of the people then did freely let him pass.

21 And over all his house he made him Lord to bear the sway:
And of his substance made him have
the rule and all the day.

22 That he might so his will instruct
the Princes of the land:

And wisdoms lore his ancient men
might cause to understand.

23 Then into the Egyptian land came Israel also:

And Jacob in the land of Ham
did live a stranger tho.

24 His people he exceedingly
in number made to flow,

And over all their enemies
in strength he made them grow.

25 Whose heart he turn'd that they with his people did entreat: (that)

And did his servants wrongfully abuse with false deceit.

The fourth Part.

26 His faithfull servant Moses then
and Aaron whom he chose,

He did command to go to them,
his message to disclose.

27 The wondrous message of his sign
among them he did show:
And wonders in the land of Ham
then did they work also.

28 Darkness he sent, and made it dark
instead of brighter day:

And unto his commission
they did not disobey.

29 He turn'd their waters into blood,
he did their fishes slay: (place)

30 Their land brought frogs, even in the where their King Pharaoh lay.

31 He spake, and at his voice there came great swarms of noisom flies,

And all the quarters of the land
were fill'd with crawling lice.

32 He gave them cold and stony hail
instead of milder rain:

And fiery flames within their land
he sent unto their pain.

33 He smote their vines and all their trees
whereon their figs did grow:

And all their trees within their coasts
down did he overthrow.

34 He spake, then Caterpillars did
and Grasshoppers abound:

35 Which ate the grass in all their land,
and fruit of all their ground.

The fifth Part.

36 The first-begotten in their land
he deadly he did smite:

Yea the beginning and first-fruit
of all their force and might:

37 With gold & silver he them brought from Egypt land to pass.

And in the number of their Tribes
no feeble one there was.

8 Egypt was glad and joyfull then
when they did thence depart :
For terror and the fear of them
was slain upon their heart.

9 To shroud them from the parching heat
a cloud he did display:
And fire he sent to give them light,
when night had hid the day.

10 They asked, and he caused Quails
to rain at their request :
And fully with the bread of heaven
their hunger he repress :

11 He opened the stony rock,
and waters gushed out:
And in the dry and parched ground
like rivers ran about.

12 For of his holy covenant
aye mindfull was he tho :
Which to his servant Abraham
he plightred long ago. (mirth)

13 He brought his people forth with
and his cleft with joy,
Out of the cruel land, where they had liv'd in great annoy.

14 And of the heathen men he gave to them the fruitfull lands :
The labours of the people eke
they took into their hands.

15 That they his holy statutes might observe for evermore :
And faithfully obey his laws :
praise ye the Lord therefore.

PSALM cvi. N.

PRAISE ye the Lord, for he is good,
his mercy dures for aye :

1 Who can expresse his noble acts,
or all his praise display ?

2 They blessed are that judgment keep,
and justly do alway :

With favour of thy people (Lord)
remember me I pray.

3 And with thy saving health (O Lord)
vouchsafe to visit me :

That I the great felicity
of thine elect may see,

4 And with thy peoples joy I may
a joyfull mind possess :

And may with thine inheritance
a glorying heart expresse.

5 Both we, and eke our fathers all,
have sinned every one :

We have committed wickednesse,
and Jewdly we have done.

6 The wonders great which thou (O Lord)
hast done in Egypt land :

Our fathers though they saw them all,
yet did not understand.

Nor yet thy mercies multitude
did keep in thankful minds :

But at the sea, yea the red sea,
erected most unkindly.

8 Nevertheless he saved them
for honour of his Name :
That he might make his power known
and spread abroad his fame.

9 The red-sea he did then rebuke,
and forthwith it was dry'd :

And as in wilderness, so through the deep he did them guide.

10 He sav'd them from the cruel hand
of their despisefull foe :

And from the enemies hand he did deliver them also.

The second Part.

11 The waters their oppressours whelm'd
nor one was left alive :

12 Then they belev'd his word, & praise
in song they did him give :

13 But by and by unthankfully
his works they clean forgot :

And for his counsel and his will
they did neglect to wait.

14 But lusted in the wilderness,
with fond and greedy lust :

And in the desert tempted God,
the stay of all their trust.

15 And then their wanton mindes desire-
he suffered them to have :

But wasting leanness shew'd unto their souls he gave.

16 Then when they lodged in their tents,
at Moses they did grutch :

Aaron the holy of the Lord
so did they envy much.

17 Therefore the earth did open wide,
and Dathan did devour :

And all Abirams company
did cover in that hour.

18 In their assembly kindled was,
the hot consuming fire :

And wasting flame did then burn up
the wicked in his ire.

19 Upon the hill of Horeb they
an idol-calf did frame :

And there the molten image they did worship of the same.

20 Into the likeness of a Calf,
which feedeth on the grass,

Thus they their glory turn'd, and all their honour did deface.

21 And God their only Saviour,
unkindly they forgot :

Which many great and mighty things
in Egypt land had wrought.

The third Part.

22 And in the land of Ham for them
most wondrous works had done :

And by the red sea dreadfull things
performed long ago.

23 Therefore for their so shewing them
forgetfull and unkind :

To bring destruction on them all
he purpos'd in his mind.

Had not his chosen Moses stood before him in the break
To turn his wrath, lest he on them
with slaughter should him wreak.
24 They did despite the pleasant land,
that he beLIGHT to give:
Yea and the words that he had spoke
they did no whit believe.
25 But in their tents with grudging heart
they wickedly repin'd:
Nor to the voice of God the Lord
they gave an hearkning mind.
26 Therefore against them lifted he
his strong revenging hand:
Them to destroy in wilderness,
ere they should see the land.
27 And to destroy their seed among
the nations with his rod:
And through the countries of the world
to scatter them abroad.
28 To Baal-Peor then they did adjoyn themselves also:
And ate the offerings of the dead,
so they forsook him tho.
29 Thus with their own inventions
his wrath they did provoke:
And in his sore inkindled wrath
the plague upon them broke.
30 But Phineas stood up with zeal,
the sinners vile to slay:
And judgement he did execute,
and then the plague did slay.

The fourth Part.

31 It was impured unto him
for righteousness that day:
And from thenceforth so counted is,
from race to race, I say.
32 At waters cle of Meribah
they did him angry make:
Yea, so far forth, that Moses was then punish'd for their sake.
33 Because they vex'd his spirit so sore,
that in impatient heat
His lips spake unadvisedly,
his fervour was so great.
34 Nor as the Lord commanded them
they slew the people tho.
35 But were among the heathen mix'd
and learn'd their works also.
36 And did their idols serve, which were their ruine and decay:
37 To feeds their sons and daughters they did offer up and slay:
38 Yea with unkindly murdering knife
the guiltless blood they spilt:
Yea their own sons and daughters blood,
without all cause of guilt.
Whom they to Canaan idols then
offred with wicked hand:
And so with blood of innocents
defiled even the land.
39 Thus were they stained with the works
of their own filthy way:

And with their own inventions
a whoring they did slay.
40 Therefore against his people was the Lords wrath kindled sore:
And even his own inheritance
he did abhor therefore.
41 Into the hands of heathen men
he gave them for a prey:
And made their foes their Lords, whom were forced to obey. (Chap)

The fifth Part.

42 Yea and their hateful enemies
opprest them in the land:
And they were humbly made to stoop
as subject to their hand.
43 Full oftentimes from chail had he delivered them before:
But with their counsels they to wrath
provok'd him evermore.
Therefore they by their wickedness
were brought full low to lie:
44 Yet when he saw them in distress
he hearkned to their cry.
45 He call'd to minde his covenant,
which he to them had swore:
And by his mercies multitude repented him therefore.
46 And favour he them made to find
before the sight of those That led them captive from their land
when erst they were their foes.
47 Save us O Lord that art our God,
save us (O Lord) we pray:
And from among the heathen folk
Lord gather us away.
48 That we may spread the noble praise
of thy most holy Name:
That we may glory in thy praise,
and sounding of thy fame.
49 The Lord the God of Israel
be blest for evermore:
Let all the people say, Amen,
praise ye the Lord therefore.

P S A L M. cvil. W. K.

GIVE thanks unto the Lord our God,
for gracious is he:
And that his mercy hath no end,
all mortal men may see.
2 Such as the Lord redeemed hard,
with thanks shall praise his Name:
And shew how they from foes were freed
and how he wrought the same.
3 He gathered them forth of the lands
that lay so far about:
From East to West, from North to South,
his hand did finde them out.
4 They wandred in the wilderness,
and strayed from the way.
And found no city where to dwell,
that serve might for their stay.
5 Whose thirst and hunger was so great
in these deserts so void:

That ſaintheit did them fore aſſault,
and eke their ſouls annoy'd.
6 Then did they cry in their diſtreſs
unto the Lord for aid:
Who did remove their troublous ſtate
according as they prayd.

7 And by that way which was moſt right,
he led them like a guide:
That they might to a City go,
and there alſo abide.
8 Let men therefore before the Lord
confels his goodneſs then:
And ſhew the wonders that he doth
before the ſons of men.
9 For he the empty ſoul ſuſtain'd whom thirſt had made to faint:
The hungry ſoul with goodneſs fed,
and did them eke acquaint.
10 Such as do dwell in darkneſs deep,
where they on death do wait,
Faſt bound to taſte ſuch troublous ſtorms
as iron chains do threat.

The ſecond part.

11 For that againſt the Lords own words
they fought for to rebel:
Eſſeeming light his counſels high,
which do ſo far excell.
12 But when he humbled them full low,
they then fell down with grief:
And none was found ſo much to help,
whereby to get relief.

13 Then did they cry in their diſtreſs
unto the Lord for aid:
Who did remove their troublous ſtate
according as they prayd.

14 For he from darkneſs out them brought
and from deaths dreadful ſhade:
Barking with force the iron bands
which them before did lade:

15 Let men therefore before the Lord
confels his kindneſs then:
And ſhew the wonders that he doth
before the ſons of men.

16 For he threw down the gates of braſs
and brake them with ſtrong hand:
The iron bars he ſmote in two,
nothing could him withſtand.

17 The fooliſh folk great plagues do feel
and cannot from them wend:
But hee on more to thoſe they have,
becauſe they do offend.

18 Their ſouls ſo much did loath al meat
that none they could abide:
Whereby death had them almoſt caught,
as they full truly tri'd.

19 Then did they cry in their diſtreſs
unto the Lord for aid:
Who did remove their troublous ſtate,
according as they prayd.

20 For then he lent to them his word,
which health did ſoon reſtore:
And brought them from thoſe dangers

The third Part.

21 Let men therefore before the Lord
confels his kindneſs then:
And ſhew the wonders that he doth
before the ſons of men.

22 And let them offer ſacrifice
with thanks and alſo fear:
And ſpeak of all his wondrous works
with glad and joyfull cheer.

23 Such as in ſhips and brittle baries
into the ſeaſ descend:
Their merchandiſe through fearful floods
to compaſs and to end.

24 Thoſe men are forced to behold
the Lords works what they be:
And in the dangerous deep the ſame,
moſt marvellous they ſee.

25 For at his word the ſtormy wind
ariſeth in a rage:
And ſtirreth up the ſurges ſo,
that nought can them aſſuage.

26 Then are they liſted up ſo high,
the clouds they ſeem to gain:
And plunging down the deep untill
their ſouls conſume with pain.

27 And like a drunkard to and fro,
now here, now there they reel:
As men with fear of wit bereft,
or had of ſenſe no feel.

28 Then did they cry in their diſtreſs
unto the Lord for aid:
Who did remove their troublous ſtate
according as they prayd.

29 For with his word the Lord doth make
the ſturdy ſtorms to ceaſe:
So that the great waves from their rage
are brought to reſt and peace.
30 Then are men glad when reſt is come,
which they ſo much did crave:
And are by him in haven brought,
which they ſo ſain would have.

The fourth Part.

31 Let men therefore before the Lord
confels his kindneſs then:
And ſhew the wonders that he doth
before the ſons of men.

32 Let them in preſence of the folk with praiſe extoll his Name:
And where the Elders do convene,
there let them do the ſame.

33 For running floods to drie deſerts
he doth oft change and turn:
And drieſt up as it were duſt
the ſpringing well and bourn.

34 A fruitful land with pleaſure deck'd
full barren he doth make,
When on their ſins that dwell therein
he doth juſt vengeance take.

35 Again, the wilderneſs full made
he maketh fruitful to be:
With pleaſant ſprings of water clear,

96 Wherein such hungry souls are set,
as he doth freely chafe:
That they a City might there build,
to dwell in for their use.
97 That they may sow their pleasant land
and vineyards also plant,
To yeild them fruit of such increase,
as none may seem to want.
98 They multiply exceedingly,
the Lord doth bless them so:
Who doth also the bruit beasts make
by numbers great to grow.
99 But when I faithfull are low brought
by the oppressors stout:
And minish do through many plaguen
that compass them about.
100 Then doth he Princes bring to shame
which did them fore oppress:
And likewise caused them to erre
within the wilderness.
101 But yet the poor he raiseth up out of their troubles deep:
And oft times doth his train augment
much like a flock of sheep.
102 The righteous shall behold this fight,
and also much rejoyce:
Whereas the wicked and perverse
with grief shall stop their voice.
103 But who is wise, that now full well
he may these things record?
For certainly such shall perceive the kindness of the Lord.

PSALM cxviii. J. H.

O God my heart prepared is,
and eke my tongue is so:
I will advance my voice in song,
and giving thanks also:
1 Awake my violl and my harp,
sweet melody to make:
And in the morning I my self
right early will awake.
2 By me among the people Lord,
still praised shalt thou be:
And I among the heathen folk
will sing, O Lord, to thee.
3 Because thy mercy, Lord, is great,
above the heavens high:
And eke thy truth doth reach the clouds
within the lofty skie.
4 Above the starry heavens high
exalt thy self O God:
And Lord display upon the earth
thy glory all abroad.
5 That thy dearly beloved may be set at liberty:
Help O my God with thy right hand,
and hearken unto me.
6 God in his holiness hath spoke,
wherefore my joys abound:
Sichem I will divide, and mere
the vale of Succoth ground.
7 And Gilead shall be mine own, Manasse mine shall be

My head-strength Ephraim, and Issachar
shall Juda give for me.

8 Moab my wash-pot, and my shoe
on Edom will I throw:
Upon the land of Palestine
in triumph will I go.
9 Who shall into the City strong
be guide to conduct me?
Or how by whom to Edom land conveyed shall I be?
10 Is it not thou O Lord which hast
hadst us forsaken quite?
And thou O Lord which with our host
didst not go forth to fight.
11 Give us O Lord thy saving aide
when troubles do assaile:
For all the help of man is vaine,
and can no whit avail.
12 Through God we shall do valiant aile
and worthy of renown:
He shall subdue our enemies,
yea he shall tread them down.

PSALM cxix. N.

IN speechless silence do not hold
O God thy tongue always:
O God even thou I say that art
the God of all my praise.
2 The wicked and the guilfull mouth
on me disclosed be:
And they with false and lying tongues
have spoken unto me.
3 They did beset me round about
with words of hatefull spite:
Without all cause of my desert
against me they did fight.
4 For my good will they are my foes
but then gan I to pray:
5 My good with ill, my friendliness
with hate they did repay.
6 Set thou the wicked over him,
to have the upper hand:
At his right hand eke suffer thou
his hatefull foe to stand.
7 When he is judged, let him then condemned be therein:
And let the prayer that he maketh
be turned into sin.
8 Few be his days, his charge alle
let thou another take:
9 His children let be fatherless,
his wife a widow make.
10 Let his off-spring be vagabonds,
to beg and seek their bread:
Wandering out of the wasted place
where erst they have been led.
11 Let covetous extortioners catch all his goods and store:
And let the strangers spoil the fruit
of all his toy before.
12 Let there be none to pity him,
let there be none at all:

That on his children fatherless
will let their mercy fall.

The second Part.

13 And so let his posterity
for ever be destroyed :
Their name out-bloored in the age
that after shall succeed.
14 Let not his fathers wickedness
from Gods remembrance fall :
And let not thou his mothers sin
be done away at all.
15 But in the presence of the Lord
let them remain for aye :
That from the earth their memory
he may cut clean away.
16 Such mercy he forgot to shew,
but did pursue with spight
The troubled man, and sought to slay
the wofull-hearted wight.

17 As he did cursing love, it shall betide unto him so :
And as he did not blessing love,
it shall be far him fro.
18 As he with cursing clad himself,
so it like water shall into his bowels, and like oyl
into his bones befall.

19 As garment let it be to him
to cover him for aye :
And as a girdle wherewith he
may girded be alway.
20 Lo let the same be from the Lord
the guerdon of my foe :
Yea, and of those that evil speak against my soul also.

21 But thou O Lord, which art my God,
deal thou (I say) with me
After thy Name, deliver me,
for great thy mercies be.
22 Because in depth of great distress
I needy am and poor :
And eke within my pained breast
my heart is wounded sore.

The third Part.

23 Even so do I depart away,
as doth declining shade :
And as the Grasshopper, so I am shaken off and fade.
24 With sitting long from needfull food
enfeebled are my knees :
And all her sinews hath my flesh
enforced been to leese.

25 And I also a vile reproach
to them am made to be :
And they that did upon me look,
did shake their heads at me.
26 But thou O Lord, that art my God,
mine aid and succour be :
According to thy mercy Lord,
live and deliver me.

27 And they shall know thereby, that this (Lord) is thy mighty hand :

And that thou, thou hast done it, Lord,
so shall they understand.

28 Although they curse & spire, yet thou shalt blest with loving voice :
They shall arise and come to shame,
thy servant shall rejoyce,

29 Let them be clothed all with shame
that enemies are so me :
And with confusion as a cloke
eke covered let them be.

30 But greatly I will with my mouth
give thanks unto the Lord :
And I among the multitude
his praises will record.

31 For he with help at his right hand will stand the poor man by :
To save him from the man that would condemn his soul to die.

PSALM CX. N.

THE Lord did say unto my Lord,
sit thou at my right hand :
Till I have made thy foes a stool
whereon thy feet shall stand.

2 The Lord shall out of Sion send the Scepter of thy might :
Amid thy mortal foes be thou
the ruler in their fight.

3 And in the day on which thy might
and power they shall see :
Then hereby free-will-offerings shall
the people offer thee,
Yea with an holy worshipping
then shall they offer all :
Thy birth-dew is the dew that doth
from womb of morning fall.

4 The Lord hath sworn, and never will repent what he doth say :
By th order of Melchisedech,
thou art a Priest for aye.

5 The Lord thy God on thy right hand
that standeth for thy stay, shall wound for thee the stately Kings
upon his wrathfull day.

6 The hearken he shall judge, and fill
the place with bodies dead :
And over divers countries shall
in sunder smite the head.

7 And he shall drink out of the brook
that runneth in the way :
Wherefore he shall lift up on high
his royall head that day.

PSALM CXI. N.

WITH heart I do accord,
To praise and laud the Lord
In presence of the just.

2 For great his works are found,
To search them such are bound,
As him do love and trust.

3 His works are glorious
Also his righteousness
It doth endure for ever.

4 His wondrous works he would
We still remember should :
His mercy faileth never.

1 Such as to him love bear,
A portion full fair
He hath up for them laid,
For this they shall well finde,
He will them have in minde,
And keep them as he said.
2 For he did not disdain
His works to shew them plain,
By lightnings and by thunders
When he the heavens land
Did give into their hand,
Where they beheld his wonders.

3 Of all his works ensue
Both judgment, right and truth,
Whereto his statutes tend:
4 They are decreed sure
For ever to endure
Which equity doth end:
Redemption he gave
His people for so save:
5 And hath also required,
His promise nor to faile,
But always to prevail,
His holy Name be feared.

6 Who so with heart full faine
True wisdom would attain,
The Lord fear and obey:
Such as his laws do keep
Shall knowledge have full deep,
His praise shall last for aye.
P S A L M cxii. W. K.

THe man is blest that God doth fear,
And that his law doth love indeed:
2 His seed on earth God will uprear,
And bless such as from him proceed,
3 His house with good he will fulfill,
His righteousness endure shall still.

4 Unto the righteous doth arise
In trouble joy, in darkness light:
Compassion is in his eyes,
And mercy always in his sight:
5 Yea pity moveth such to lend
He doth by judgment things expend.

6 And surely such shall never fail:
For in remembrance had is he:
7 No tidings ill can make him quail,
Who in the Lord sure hope doth see.
8 His heart is firm, his fear is past,
For he shall see his foes down cast.

9 He did well for the poor provide,
His righteousness shall still remain:
And his estate with praise abide,
Though that the wicked man disdain,
10 Yea gnash his teeth thereat shall he
And so consume his state to see.

P S A L M cxiii. W. K.

YE children which do serve the Lord,
Praise ye his Name with one accord:
2 Yea blessed be always his Name,
3 Who from the rising of the Sun,
Till it return where it began,
Is to be praised with great fame,
4 The Lord all people doth surmount,
As for his glory we may count,
Above the heavens high to be,

5 With God the Lord who may compare Whose dwellings in the heavens are:
Of such great power and force is he:
6 He doth abate himself we know,
Things to behold both here below,
and also in heaven above.

7 The needy out of dust to draw,
And eke the poor which help none saw:
His only mercy did him move.

8 And so him set in high degree,
With Princes of great dignity.

9 That rule his people with great fame:
10 The barren he doth make to bear,
And with great joy her fruit to rear,
Therefore praise ye his holy Name.

P S A L M cxiv. W. W.

WHEN Israel by Gods address,
from Pharaohs land was bent
And Jacobs house the strangers left,
and in the same train went.

2 In Juda God his glory shewed,
his holiness most bright:
3 So did the Israelites declare his kingdom power, and might.

4 The sea it saw, and suddenly
as all amaz'd did flie:
The roaring streams of Jordans flood
recoiled backwardly.

5 As Rams afraid the mountains skip,
their strength did them forsake:
And as the silly trembling Lambs
their tops did bear and shake.

6 What aild the sea as all amaz'd,
so suddenly to flie?

7 Ye rolling waves of Jordans flood,
why ran ye backwardly?

8 Why shook ye hills as Rams afraid?
why did your strength so shake?

9 Why did your tops as trembling Lambs
for fear quiver and quake?

10 O earth confess thy Sovereign Lord,
and dread his mighty hand:
Before the face of Jacobs God,
fear ye, both sea and land.

11 I mean the God which from hard rocks
doth cause main floods appear:
And from the stony flint doth cause,
gush out the fountains clear.

P S A L M cxv. N.

NOT unto us, Lord, nor to us,
but to thy Name give praise:
Both for thy mercy and thy truth,
that are in thee always.

2 Why shall the heathen scorners say
where is their God become?

3 Our God in heaven is, and what he will, that hath he done.

4 Their idols silver are, and gold,
works of mens hands they be:

5 They have a mouth, and do not speak,
and eyes, and do not see.

6 And they have ears joynd to their heads,
and do not hear at all:
And noses eke they formed have,
and do not smell wishall,

7 And hands they have, and handle not,
and feet, and do not go:

8 A throw they have, yet through the same
they make no sound to blow.

9 Those that make them are like to them
and those whose craft they be:

10 O Israel trust in the Lord,
their help and shield is he.

11 O Aarons house trust in the Lord,
their help and shield is he:

12 Trust ye the Lord that fear the Lord,
their help and shield is he.

13 The Lord hath minded full beam of us,
and will us bless also:

On Israel and on Aarons house,
his blessings he will show.

14 Them that be fearers of the Lord,
the Lord will bless them all:

Even he will bless them every one,
the great and eke the small.

15 To you (I say) the living Lord
will multiply his grace:

To you and to the children that shall follow of your race.

16 Ye are the blessed of the Lord,
even of the Lord, I say:

Which both the heaven and the earth,
hath made and for in day.

17 The heavens, yea the heavens high,
belong unto the Lord:

The earth unto the sons of men,
he gave of free accord:

18 They that be dead do not with praise
set forth the Lords renown:

Nor any that into the place,
of silence do go down.

19 But we will praise the Lord our God
from henceforth and for aye:

Praised ye the possessor of the Lord,
praise ye the Lord, I say.

PSALM CIVI. N.

1 I Love the Lord, because my voice,
and prayer hath he:

2 When in my days I call'd on him,
he bow'd his ear to me.

3 Even when the snares of cruel death
about belied me round:

When pains of hell me caught, and when I we and sorrow found.

4 Upon the Name of God my Lord
then did I call, and say,

Deliver thou my soul, O Lord,
I do thee humbly pray.

5 The Lord is every mercifull,
and just he is also:

And in our God compassion
doth mercifullly flow.

6 The Lord in safety doth preserve
all them that simple be:

Not in world misery,
and he delivered me.

7 And now my soul, with thou art safe,
and now thou art safe:

For largely, lo, the Lord to thee
his bounty hath express.

8 Because thou hast delivered
my soul from deadly thrall:

My moistned eyes from mournfull tears,
my sliding feet from fall.

9 Before the Lord I in the land
of life will waite therefore:

10 I did believe, therefore I spake,
for I was troubled fore.

The Second Part.

11 I said in my distress and fear
that all men lyars be:

12 What shall I pay the Lord for all his benefits to me?

13 The wholesome cup of saving health
I thankfully will take:

And on the Lords Name I will call,
when I my prayers make.

14 I to the Lord will pay the vows
that I to him be hight:

Yea, even at this present time
in all his peoples sight.

15 Right dear and precious in his sight
the Lord doth aye esteem

The death of all his holy ones,
what ever men do deem.

16 Thy servant Lord, thy servant, lo,
I do my self confess.

Son of thy handmaid: thou hast broke
the bonds of my distress.

17 And I will offer up to thee
a sacrifice of praise:

And I will call upon the Name
of God the Lord always.

18 I to the Lord will pay the vows
that I have him be hight:

Yea even at this present time,
in all his peoples sight.

19 Yea in the courts of Gods own house,
and in the midst of thee,

O thou Jerusalem, I say,
wherefore the Lord praise ye.

PSALM CIVIL. N.

1 All ye nations of the world,
praise ye the Lord a waies:

And all ye people every where
set forth his noble praise.

2 For great his kindness is to us
his truth endures for aye:

Wherefore praise ye the Lord our God,
praise ye the Lord, I say.

PSALM CIVIL. N.

1 Give ye thanks unto the Lord,
for gracious is he:

Because his mercy doth endure
for ever towards thee.

2 Let Israel confess and say,
his mercy dure for aye:

3 Now let the house of Aaron say,
his mercy dure for aye.

4 Let all that fear the Lord our God
even now confess and say:

The mercy of the Lord our God
endureth still for ever.
5 In trouble and in heaviness
unto the Lord I cry'd:
Which lovingly heard me at large,
my suit was not deny'd.

6 The Lord himself is on my side,
I will not stand in doubt:
Nor fear what man can do to me,
when God stands me about.
7 The Lord doth take my part with them
that help to succour me:
Therefore I shall see my desire
upon mine enemy.

8 Better it is to trust in God,
than in mans mortal seed:
9 Or to put confidence in Kings,
or Princes in our need.
10 All nations have inclosed me,
and compassed me round:
But in the name of God shall I mine enemies confound.

11 They kept me in on every side,
they kept me in I say:
But in the Lords most mighty Name
I shall work their decay.
12 They came about me all like Bees,
but yet in the Lords Name
I quenched their thorns that were on fire
and will destroy the same.

The second Part.

13 Thou hast with force thrust fore at me
that I indeed might fall:
But through the Lord I found such help
that they were vanquish'd all.

14 The Lord is my defence and strength
my joy, my mirth, my song:
He is become for me indeed,
a Saviour most strong.

15 The right hand of the Lord our God
doth bring to pass great things:
He causeth voice of joy and health
in righteous mens dwellings.

16 The right hand of the Lord doth bring most mighty things to pass:
His hand hath the preeminence,
his force is as it was.

17 I shall not die, but ever live
to utter and declare
The Lord his might & wondrous power,
his works and what they are.

18 The Lord himself hath chastened,
and hath corrected me:
But hath not given me over yet
to death, as ye may see.

19 Set open unto me the gates of truth and righteousness:
That I may enter into them,
the Lords praise to express.

20 This is the gate even of the Lord,
which shall not so be shut:
But good and righteous men alway
shall enter into it.

The third Part.

21 I will give thanks to thee, O Lord,
because thou hast heard me:
And art become most lovingly
a Saviour unto me.

22 The stone which ere this time among
the builders was refused:
Is now become the corner stone,
and chiefly to be used.

23 This was the mighty work of God,
this was the Lords own fact:
And it is marvellous to behold
with eyes that noble act.

24 This is the joyful day indeed
which God himself hath wrought
Let us be glad and joy therein,
in heart, in minde, and thought.

25 Now help us, Lord, and prosper us,
we will wish one accord:

26 Blessed is he that comes to us
in the name of the Lord.

27 God is the Lord that shew us light,
binde ye therefore with cord
Your sacrifice to the Altar,
and give thanks to the Lord.

28 Thou art my God, I will confesse
and render thanks to thee.
Thou art my God, and I will praise
thy mercy towards me.

29 O give ye thanks unto the Lord,
for gracious is he:
Because his mercy doth endure
for ever towards me.

PSALM Cxix. W. W.
ALEPH.

Blessed are they that perfect are,
and pure in minde and heart:
Whose lives and conversations
from Gods laws never part.

2 Blessed are they that give themselves
his statutes to observe:
Seeking the Lord with all their hearts,
and never from him swerve.

3 Doubtlesse such men go not astray,
nor do no wicked thing:
Which stedfastly walk in his way
without any wandring.

4 It is thy will and commandment
that with attentive heed
Thy noble and divine precepts,
we learn and keep indeed.

5 O would to God it might then please
my ways so to address:
That I might both in heart and voice
thy laws keep and confesse.

6 So should no shame my life attain,
whilst I thus fix mine eyes:
And bend my minde always in suite
on thy sacred decrees.

7 Then will I praise with upright heart
and magnifie thy Name:
When I shall learn thy judgements full,
and likewise prove the same.

8 And wholly will I give my self
to keep thy lawes most right.
Forſake me not for ever Lord,
but ſhew thy grace and might.

VERSE THE. The ſecond Part.

9 By what means may a young man beſt
his life learn to amend?

10 If that he mark and keep thy word,
and therein his time ſpend.

11 Unfeignedly I have thee fought,
and thus ſeeking abide:

12 O never ſuffer me, O Lord,
from thy precepts to ſlide.

13 Within my heart and ſecret thoughts
thy words I have hid ſtill:

14 That I might not at any time offend thy godly will.

15 We magnifie thy Name O Lord,
and praiſe thee evermore:

16 Thy ſtatutes of moſt worthy fame,
O Lord teach me therefore.

17 My lips have never ceaſ'd to preach,
and publiſh day and night,

18 The judgments all, which did proceed
from thy mouth full of might.

19 Thy teſtimonies and thy waies, pleaſe me no leſs indeed,

20 Then all the treaſures of the earth,
which worldlings make their need.

21 Of thy precepts I will ſtill muſe,
and thereto frame my talk:

22 As at a mark ſo will I aim,
thy waies how I may walk.

23 My only joy ſhall be ſo fix'd,
and on thy lawes ſo ſet:

24 That nothing can me ſo far blind,
that I thy words forget.

VERSE THE. The third Part.

25 Grant to thy ſervant now ſuch grace
as may my life prolong:

26 Thy holy Word then will I keep,
both in my heart and tongue.

27 Mine eyes which were dim and ſhut up
ſo open and make bright,

28 That of thy law and marvellous works
I may have the clear ſight.

29 I am a ſtranger in this earth,
wandering now here, now there:

30 Thy word therefore to me diſcloſe,
my foot-ſteps for to clear.

31 My ſoul is raviſh'd with deſire,
and never is at reſt:

32 But ſeeks to know thy judgments high,
and what may pleaſe thee beſt.

33 The proud men, and malicious,
thou haſt deſtroi'd each one:

34 And curſed are ſuch as do not thy beſts ſtand upon.

35 Lord turn from me rebuke and ſhame,
which wicked men conſpire:

36 For I have kept thy covenants
with zeal as hot as fire.

37 The Princes great in counſel ſet
and did againſt me ſpeak:

38 But then thy ſervant thought how he thy ſtatutes might not break.

39 For why? thy covenants are my joy,
and my hearts great ſolace:

40 They ſerve inſtead of counſellers,
my matters for to paſſe.

DALETH. The fourth Part.

41 I am alas as brought to grave,
and almoſt turn'd to duſt:

42 Reſtore therefore my life again,
as thy promiſe is juſt.

43 My waies when I acknowledg'd,
with mercy thou didſt hear:

44 Hear now ere-ſoon, and me inſtruſt
thy lawes to love and fear.

45 Teach me once thoroughly for to know
thy precepts and thy lore:

46 Thy works then will I meditate,
and lay them up in ſtore.

47 My ſoul I feel ſo fore oppreſt,
that it melteth for grief:

48 According to thy word therefore,
haſte Lord to ſend relief.

49 From lying and deceitful lips
let thy grace me defend:

50 And that I may learn thee to love,
thy holy law me ſend.

51 The way of truth both ſtraight & ſure
I have choſen and found.

52 I ſet thy judgments me before,
which keep me ſafe and ſound.

53 Since then (O Lord) I forc'd my ſelf
thy covenants to embrace:

54 Let me therefore have no rebuke,
nor check in any caſe.

55 Then will I run with joyfull cheer
where thy word doth me call,

56 When thou haſt ſet my heart at large,
and rid me out of thrall.

HE. The fifth Part.

57 Inſtruſt me Lord in the right trade
of thy ſtatutes divine:

58 And it to keep even to the end,
my heart will I incline.

59 Grant me the knowledge of thy law,
and I ſhall it obey:

60 With her x, and mind, and all my
I will it keep I ſay. (might,

61 In the right paths of thy precepts
guide me Lord I require:

62 None other pleaſure do I wiſh,
nor greater thing deſire.

63 Incline my heart thy laws ſo keep,
and covenants to embrace:

64 And from all filthy avarice,
Lord ſhield me with thy grace.

65 From vain deſires and worldly luſts
turn back mine eyes and ſight:

66 Give me the ſpirit of life and power,
to walk thy ways aright.

67 Confirm thy gracious promiſe Lord, which

which thou hast made to me,
Which are thy servants, and do love
and fear nothing but thee.

39 Reproach and shame which I so fear
from me O Lord expell :
For thou dost judge with equity,
and therein dost extell.

40 Behold my hearts desire is bent
thy lawes to keep for aye :
Lord strengthen me so with thy grace
that it perform I may.

V A U The sixth Part.

41 Thy mercies great and manifold
let me obtain O Lord :
Thy saving health let me enjoy
according to thy word.

42 So shall I stop the slanderous mouths
of lewd men and unjust :
For in thy faithfull promises
stands my comfort and trust.

43 The word of truth within my mouth
let ever still be prest :
For in thy judgments wonderfull
my hope doth stand and rest.

44 And whilst that breath within my brest
doth natural life preserve :
Yea till this world shall be dissolv'd,
thy law will I observe.

45 So walk will I, as free at large,
and made free from all dread :
Because I sought how for to keep
thy precepts and thy read.

46 Thy noble acts I will describe as things of most great fame :
Even before Kings I will them blaze,
and shrink no whit for shame.

47 I will rejoyce then to obey
thy worthy befts and will :
Which evermore I have lov'd best,
and so will love them still :

48 My hands I will lift to thy lawes,
which I have dearly sought :
And praise thy commandments
in will, in deed, in thought.

Z A I N. The seventh Part.

49 Thy promise which thou mad'st to me
thy servant, Lord, remember.
For therein do I put my trust,
and confidence for ever.

50 It is my comfort and my joy,
when troubles me assail :
For were my life not by thy word,
my life would soon me fail.

51 The proud and such as God condemn,
still made of me a scorn :
Yet would I not thy law forsake,
as he that were forlorn :

52 But call'd to mind, Lord, thy great work
shew'd to our fathers old :
Whereby I felt the joy surmount
my grief an hundred fold.

53 But yet also for fear I quake,

seeing how wicked men Thy law forsook, and did procure thy judgments upon them.

54 And as for me, I fram'd my songs
thy statutes to extell :
When I among the strangers dwell,
and thoughts can me assault.

55 I thought upon thy Name, O Lord,
by night, when others sleep :
As for thy law, also I kept,
and ever will it keep.

56 Thus grace I did obtain, because thy covenants sweet and dear
I did embrace, and also keep with reverence and with fear.

H E T H. The eighth Part.

57 O God which art my part and lot,
my comfort and my stay :
I have decreed and promised,
thy law to keep always,

58 Mine earnest heart did humbly sit
in presence of thy face :
As thou therefore hast promised
Lord, grant me of thy grace.

59 My life I have examined,
and try'd my secret heart,
Which to thy statutes caused me
my feet fit to convert.

60 I did not stay nor linger long,
as they that slothfull are :
But hastily thy lawes to keep,
I did my self prepare.

61 The cruel bands of wicked men
have made of me their prey :
Yet would I not thy law forget,
nor from thee go astray.

62 Thy righteous judgments towards me
so great are and so high :
That even at midnight will I rise,
thy Name to magnifie.

63 Companion am I to all them
which fear thee in their hearts
And never will for love nor dread
from thy commandments part.

64 Thy mercies Lord most plentifully
do all the world fulfill :
O teach me how I may obey,
thy statutes and thy will.

T E T H. The ninth Part.

65 According to thy promise Lord,
so hast thou with me dealt :
For of thy grace in sundry sort,
have I thy servant felt.

66 Teach me to judge alwaies right,
and give me knowledge sure :
For certainly believe I do that thy precepts are pure.

67 Ere thou didst touch me with thy rod
I err'd and went astray :
But now I keep thy holy Word,
and make it all my stay.

68 Thou art both good and gracious,

and giv' it most liberally Thine ordinances how to keep,
therefore O Lord teach me.

69 The proud & wicked men have forg'd
against me many a lie:

Yet thy commandments still obstre
with all my heart will I.

70 Their hearts are swollen with worldly
as grease so are they fir: (wealth)

But in thy law do I delight
and nothing seek but that.

71 O happy time may I well say,
when thou didst me correct:

For as a guide to learn thy laws
thy rod did me direct.

72 So that to me thy word and law
is dearer manifold:

Then thousands great of silver and gold,
or ought that can be told.

I O D. The tenth Part.

73 Seeing thy hands have made me, Lord,
to be thy creature:

Grant knowledge likewise how to learn
to put thy lawes in ure.

74 So they that fear thee shall rejoyce,
when ever they me see:

Because I have learn'd by thy Word,
so put my trust in thee.

75 When with thy rods the world is
I know the cause is just: (plagu'd)

So when thou dost correct me Lord,
the cause just needs be must.

76 Now of thy goodnesse I thee pray,
some comfort to me send:

As thou to me hast promised,
so from all ill me shend.

77 Thy tender mercie pour on me,
and I shall surely live:

For joy and consolation both
thy law to me doth give. (renew)

78 Confound the proud whose false pre-
is me for to destroy:

But as for me thy bests to know
I will my self employ.

79 Who so with reverence do thee fear,
to me let them retire:

And such as do thy covenants know,
and them alone desire.

80 My heart without all wavering
let on thy lawes be bent:

That no confusion come to me,
whereby I should be shent.

G A P H. The eleventh Part.

81 My soul doth faint and ceaseth not,
thy saving health so crave:

And for thy words sake Hill I trust,
my hearts desire to have.

82 Mine eyes do fail with looking for thy word, and thus I say:

O when wilt thou me comfort, Lord,
why dost thou thus delay?

83 As a skin-bottle in the smoke

so am I perisht and drest.

Yet will I not out of my heart
let thy commandments slide.

84 Alas how long shall I yet live,
before I see the hour,

That on my foes which me torment,
thy vengeance thou wilt pour?

85 Presumptuous men have digged pits
thinking to make me sure.

Thus contrary against thy law
my hurt they do procure.

86 But thy commandments are all true,
and causeless they me grieve:

To thee therefore I do complain,
that thou mightst me relieve.

87 Almost they had me clean destroyed,
and brought me quire to ground:

Yet by thy statutes I abode,
and therein succour found.

88 Restore me Lord again to life,
for thy mercies excell:

And so shall I thy covenants keep,
till death my life expell.

L A M E D. The twelfth Part.

89 In heaven Lord where thou dost dwell
thy word is stablish'd sure:

And shall for all eternitie
fast graven there endure.

90 From age to age thy truth abides,
as doth the earth winnesse:

Whose ground-work thou hast laid so sure
as no tongue can expresse.

91 Even to this day we may well see how all things persevere

According to thine Ordinance,
for all things thee do fear.

92 Had it not been that in thy law
my soul had comfort sought:

Long time ere now in my distresse
I had been brought to nought.

93 Therefore I will thy precepts aye
in memory keep fast:

By them thou hast my life restor'd
when I was at last cast.

94 No wight to me can title make,
for I am onely thine:

Save me therefore for to thy lawes
mine ears and heart incline.

95 The wicked men do seek my bane,
and thereto lie in wait,

But I the while considered
thy noble works and great.

96 I see nothing in this wide world,
at length which hath no end:

But thy commandments and thy word
beyond all bounds extend.

M E M. The thirteenth Part.

97 What great desire and fervent love,
do I bear to thy law?

All the day long I meditate
on it with reverent awe.

98 Thy word hath taught me far to pass my

my soul in policy :
 For still I hold it as a thing
 of most excellency.

99 My teachers which did me instruct,
 in knowledge I excel :
 Because I do thy covenants keep,
 and them to others tell.

100 In wisdom I do pass also the ancient men indeed :
 And all because to keep thy laws,
 I held it aye best reed.

101 My feet I have restrained eke
 from every evil way :
 Because that I continually
 thy word might keep, I say. (ments)

102 I have not swerv'd from thy judge-
 nor yet thruak any dell :
 For why? thou hast me taught thereby,
 to live godly and well.

103 O Lord how sweet unto my taste
 find I thy words alway !
 Doubtless no honey in my mouth feel ought so sweet I may.

104 Thy laws have me such wisdom
 that utterly I have (learn'd)
 All wicked and ungodly ways,
 in every kind or rate.

N & N. The fourteenth part.

105 Even as a lantern to my feet,
 so doth thy Word thine bright:
 And to my paths where ever I go,
 it is a flaming light.

106 I have both sworn and will perform
 my promises doubtless,
 That I will keep thy judgements just,
 and them in life express.

107 Affliction hath me sore oppress,
 and brought me to death's door :
 O Lord, as thou hast promised,
 so me to life restore.

108 The offerings which with heart^{and}
 most frankly I thee give, (voice) Accept, and teach me how I may after thy judgements live.

109 My soul is aye so in my hand,
 that dangers me assail :
 Yet do I not thy law forget,
 nor it to keep will fail.

110 Although the wicked laid their nets,
 to catch me at a bay :
 Yet did I not from thy precepts
 once swerve or go astray.

111 Thy law I have so claim'd alway,
 as mine own heritage :
 And why? for therein I delight,
 and let my who'e courage.

112 For evermore I have been bent
 thy statutes to fulfil :
 Even so likewise unto the end
 I will continue still.

A M & N. The fifteenth part.

113 The crafty thoughts & dou. leheart.

I do alwaies desiret :
 But as for thy law and precepts,
 I love them ever best.

114 Thou art my hid and secret place,
 my shield of strong defence :
 Therefore have I thy promises
 look'd for with patience.

115 Go to therefore ye wicked men,
 depart from me anon :
 For the Commandments will I keep
 of God my Lord alone.

116 As thou hast promis'd, so perform,
 that death me not assail :
 Nor let my hope abuse me so,
 that through distrust I quail.

117 Uphold me and I shall be safe,
 for ought they do or say :
 And in thy statutes pleasure take will I both night and day.

118 Thou hast trod such under thy feet,
 as do thy statutes break :
 For nought avails their subtilty,
 their counsell is but weak.

119 Like dross thou cast'st the wicked out
 where ere they go or dwell :
 Therefore can I as thy statutes
 love nothing half so well.

120 My flesh alas is taken with fear,
 as though it were beaum'd :
 For when I see thy judgements, straight
 I am as one aston'd.

A I N. The sixteenth part.

121 I do the thing that lawful is,
 and give to all men right :
 Refrain me not to them that would oppress me with their might.

122 But for thy servant Surety be,
 in that thing that is good :
 That proud men give me not the foil,
 which rage as they were wood.

123 Mine eys with waiting are now blind
 thy health so much I crave :
 And eke thy righteous promise, Lord,
 whereby thou wilt me save.

124 Intreat thy servant lowly,
 and favour to him show :
 Thy statutes of most excellency,
 teach me also to know.

25 Thy humble servant (Lord) I am,
 grant me to understand,
 How by thy statutes I may know
 best what to take in hand.

126 It is now time (Lord) to begin,
 for truth is quite decay'd :
 Thy law likewise they have transgressed,
 and none against them stay'd.

127 This is the cause wherefore I love
 thy laws better than gold.
 Or jewels fine which are esteem'd
 most costly to be sold.

128 I thought thy precepts all most just,
 and so deem'd and in more :
 All craft and malicious ways
 I do shun therefore.

The fourteenth Part.

- 119 Thy covenants are most wonderful
and full of things profound :
My soul therefore doth keep them sure,
when they are try'd and found.
120 When men first enter into thy word,
they find a light most clear :
And very idiots understand,
when they it read or hear.
121 For joy I have both gap'd & breath'd
to know thy commandment :
That I might guide my self thereby,
I sought what thing it meant.
122 With mercy and compassion, Lord,
behold me from above :
As thou art wont to behold such,
as thy name fear and love.
123 Direct my foot-steps by thy Word,
that I thy will may know :
And never let inquiry
thy servant overthrow. (harm) 124 From slanderous tongues & deadly persecute and keep me sure :
Thy precepts then wil I observe,
and put them eke in ure.
125 Thy countenance which doth surround the Sun in his bright hue, (mount, Let shine on me, and by thy law
teach me what to eschew.
126 Out of mine eyes great floods gush
of dreary tears that fall : (out When I behold how wicked men
thy laws keep not at all.

T Z A D I, The eighteenth Part.

- 127 In every point, Lord, thou art just,
the wicked though they grudge:
And when thou dost sentence pronounce thou art a righteous judge.
128 To render right and see from guile,
are two chief points most high :
And such as thou hast in thy law
commanded us straightly.
129 With zeal and wrath I am consum'd
and even pin'd away :
To see my foes thy word forget,
for ought that I do may.
130 So pure and perfect is thy Word,
as any heart can deem :
And thy servant nothing more
do love or yet esteem.
131 And though I be nothing set by,
as one of base degree :
Yet do I not thy laws forget,
nor shrink away from thee.
132 Thy righteousness (Lord) is most for ever to endure : (just,
Also thy Law is truth is self,
most constant and most pure.
133 Trouble and grief have seiz'd on me
and brought me wondrous low :
Yet do I still of thy precepts
delight to hear and know.

- 144 The righteousness of thy judgement
doth last for evermore :
Then teach them me, for even in them
my life lies up in store.

K O P N, The nineteenth Part.

- 145 With fervent heart I call'd & cri'd,
now answer me, O Lord :
That thy commandments to observe,
I may fully accord.
146 To thee my God I make my suit
with most humble requests :
Save me therefore, and I will keep thy precepts and thy bests.
147 To thee I cry even in the morn,
before the day wax light :
Because that I have in thy word
my confidence whole plight.
148 Mine eyes prevent the watch by night
and ere they call I wake :
That by devising on thy Word,
I might some comfort take.
149 Incline thine ears to hear my voice
and pitee on me take :
As thou wast wont, so judge me Lord,
lest life should me forsake.
150 My foes draw near, and do procure
my death maliciously,
Which from thy law are far gone back,
and fraid from it lewdly.
151 Therefore, O Lord, approach thou for need doth so require, (near
For all thy precepts true they are,
then help I thee asfire.
152 But thy commandments have I learn'd
not now, but long ago :
That they remain for evermore,
thou hast them grounded so.
R E S H, The twentieth part.
153 My trouble and affliction,
consider and behold :
Deliver me, for of thy law,
I ever take fast hold.
154 Defend my good and righteous cause,
with speed some succour send :
From death (as thou hast promised)
Lord keep me and defend.
155 As for the wicked, far they are
from having health and grace :
Whereby they might thy statutes know,
they enter not the trace.
156 Great are thy mercies Lord I grant,
what tongue can them attain !
And as thou hast me judg'd ere now,
so let me life obtain.
157 Though many men did trouble me
and persecute me sore :
Yet from thy laws I never shrink,
nor went awry therefore.
158 And such it is, for grief I die,
when I these traitors see :
Because they keep no whitt thy word,
nor yet seek to know thee.
159 Behold, for I do love thy laws,
with

With heart most glad and fain :
As thou art good and gracious Lord,
Restore my life again.

160 What thy word doth decree, must be
and so it hath been ever :
Thy righteous judgements are also most true and decay never.

Psalm Cxx. The xxi. part.

161 Princes have sought by cruelty,
causeless to make me crouch :
But all in vain, for of thy word
the fear did my heart touch.
162 And certainly even of thy word
I was more merry and glad,
Than he that of rich spoils and prey,
great store and plenty had.

163 As for all lies and falsties,
I hate most and detest :
For why thy holy law do I above all things love best.

164 Seven times a day I praise the Lord
singing with heart and voice :
Thy righteous acts and wonderful
to cause me to rejoice.

165 Great peace & rest shall all such have
as do thy statutes love.
No danger shall their quiet state impair or once remove.

166 My only health and comfort Lord,
I look for at thy hand :
And therefore have I done those things,
which thou didst me command.

167 Thy laws have been mine exercise
which my soul most desir'd :
So much to them my love was bent,
that nought else I requir'd :

168 Thy statutes and commandments,
I kept (thou know'st) aright :
For all the things that I have done,
are present in thy sight.

Psalm Cxxi. The xxii. part.

169 O Lord, let my complaint and cry
before thy face appear :
And as thou hast me promise made,
so teach me thee to fear.

170 Mine humble supplication, tow'rd thee let find access :
And grant me Lord deliverance,
for so is thy promise.

171 Then shall my lips thy praises speak,
after most ample sort :

When thou thy statutes hast me taught,
wherein stands my comfort.

172 My tongue shall sing and preach thy and on this wise say shall : (word, Gods famous acts and noble laws
are just and perfect all.

173 Stretch out thy hand I thee beseech,
and speedily me save :

For thy commandments to observe chosen O Lord I have.

174 Of thee alone Lord I crave health,
for other I know none.

And in thy law and nothing else
I do delight alone.

175 Grant me therefore long daies to thy name to magnifie : (hyc

And of thy judgments merciful
let me the favour try.

176 For I was lost and went astray
much like a wandering sheep :

O seek me, for I have not fail'd thy commandments to keep.

PSALM Cxxii. S.

IN trouble and in thral
Unto the Lord I call,

And he doth me comfort,

2 Deliver me, I say,

From liars lips alway,

And tongues of false reports

3 What vantage or what thing

Get'st thou thus for to sing,

Thou false and flattering liar

4 Thy tongue doth hurt I ween,

No less then arrows keen,

Or hot consuming fire.

5 Alas so long I slack

Within these tents so black,

Which Kedar's are by name

By whom the flock elect,

And all of Isaac's seed

Are put to open shame.

6 With them that peace did hate,

I came a peace to make

And set a quiet life.

7 But when my tale was told,

Causeless I was contrould

By them that would have strife,

PSALM Cxxii. W. W.

ILift mine eyes to Sion hill,

From whence I do attend

That succour God me send.

2 The mighty God me succour will,

Which heaven and earth framed,

And all things therein named.

3 Thy foot from slip he will preserve

And will thee safely keep,

For he will never sleep :

4 Lo he that doth Israel conserve,

No sleep at all can him catch,

But his eyes shall ever watch.

5 The Lord is thy warrant alway,

The Lord eke doth thee cover

As at thy right hand ever.

6 The Sun shall not thee parch by day,

Nor the Moon nor half so bright,

Shal with cold thee hurt by night.

7 The Lord will keep thee from distress,

And will thy life sure save,

And thou shalt also have

In all thy business good success :

8 Where ever thou goest in our

God will thy things bring about.

P S A L M Cxxii. W. K.

I Did in heart rejoyce,
To hear the people's voice,
In offering so willinglie:
For let us up, say they,
And in the Lords house pray,
Thus spake the folk full lovinglie.

2 Our feet that wandred wide,
g'at in thy gates abide,
O thou Jerusalem full fair:
3 Which art so seemlie set Much like a City near,
The like whereof is not elsewhere.

4 The Tribes with one accord,
The Tribes of God the Lord
Are thither bent their way to take,
So God before did tell
That there his Israel
Their prayers should together make.

5 For there are thrones cress,
And that for this respect,
To set forth justice orderlie:
Which thrones right to maintain
To Davids house pertain,
his folk to judge accordinglie.

6 To pray let us not cease
For Jerusalem's peace,
Thy friends God prosper mightilie:
7 Peace be thy walls about,
And prosper thee throughout
Thy palaces continuallie.

8 I wish thy prosperous state,
For my poor brethrens sake,
That comfort have by means of thee:
9 Gods house doth me allure,
Thy wealth for to procure,
So much alwaies as lies in me.

P S A L M Cxxiii. T. S.

O Lord that heaven dost possess,
I lift mine eyes to thee:
Even as the servant listeth his,
his misters hands to see.

2 As handmaids watch their misters hands
Some grace for to achieve:
So we behold the Lord our God,
till he do us forgive.

3 Lord grant us thy compassion,
and mercie in thy sight:
For we are fill'd and overcome
with hatred and despight.
4 Our minds be stuff with great rebuke,
the rich and worldly-wise
Do make of us their mocking stocks,
the proud do us despise.

P S A L M Cxxiv. W. W.

Now Israel
may say, and that truly:
If that the Lord
had not our cause maintain'd:
5 If that the Lord
had not our right sustain'd:
When all the world
was set against us.

Made their uprotes,
and said we should all die.

3 Now long ago
they had devour'd us all:
And swallowed quick,
for ought that we could deem,
Such was their rage,
as we might well esteem.
4 And as the floods
with mighty force do fall:
So had they now
our lives even brought to thrall.

5 The raging streams
most proud and roaring noise,
Had long ago
o'erwhelm'd us in the deep.
6 But Lord be God,
which doth us safely keep
From bloudie teeth,
and their most cruel voice,
Which as a prey,
to eat us would rejoyce.

7 Even as a bird
out of the Fowler's gin Escapes away,
right so it fares with us:
Broke are their nets,
and we have scaped thus.
8 God that made heaven
and earth is our help then:
His name hath sav'd
us from these wicked men.

P S A L M Cxxv. W. K.

Such as in God the Lord do trust,
As mount Sion shall firmly stand,
And be renowned at no hand,
The Lord will count them right & just
So that they shall be sure,
For ever to endure.

2 As mightie mountains, huge and great
Jerusalem about do close:
So will the Lord do unto those,
Who on his godly will do wait:
Such are to him so dear,
They never need to fear.

3 For though the righteous try doth he
By making wicked men his rod:
Left they through grief forsake their
It shall not as their lot still be. (God,
4 Give, Lord, to us thy light,
Whose hearts are true and right.

5 But as for such as turn aside,
By crooked waies which they our-sought
The Lord will surely bring to nought;
With workers v'e they shall abide:
But peace with Israel
For evermore shall dwell.

Another of the same by R. W.

THose that do put their confidence
Upon the Lord our God onely,
And tie to him for their defence,
In all their need and misery.

Their faith is sure still to endure,
Grounded on Christ the corner-stone,
Mov'd with none ill, but standeth still,
Festast like to the mount Zion :

And as about Jerusalem,
The mighty hills do it compare,
So that no enemies come to them,
To hurt that town in any case :
So God indeed in every need
His faithfull people doth defend,
Standing them by assuredly,
From this time forth world without end.

Right wife and good is our Lord God,
And will not suffer certainlie,
The sinners and ungodlies rod,
To carrie upon his familie.
Left they also from God should go,
Falling to sin and wickedness :
O Lord defend world without end
Thy Christian flock through thy goodnes.

O Lord do good to Christians all,
That stedfast in thy Word abide :
Such as willinglie from God fall,
And to false doctrine dailie slide,
Such wil the Lord scatter abroad,
With hypocrites thrown down to hell,
God will them send pains without end :
But Lord grant peace to Israel.

Glorie to God the Father of might,
And to the Son our Saviour,
And to the Holy Ghost, whose light
Shine in our hearts and us succour,
That the right way from day to day
We may walk, and him glorifie :
With heart's desire all that are here
Worship the Lord, and say Amen.

PSALM CXXVI. W. W.

When that the Lord
again his Sion had forth brought From bondage great
and also servitude extreme ;
His work was such as did summour mans heart and
so that we were (thought,
much like to them that use to dream,
Our mouths they were
with laughter-filled then,
And eke our tongues
did shew as joyful men.

The hearken folk
were forced then this to confess :
How that the Lord
for them also great things had done.
But much more we,
and therefore can confess no less :
Wherefore so joy
we have good cause as we begun.
O Lord go forth,
thou canst our bondage end :
As to deserts
the flowing rivers send.

Fall true it is,
that they which sow in tears indeed.

A time will come,
when they shall reap in mirth and joy.
6 They went and wept
in bearing of their precious seed :
For that their foes
ful oftentimes did them annoy :
But their return
with joy they shall sure see :
Their sheaves home bring,
and not impaired be.

PSALM CXXVII. W. W.

Except the Lord the house doth make,
And thereunto doth set his hand,
What men do build it cannot stand.
Likewise in vain men undertake,
Cities and hold to warch and ward,
Except the Lord be their safeguard.

2 Though ye rise earlie in the morn,
And so at night go late to bed,
Feeding full hardily with brown bread,
Yet were your labour lost and worr :
But they whom God doth love and ke p
Receive all things with quiet sleep.

3 Therefore mark wel when ever ye see,
That men have heirs to enjoy their land
It is the gift of Gods own hand.
For God himself doth multiplye,
Of his great liberality,
The blessing of posterity.

4 And when the children come to age,
They grow in strength and activens,
In person and in comeliness :
So that a shaft thor with courage,
Of one that hath a most strong arm,
Flies not so swift, nor doth like harm.

5 O wel is he that hath his quiver
Furnish'd with such artillery :
For when in perill he shal be,
Such one shal never shake nor shiver,
When that he pleads before the Judge,
Against his foes that bear himudge.

PSALM CXXVIII. T. S.

Blessed art thou that fearest God,
and walkest in his way :
2 For of thy labour thou shalt ear
happie art thou I say.
3 Like fruitful vines on thy house side,
so doth thy wife spring out :
Thy children stand like olive plants,
thy table round about.
4 Thus art thou blest that fearest God
and he shal let thee see 5 The promised Jerusalem,
and her felicity.
6 Thou shalt thy childrens children see
to thy great joy's increase :
And likewise grace on Israel,
prosperitie and peace.

PSALM CXXIX. N.

Oft they (now Israel may say)
me from my youth assaid'd :
Oft they assaid me from my youth,

- yet never they prevail'd.
 2 Upon my back the plowmen plow'd,
 and sower's long did cast:
 3 The righteous Lord hath cut the cords
 of wicked foes at last.
 4 They that hate me shall be ashamed,
 and turned back also:
 5 And made as grass upon the house,
 which with'reth ere it grow.
 6 Whereof the mower cannot find enough to fill his hand:
 Nor can he fill his lap that goeth
 to glean upon the land.
 7 Nor passers-by pray God on them
 to let his blessing fall:
 Nor say, We bless you in the Name
 of God the Lord at all.

P S A L M Cxxx. W. W.

- I Ord to thee I make my moan,
 when dangers me oppress:
 I call, I sigh, plain and groan,
 trusting to find release.
 2 Fear now O Lord my request,
 for it is full due time:
 And let thine ears aye be prest,
 unto this prayer mine.
 3 O Lord our God if thou weigh
 our sins and them peruse:
 Who shall then escape and say,
 From my self excuse?
 4 But, Lord thou art merciful,
 and turn't to us thy grace:
 5 For as we hearts most careful should fear before thy face.
 6 In God I put my whole trust,
 my soul waits on his will:
 For his promise is most just,
 and I hope therein still.
 7 My soul to God hath regard,
 wishing for him alway,
 More then they that watch and ward
 to see the dawning day.
 Let Israel then boldly,
 in the Lord put his trust:
 He is that God of mercy,
 that his deliver must.
 8 For he it is that must save
 Israel from his sin:
 And all such as surely have their confidence in him.

P S A L M Cxxxi. M.

- O Lord I am not puffed in mind,
 I have no scornful eye:
 I do not exercise my self
 in things that be too high.
 2 But as the child that wained is,
 even from his mothers breast:
 So have I Lord behav'd my self
 in silence and in rest.
 3 O Israel, trust in the Lord,
 for him be all thy say:

From this time forth for evermore;
 from age to age, I say.

P S A L M Cxxxii. M.

- Remember Davids troubles, Lord,
 how to the Lord he swore:
 2 And vow'd a vow to Jacobs God,
 to keep for evermore.
 3 I will not come within my house,
 nor climb up to my bed,
 Nor let my temples take their rest,
 nor the eyes in my head.
 4 Till I have found out for the Lord,
 a place to sit thereon:
 5 An house for Jacobs God to be an habitation.
 6 We heard of it at Ephrata,
 there did we hear this sound:
 And in the fields and forests there,
 these voices first were found.
 7 We will asay, and go in now
 his Tabernacle there:
 Before his foot-stool to fall down,
 and worship him in fear.
 8 Arise, O Lord, arise I say,
 into thy resting place:
 Both thou and the Ark of thy strength,
 the presence of thy grace.
 9 Let all thy priests be clothed, Lord,
 with truth and righteousness:
 Let all thy Saints and holy men
 sing all with joyfulness.
 10 And for thy servant Davids sake
 refuse not, Lord, I say,
 The face of thine anointed, Lord,
 nor turn thy face away.

The second part.

- 11 The Lord to David swore in truth
 and will not shrink from it:
 Saying, the fruit of thy body
 upon thy seat shall sit.
 12 And if thy sons my covenant keep,
 that I shall learn each one:
 Then shall their sons for ever sit upon thy princely throne.
 13 The Lord himself hath chose Sion,
 and loves therein to dwell:
 Saying, this is my resting place,
 I love and like it well.
 14 And I will bless with great increase her victuals every where:
 And I will sacrifice with bread
 the needy that be there.
 15 Yea I will deck and cloth her Priests
 with my salvation:
 And all her Saints shall sing for joy
 of my protection.
 16 There will I surely make the home
 of David for to bud:
 For there I have ordain'd for mine
 a lantern bright and good.
 17 As for his enemies, I will clothe

with shame for evermore:
But I will cause his crown to shine
more fresh than heretofore.

PSALM Cxxxii. W. W.

O How happy a thing it is,
and joyful for to see Brethren together fast to hold the band of amity!

It calls to mind that sweet perfume,
and that costly ointment,
Which on the Sacrificer's head
by Gods precept was spent.

It wet not Aarons head alone
but drencht his beard thoroughout:
And finally it did run down
his rich attire about.

And as the lower ground doth drink
the dew of Hermon hill:
And Sion with his silver drops
the fields with spirit doth fill.

Even so the Lord doth powre on them
his blessings manifold:
Whose hearts and minds without al guile
this knot do keep and hold.

PSALM Cxxxiv. W. W.

Behold and have regard,
ye servants of the Lord:
Which in his house by night do warch,
praise him with one accord.

Lift up your hands on high,
unto his holy place:
And give the Lord his praises due,
his benefits embrace.

For why? the Lord who did
both earth and heaven frame, Doth Sion bless, and will conserve
for evermore the same.

PSALM Cxxxv. N.

Praise the Lord, praise him, praise
praise him with one accord: him,

O praise him still all ye that be the servants of the Lord.

O praise him ye that stand and be in the house of the Lord:

Ye of his court and of his house,
praise him with one accord.

Praise ye the Lord for he is good,
sing praises to his Name:

It is a comely and good thing,
alwayes to do the same.

For why? the Lord hath chose Jacob,
his very own ye see:

So hath he chosen Israel,
his treasure for so be.

For this I know and am right sure,
the Lord is very great:

He is indeed above all Gods,
most easie to intreat.

For whatsoever pleased him,
all that full well be wrought
in heaven, in earth, and in the sea.

which he hath made of nought.

7 He lifts up clouds ev'n from the earth
he makes lightnings and rain:
He bringeth forth the winds also,
he made nothing in vain.

8 He smote the first-born of each thing,
in Egypt that took rest:
He spared there no living thing,
the man nor yet the beast.

9 He hath in thee shew'd wonders great,
O Egypt void of vaunts:
On Pharaoh thy cursed King,
and his severe servants.

10 He smote then many nations,
and did great acts and things:
He slew the great, and mightiest,
and chiefeft of their Kings.

11 Schem King of the Amorites
and Og King of Bashan:
He slew also the Kingdoms all that were of Canaan.

12 And gave their land to Israel,
an heritage we see,
To Israel his own people
an heritage to be.

The second part.

13 Thy Name (O Lord) shall still endure
and thy memorial,
Throughour all generations
that are or ever shall.

14 The Lord will surely now avenge
his people all indeed:
And to his servants he will shew
favour in time of need.

15 The idols of th' heath'n are made in all the coasts and lands,
Of silver and of gold they be,
the work even of mens hands.

16 They have their mouths and cannot and eyes that have no sight: (speak, 17 They have eke ears and hear nothing,
their mouths be breathless quire.

18 Wherefore all they are like to the w
that so do set them forth:
And likewise those that trust in them,
or think they ought be worth.

19 O all ye house of Israel,
see that ye praise the Lord:
And ye that be of Aarons house,
praise him with one accord.

20 And ye that be of Levi's house,
praise ye likewise the Lord:
And ye that stand in awe of him,
praise him with one accord.

21 And out of Sion sound his praise,
the great praise of the Lord,
Which dwelleth in Jerusalem,
praise him with one accord.

PSALM Cxxxvi. N.

Praise ye the Lord, for he is good:
for his mercy endureth for ever.

2 Give praise unto the God of gods,
for his mercy endureth for ever.

Give praise unto the Lord of lords.

- for his mercie endureth for ever.
 4 Which onle doth great wondrous
 for his mercie, &c. (works,
 5 Which by his wisdom made the hea-
 for his mercie, &c. (venis, 6 Which on the waters stretch'd the
 for his mercie, &c. (earth,
 7 Which made great lights to shine
 for his mercie, &c. (abroad, 8 As Sun to rule the lightsome day,
 for his mercie, &c.
 9 The Moon and Stars to guide the
 for his mercie, &c. (night 10 Which smote Egypt with their first-
 for his mercie, &c. (born, 11 And Israel brought out from thence,
 for his mercie, &c.
 12 With mightie hand and stretch'd arm,
 for his mercie, &c.
 13 Which cut the red sea in two parts,
 for his mercie, &c.
 14 And Israel made pass there-through,
 for his mercie, &c.
 15 And drowned Pharaoh and his host,
 for his mercie, &c.
 16 Through wilderness his people led,
 for his mercie, &c.
 17 He which did smite great noble kings,
 for his mercie, &c.
 18 And which hath slain the mightie
 for his mercie, &c. (kings, 19 As Schon King of Amorites,
 for his mercie, &c.
 20 And Og the King of Basan land,
 for his mercie, &c.
 21 And gave their land for heritage,
 for his mercie, &c.
 22 Even to his servant Israel,
 for his mercie, &c.
 23 Remembering us in base estate,
 for his mercie, &c.
 24 And from oppressors rescued us,
 for his mercie, &c.
 25 Which giveth food unto all flesh,
 for his mercie, &c.
 26 Praise ye the Lord of heaven above,
 for his mercie, &c.
 27 Give thanks unto the Lord of lords,
 for his mercie, &c.
 Another of the same by T. C.
 Laud the Lord benigne,
 Whose mercies last for aye,
 Give thanks and praises sing
 To God of gods I say.
 2 For certainly,
 His mercies dure
 Both firm and sure,
 Eternallie.
 3 The Lord of lords praise ye,
 Whose mercies aye do dure:
 4 Great wonders onelle he Doth work by his great power,
 For certainlie, &c.
 5 Which God omnipotent,
 By his great wisdom he
 The heavenlie firmament
 Did frame as we may see.
 For certainlie, &c.
 6 Yea, he the heavie charge
 Of all the earth did stretch
 And on the waters large
 The same he did our reach,
 For certainlie, &c.
 7 Great lights he made to be,
 For why? his love is aye:
 8 Such as the Sun we see,
 To rule the lightsome day.
 For certainlie, &c.
 9 And eke the Moon so cleare,
 Which shineth in our fight,
 And Stars that do appear,
 To guide the darksome night.
 For certainlie, &c.
 10 With grievous plagues and sore
 All Egypt smote he than:
 The first-born lest and more,
 He slew of beast and man.
 For certainlie, &c.
 11 And from amidst their land
 His Israel forth brought:
 12 Which he with mightie hand,
 And stretch'd arm hath wrought.
 For certainlie, &c.
 13 The sea he cut in two,
 Which stood up like a wall:
 14 And made through it to go
 His chosen children all,
 For certainlie, &c.
 15 But there he whelmed then
 The proud King Pharaoh,
 With his huge host of men,
 And Charites eke also.
 For certainlie, &c.
 16 Who led through wilderness,
 His people fast and sound:
 And for his love endless,
 17 Great Kings he brought to ground.
 For certainlie, &c.
 18 And slew with puissant hand
 Kings mightie and of fame,
 19 As of Amorites land,
 Schon the King by name.
 For certainlie, &c.
 20 And Og (the Giant large)
 Of Basan King also:
 21 Whose land for heritage,
 He gave his people tho.
 For certainlie, &c.
 22 Even unto Israel,
 His servant dear, I say,
 He gave the same to dwell,
 And there abide for aye.
 For certainlie, &c.

23 To mind he did' us call
In our most base degree,
24 And from oppressors all
In safety set us free.
For certainlie, &c.

25 All flesh in earth abroad
With food he doth full fill:
26 Wherefore of heaven the God
To land be it your wil,
For certainlie,
His mercies dure
Both firm and sure;
Eternally.

PSALM Cxxxvii. W.W.

WHEN as we sate in Babylon,
the rivers round about:
And in remembrance of Sion,
the tears for grief burst out.
2 We hang'd our harps and instruments
the willow trees upon:
For in that place men for their use
had planted many a one.

3 Then they to whom we prisoners were said to us rauntingly:
Now let us hear your Hebrew songs
and pleasant melody.
4 Alas, said we, who can once frame
his sorrowful heart to sing
The praises of our loving God
thus under a strange King?

5 But yet if I Jerusalem
out of my heart let slide:
Then let my fingers quite forget
the warbling harp to guide.
6 And let my tongue within my mouth,
be ti'd for ever fast:
If that I joy before I see thy full deliverance past.

7 Therefore (O Lord) remember now
the cursed noise and crie
That I down sate against us made;
when they say'd our crie.
Remember Lord their cruel words,
when as with one accord
They cri'd, On sack and raze their walls,
in despite of the Lord.

8 Even so shalt thou O Babylon,
at length to dust be brought:
And happie shal that man be call'd,
that our revenge hath wrought.
9 Yea blessed (hal) that man be call'd
that takes thy children young:
To dash their bones against hard stones,
that lie the streets among.

PSALM Cxxxviii. N.

Thee wil I praise with my whole
my Lord my God alwaies: (heart)
Even in the presence of the gods
I wil advance thy praise.
10 Toward thy holie Temple, I will look and worship thee:
And praised in my thankful mouth
thy holie Name shal be.

Even for thy loving kindness sake,
and for thy truth wial:
For thou thy Name hast by thy Word
advanced over all.

3 When I did call, thou heardest me,
and thou hast made also
The power of increased strength
within my soul to grow.

4 Yea all the Kings on earth, they shal
give praise to thee O Lord:
For they of thy most holie mouth
have heard the mightie word.

5 They of the waies of God the Lord
in singing shal increas:
Because the glorie of the Lord
it is exceeding great.

6 The Lord is high and yet he doth
behold the lowlie spirit:
But he (contemning) knows a far
the proud and lofty wight.

7 Although in midst of trouble I do walk, yet shal I stand Renewed by thee, O my Lord,
thou wilt stretch out thy hand

Upon the wrath of all my foes,
and saved shal I be.
By thy right hand: the Lord God will perform his work to me.
8 Thy mercy Lord indures for aye,
Lord do me not forsake:
Forsake me not that am the wretch
which thine own hand did make.

PSALM Cxxxix. N.

O Lord thou hast me try'd and knowest
my sitting thou dost know, 2 And rising eke, my thoughts afar
thou understand'st also.
3 My paths, yea and my lying down
thou compassest alwaies:
And by familiar custom art
acquainted with my waies.

4 No word is in my tongue, O Lord,
but known it is to thee:
5 Thou me behind hold'st and before:
thou lay'st thine hand on me.
6 Too wonderful above my reach,
Lord is thy cunning skill:
It is so high, that I the same cannot attain untill.

7 From sight of thy all-seeing Spirit
Lord, whither shall I go?
Or whither shal I flee away,
thy presence to scape fro?
8 To heaven if I mount aloft,
lo thou art present there:
In hell if I lie down below,
even there thou dost appear.

9 Yea let me take the morning wings,
and let me go and hide
Even there where are the farthest parts,
where flowing sea doth slide.
10 Yea even thither also shalt thy reaching hand me guide.

And thy right hand shall hold me fast,
and make me to abide.

11 Yea, if I say, the darkness shall yet throud me from thy sight :

Lo ev'n also the darkeſt night
about me ſhall be light.

12 Yea darkneſs hideth not from thee,
but night doth ſhine as day :
To thee the darkneſs and the light,
are both alike alway.

The ſecond part.

13 For thou poſſeſſed haſt my reins,
and thou haſt covered me,
When I wiſh in my mothers womb
incloſed was by thee.

14 Thee will I praiſe, made fearfully,
and wondrously I am :
Thy works are marvellous, right well
my ſoul doth know the ſame.

15 My bones they are not hid from thee,
although in ſecret place
I have been made, and in the earth
beneath I ſhaped was.

16 When I was formleſſe, then ſhine eye
ſaw me, for in thy book
were writen all, nought was before, —
that after faſhion took.

17 The thoughts ſherefore of thee O God,
how dear are they to me ?
And of them all how paſſing great
the endleſſ number be !

18 If I ſhould count them, to thee ſum
more than the ſand I ſee :
And whenſoever I awake
yet am I ſtill with thee.

19 The wicked and the bloody men,
O that thou wouldeſt ſlay :
Even thoſe, O God, to whom depart,
depart from me I ſay.

20 Even thoſe of thee (O Lord my God)
that ſpeak full wickedly :
Thoſe that are liſted up in vain,
being enemies to thee.

21 Hate I not them that hate thee Lord,
and that in carneſt wiſe ?
Content I nor againſt them all,
againſt thee that ariſe ?

22 I hate them with unfained hate,
even as my utter foe :

23 Try me, (O God) and know my heart,
my thoughts prove and diſcloſe.

24 Conſider Lord if wickedneſs
in me there any be :
And in thy way (O God my guide)
for ever lead thou me.

PSALM Cxi. N.

Lord ſave me from the evil man,
and from the cruel wight.
And from all thoſe which evil do
imagine in their ſprite.

2 Which make on me continual war,
their tongues to they have ſet.

3 Like Serpents, underneath their lips
is Advers poyſon ſet.

4 Keep me (O Lord) from wicked hands, preſerve me to abide Free from the cruel man that means to cauſe my ſteps to ſlide.

5 The proud have laid a ſnare for me,
and they have ſpread a net
With cords in my paſh-way, and grins
for me eke have they ſet.

6 Therefore I ſaid unto the Lord,
thou art my God alone :
Hear me, O Lord, O hear the voice
wherewith I pray and moan.

7 O Lord my God, thou only art
the ſtrength that ſaveth me :
My head in day of battle hath been covered ſtill by thee.

8 Let not (O Lord) the wicked have the end of his deſire :
Perform not his ill thoughts, leſt he
with pride be ſet on fire.
9 Of them that compaſs me about,
the chiefſt of them all,
Lord let the miſchief of their lips
upon themſelves befall :

10 Let coals fall on them, let him caſt
them in conſuming flame :
And in deep pits, ſo as they may not riſe out of the ſame.

11 For no backbiter ſhall on earth
be ſet in ſtable plight :
And evil to deſtruction ſtill
ſhall haunt the cruel wight.

12 I know the Lord, th'afflicted will revenge, and judge the poor :

13 The juſt ſhall praiſe thy name, juſt ſhall
dwell with thee evermore.

PSALM Cxii. N.

O Lord upon thee do I call,
Lord haſte thee unto me :
And hearken Lord unto my voice,
when I do cry to thee.

2 As incenſe let my prayers be directed in thine eyes :
And the up-ſifting of my hands
as evening ſacrifice.

3 My Lord, for guiding of my mouth,
ſet thou a watch before :
And alſo of my moving lips,
O Lord keep thou the door.

4 That I ſhould wicked works commit,
incline thou not my heart :
With ill men of their delicates,
Lord let me eat no part.

5 But let the righteous ſmite me Lord,
for that is good for me :
Let him reprove me, and the ſame
a precious oyl ſhall be.
Such ſmiting ſhall not break my head,
the time ſhall ſhortly fall,
When I ſhall in their miſery
make prayer for them all.

5 Then when in stony places down
their judges shall be cast:
Then shall they hear my words, for then
they have a pleasant taste.
7 Our bones about the graves' mouth,
so scattered are they found:
As be that fieweth wood, or he
that diggeth up the ground.
8 Bng O my Lord my God, mine eyes
do look up unto thee:
In thee is all my trust, let not my soul forsaken be.
9 Which they have laid to catch me in,
Lord keep me from the snare:
And from the subtil gins of them
that wicked workers are.
10 The wicked into their own net
together let them fall:
While I do by thy help escape
the danger of them all.

PSALM Cxlii. N.

BEfore the Lord God with my voice
I did send out my cry:
And with my strained voice unto
the Lord God prayed I.
3 My meditation in his fight
to powre I did not spare:
And in the presence of the Lord
my trouble did declare.

4 Although perplexed was my spirit,
my path was known to thee:
In way where I did walk, a snare
they slyly laid for me.
4 I look'd & view'd on my right hand,
but none there would me know:
Ah refuge failed me, and for
my soul none cared tho.

5 Then cry'd I Lord to thee, and said,
my hope thou onely art:
Thou in the hand of living art
my porcion and my part.
6 Heark to my cry, for I am brought full low: deliver me
From them that do me persecute,
for me too strong they be.

7 That I may praise thy Name, my soul
from prison, Lord, bring out:
When thou art good to me, the just shall press me round about.

PSALM Cxliiii. N.

Lord hear my prayer, heark the plaint
that I do make to thee:
Lord, in thy native truth and in thy justice answer me.

3 In judgement with thy servant Lord,
O enter not at all:
For justifi'd be in thy fight,
not one that liveth shall.

4 The enemy hath pursu'd my soul,
my life to ground hath thrown:
And laid me in the dark, like them
that dead are long ago.

4 Within me in perplexity
was mine accumbred spirit:
And in me was my troubled heart
amazed and affright.

5 Yet I record time past, in all thy works I meditate:
Yea in thy works I meditate,
that thy hands have create.

6 To thee, O Lord, my God, lo I do stretch my craving hands:
My soul desireth after thee,
as do the thirsty lands.

7 Hear me with speed, my spirit doth fall:
hide not thy face me fro:
Else shall I be like them that down into the pit do go.

8 Let me thy loving kindness in the morning hear and know,
For in thee is my trust, shew me
the way where I shall go.

9 For I lift up my soul to thee,
O Lord deliver me
From all mine enemies, for I have hidden me with thee.
10 Teach me to do thy will, for thou art my God, I say:
Let thy good Spirit into the land
of mercy me convey.

11 For thy names sake, with quickening alive do thou me make: (grace)
And out of trouble bring my soul,
even for thy justice sake.

12 And for thy mercy slay my foes,
O Lord, destroy them all:
That do oppress my soul: for I thy servant am and shall.

PSALM Cxliv. N.

BLeft be O Lord my strength, that doth instruct my hands to fight:
The Lord that doth my fingers frame
to barrie by his might.

2 He is my goodness, fort and tower,
deliverer and shield:
In him I trust, my people he
subdues to me to yeeld.

3 O Lord, what thing is man, that thou
thou holdest so in prize:
Or son of man, that upon him
thou thinkest in such wise?

4 Man is but like to vanity,
so pass his dayes to end,
5 As fleeing shade, bow down O Lord
the heavens and descend.

(finck)

6 The mountains rouch, and they shall cast forth thy lightning flame,
And scatter them: thine arrows shoot,
consume them with the same.

7 Send down thine hand even from above
O Lord deliver me:
Take me from wars great, from hand
of strangers make me free.

8 Whose subtil mouth shall say

and fondness doth intreat :
 And their right hand is a right hand
 or saltnood and deceit.
 9 A new song will I sing, O God,
 and singing will I be :
 On Viol, and on lute, and on ren-fri-ged unto thee.
 10 Even he it is that only gives deliverance to Kings :
 Unto his servant David help
 from hurtful sword he brings.
 11 From strangers hand me save & shield,
 whose mouth talks vanitie :
 And their right hand is a right hand
 of guile and subtiltie.
 12 That our sons may be as the plants,
 whom growing youth doth rear :
 Our daughters as carv'd corner stones,
 like to a palace fair.
 13 Our garners full, and plentie may with supdrie sorts be found.
 Our sheep bring thousands, in our streets
 ten thousands may abound.
 14 Our oxen be to labour strong,
 that none do us invade :
 There be no goings out, nor cries
 within our streets be made.
 15 The people blessed are that with such blessings are so stor'd :
 Yea, blessed all the people are,
 whose God is God the Lord.

P S A L M Cxlv. N.

THee wil I laud my God, and King,
 and bless thy Name for aye :
 1 For ever wil I praise thy Name,
 and bless thee day by day.
 2 Great is the Lord, most worthe praise,
 his greatness none can reach :
 3 From race to race they shal thy works
 praise, and thy power preach.
 4 I of thy glorious Majestie
 the beautie wil record :
 And meditate upon thy works
 most wonderful O Lord.
 5 And thou, that of thy power and of thy fearful acts declare :
 And I so publish all abroad,
 thy greatness will not spare.
 6 And they into the shention shal break of thy goodness great :
 And I aloud thy righteousness
 singing shal repeat.
 7 The Lord our God is gracious,
 and merciful also :
 Of great abounding mercie, and
 so anger he is slow.
 8 Yea good to all, and all his works
 his mercie doth exceed :
 9 As all thy works do praise thee, Lord,
 and do thy honour spread.
 10 Thy saints do bless thee, and they do thy kingdom's glorie now :
 11 And blaze thy power to cause the sons
 of men thy power to know.

The second part.

13 And of his mighty kingdom eke
 to spread the glorious praise :
 Thy kingdom Lord a kingdom is that doth endure alwaies :
 And thy dominion through each age
 endures without decay.
 14 The Lord upholdeth them that fall
 their sliding he doth stay.
 15 The eyes of all do wait on thee,
 thou dost them all relieve :
 And thou to each sufficing food
 in season due dost give.
 16 Thou openest thy plentiful hand,
 and bountepously dost fill
 All things whatsoever do live,
 with gifts of thy good will.
 17 The Lord is just in all his waies,
 his works are holie all :
 18 Near all he is that call on him,
 in truth that on him call.
 19 He the desires which they require,
 that fear him will fulfil :
 And he will hear them when they cry,
 and save them all he will.
 20 The Lord preserves all those to him
 that bear a loving heart :
 But he them all that wicked are,
 will utterly subvert.
 21 My thankful mouth shal gladdlie speak
 the praises of the Lord :
 All flesh to praise his holy Name,
 for ever shal accord.

P S A L M Cxlv. J. H.

My soul praise thou the Lord alwaies,
 my God I will confesse :
 2 While breath & life prolong my daies,
 my tongue no time shal cease.
 3 Trust not in worldlie Princes then,
 though they abound in wealth :
 Nor in the sons of mortal men,
 in whom there is no health.
 4 For why? their breath doth soon depart,
 to earth anon they fall :
 And then the counsels of their heart
 decay and perish all.
 5 O happy is that man I say,
 whom Jacobs God doth aid :
 And he whose hope doth not decay,
 but on the Lord is staid.
 6 Which made the earth and waters deep
 the heavens high withal :
 Which doth his word and promise keep
 in truth and ever shal.
 7 With right alwaies doth he proceed,
 for such as suffer wrong :
 The poor and hungry he doth feed,
 and loose the fethers strong.
 8 The Lord doth send the blind their lanne to limbe restore : (I give)
 The Lord (I say) doth loose, the right and just man evermore.

Psalm Cxlvii Cxlviii

9 He doth defend the fatherless,
and stranger (ad in heart)
And quit the widow from distress,
and ill mens waies subvert.

10 Thy Lord and God eternally
O Sion still shall reign:
In time of all posterity,
for ever to remain.

PSALM Cxlvii. N.

PRAISE ye the Lord, for it is good
unto our God to sing:
For it is pleasant, and to praise,
it is a comely thing.

2 The Lord his own Jerusalem,
he buildeth up alone:
And the dispersit of Israel
doth gather into one.

3 He heals the broken in their heart,
their sores up doth he bind:

4 He counts the number of the stars,
and names them in their kind.

5 Great is the Lord, great is his power,
his wisdom infinite:

6 The Lord relieves the meek, and throws
to ground the wicked wight.

7 Sing unto God the Lord with praise,
unto the Lord rejoyce:

And to our God upon the Harp,
advance your singing voice.

8 He covers heaven with clouds, and for the earth prepareth rain:
And on the mountains he doth make
the grafs to grow again.

9 He gives to beasts their food, and to young Ravens when they cry:

10 His pleasure not in strength of horse,
nor in mans legs doth lie.

11 But in all those that fear the Lord,
the Lord hath his delight:
And such as do attend upon his mercies shining light.

The second part.

12 O praise the Lord Jerusalem,
thy God O Sion praise:

13 For he the bars hath forged strong,
wherewith thy gates he stales.

14 Thy children he hath blest in thee,
and in thy borders he doth settle peace, and with the flour
of wheat he filleth thee.

15 And his commandment upon
the earth he sendeth out:
And eke his word with speedy course
doth swiftnesse run about.

16 He giveth snow like wool, hoar-frost
like ashes he doth spread:

17 Like morsels casts his ice, thereof
the cold who can abide?

18 He sendeth north his mighty word,
and melteth them again:
His winds he makes to blow, and then
the waters flow again.

19 The doctrine of his holy word
to Jacob he doth show:
His statutes and his judgements he gives Israel to know.

20 With every Nation hath he not so dealt, nor have they known His secret judgements, ye therefore praise ye the Lord alone.

PSALM Cxlviii. J. H.

GIVE laud unto the Lord,
From Heaven that is so high:
Praise him in deed and words,
Above the starrie skies.

2 And also ye
His Angels all Armies royal,

Praise him with glee.

3 Praise him both Moon and Sun,
Which are so clear and bright:
The fame of you be done,
Ye glittering stars of light.

4 And eke no less,
Ye Heavens fair,

5 And clouds of th' air,
His laud express.

6 For at his word they were
All formed as we see:

At his voice did appear
All things in their degree.

Which he set fast,
To them he made
A law and trade
for aye to last.

7 Extol and praise Gods Name,
On earth ye Dragons tell:

All deeps do ye the same,
For it becomes you well.

8 Him magnifie,
Fire, hail, ice, snow,
And storms that blow
At his decree.

9 The hills and mountains all
And trees that fruitful are:

The Cedars great and tall,
His worthy praise declare.

10 Beasts and carrel,
Yea birds flying,
And worms creeping,
that on earth dwell.

11 All Kings both more and less,
With all their pompous train:

Princes and all Judges
That in the world remain,
Exalt his Name.

12 Young men and maids,
Old men and babes,
Do ye the same.

13 For his Name shall we praise
To be most excellent,
Whose praise is far above
The earth and firmament.

14 For sure he shall Exalt with bliss.

The horns of Ibs,
 And help them all.
 15 His saints all shall forth tell
 His praise and worthiness:
 The children of Israel,
 Each one both more and less.
 16 And also they
 That with good will
 His words fulfill,
 And him obey.

PSALM Cxlix. N.

Sing ye unto the Lord our God:
 a new rejoicing song:
 And let the praise of him be heard
 his holy Saints among.
 1 Let Israel joyce in him,
 that made him of nothing:
 And let the sted of Sion eke
 be joyful in their King.
 2 Let them sound praise with voice of unto his holy Name: (flute,
 And with the timbrel and the harp
 sing praises of the same.
 3 For why? the Lord his pleasure all hath in his people set:
 And by deliverance he will raise
 the meek to glory great.
 4 With glory and with honour now
 let all his Saints joyce:
 And now aloud upon their beds
 advance their singing voice.
 5 And in their mouths let be the acts

of God the mighty Lord:
 And in their hands eke let them beare
 a double edged sword.

7 To plague the heathen and correct
 the people with their hands:
 8 To bind their stately Kings in chains,
 their Lords in iron bands.
 9 To execute on them the doom
 that written is before:
 This honour all his Saints shall have;
 praise ye the Lord therefore.

PSALM Cl. N.

Yield unto God the mighty Lord
 praise in his Sanctuary:
 And praise him in the firmament
 that shews his power on hie.
 2 Advance his Name, and praise him in his mighty acts alwayes:
 According to his excellency
 of greatness give him praise.
 3 His praises with the princely noise
 of sounding Trumpets blow:
 Praise him upon the Viol, and upon the Harp also 4 Praise him with Timbrel and with Flute
 Organs and Virginals:
 5 With sounding Cymbals praise ye him,
 praise him with loud Cymbals.
 6 What ever hath the benefit of breathing, praise the Lord:
 To praise the name of God the Lord
 agree with one accord.

The end of the Psalms of DAVID in Meeter.

VENI CREATOR.

Come Holy Ghost eternal God
 proceeding from above:
 Both from the Father and the Son,
 the God of peace and love.
 Visit our minds, and into us
 thy heavenly grace inspire:
 That in all truth and godliness
 we may have true desire.

Thou art the very Comforter
 in all wo and distress:
 The heavenly gift of God most high,
 which no tongue can express.
 The fountain and the living spring
 of joy celestiall.
 The fire so bright, the love so clear,
 and unctious spiritual.

Thou in thy gifts art manifold,
 whereby Christo Church doth stand,
 its faithful hearts writing thy law,
 the finger of Gods hand.
 According to thy promise made,
 send forth thy grace:
 That through thy help the praise of God
 may stand in every place.

O Holy Ghost into our win-
 send down thy heavenly light:
 Kindle our hearts with fervent love,
 to serve God day and night.
 Strengthen and stablish all our weakness;
 so feeble and so frail:
 That neither flesh, the world nor devil
 against us do prevail.

Put back our enemies far from us,
 and grant us to obtain Peace in our hearts with God and man,
 without grudge or disdain.
 And grant (O Lord) that thou being
 our leader and our guide:
 We may eschew the snares of sin,
 and from thee never slide.

To us such plenty of thy grace
 good Lord grant, we thee pray:
 That thou maist be our Comforter,
 at the last dreadful day
 Of all strife and dissension,
 O Lord, dissolve the bands:
 And make the know of peace and love
 throughout all Christian lands.

Grant

The humble sure of a sinner

Save us, O Lord, through thee
The Father most of might:
That of his dear beloved Son
we may attain the sight.
And that with perfect faith also
we may acknowledge thee
The Spirit of them both alway,
one God in persons three.
Laud and praise be to the Father,
and to the Son equal:
And to the Holy Spirit also,
one God eternal.
And pray we that the only Son
vouchsafe his Spirit to send
To all that do profess his Name,
unto the Worlds last end.

The humble sure of a sinner. M.

O Lord on whom I do depend,
behold my careful heart:
And when thy will and pleasure is,
release me of my smart.
Thou see'st my sorrows what they are,
my grief is known to thee:
And there is none that can remove,
or take the same from me.
But onely thou whose aid I crave
whose mercy still is prest,
To ease all those that come to thee,
for succour and for rest.
And sith thou see'st my restless eyes,
my tears and grievous groans:
Attend unto my suit O Lord,
mark well my plaint and moans.
For sin hath so enclosed me,
and compass me about:
That I am now remediless,
if mercy help not out.
For mortal man cannot release,
or mitigate this pain:
But even thy Christ, my Lord and God,
who for my sins was slain.

Whose bloody wounds are yet to see,
though not with mortal eye,
Yet do thy Saints behold them all,
and so I must shall I.
Though sin doth hinder me a while,
when thou shalt see it good,
I shall enjoy the sight of him,
and see his wounds and blood.
And as thine Angels and thy Saints
do now behold the same,
So trust I to possess that place,
with them to praise thy Name.
But whilst I live here in this vale,
where sinners do frequent:
Alas! me ever with thy grace,
my sins still to lament.
Lest that I tread the sinners trace,
and give them my consent,
To dwell with them in wickedness,
whereof nature is bent.
Only thy grace must be my stay,
lest that I fall down flat:

Venite exultemus

And being down, then of my fall
cannot recover thee.
Wherefore this is yet once more
my suit and my request,
To grant me pardon for my sin,
that I in thee may rest.
Then shall my heart and tongue also
be instruments of praise:
And in thy Church and house of Saints
sing Psalms to thee alwayes.
Venite exultemus.

O Come and let us now rejoyce,
And sing unto the Lord:
And to our onely Saviour,
Also with one accord.
O let us come before his face,
With inward reverence,
Confessing all our former sins,
And that with diligence.

To thank him for his benefices,
Alwayes distributing:
Wherefore to him right joyfully
In Psalms now let us sing.
And that because that God alone
Is Lord magnificent,
And eke above all other gods,
A King omnipotent.

His people doth not he forsake
At any time or tide:
And in his hands are all the coasts
Of all the world so wide.
And with his loving countenance
He looketh every where:
And doth behold the tops of all
The mountains far and near.

The sea and all that is therein,
Are his, for he them made:
And eke his hand hath fashioned
The earth which doth not fade.
O come therefore and worship him,
And down before him fall:
And let us kneel before the Lord,
The which hath made us all.

He is our God, our Lord and King,
And we his people are:
His flock, and sheep of his pasture,
Of whom he taketh care.
This day if ye will hear his voice,
Then hearken not your heart:
As in the bitter murmuring,
When ye were in desert.

Which thing was of their negligence
Committed in the time
Of trouble in the wilderness,
A great and grievous crime,
Whereas your fathers tempted me,
And tri'd me every way:
They proved me, and saw my works,
What I could do or say.

These forty years I have been grieved
With this generation:
And because I said they were

To Deum.

Benedictus.

In their imagination, (bread
Wherewith their hearts were sore cum-
Long time and many daies :
Wherfore I said assuredly,
They have not known my waies.

To whom I in mine anger swore,
That they should not be blest,
Nor see my joy celestial,
Nor enter in my rest.

Gloria Patri.

All laud and praise be to the Lord,
Of whome might art most :
To God the Father and the Son,
and to the Holy Ghost.
As it in the beginning was,
for ever heretofore :
And is now at this present time,
and shall be evermore.

The Song of Saint Ambrose called Te Deum.

WE praise thee God, we knowledge
the only Lord to be : (thee
And as eternal Father all
the earth doth worship thee.
To thee all Angels cry, the heavens,
and all the powers therein :
To thee Cherub and Seraphim,
to cry they do not lin.

O holy, holy, holy Lord,
of Sabbath Lord the God : Through heaven and earth thy praise is
and glory all abroad. (spread,

Th' Apostles glorious company
yeeld praises unto thee :
The Prophets goodly fellowship
praise thee continually.

The noble and victorious host of Martyrs sound thy praise :
The holy Church throughout the world,
doth knowledge thee alwaies.
Father of endless Majesty
they do acknowledge thee,
Thy Christ rhine honourable, true-
and onely Son to be.

The Holy Ghost the Comforter,
of glorie thou art King,
O Christ, and of the Father art
the Son everlasting.
When sinfull mans decay in hand
thou tookest to restore :
To be inclos'd in Virgins womb,
thou diddest not abhor.

When thou hadst overcome of death
the sharp and cruel might :
Thou heavens kingdom didst set ope
to each believing wight.
In glory of the Father thou
dost sit on Gods right hand :
We trust that thou shalt come our Judge
and haue us to understand.

When thou shalt come, O Lord, thou hast bought with thy precious blood :

And in eternal glory set them with thy Saints so good :
O Lord do thou thy people save,
blest thine inheritance :
Lord govern them, and Lord do thou
for ever them advance.

We magnifie thee day by day,
and world without an end
Adore thy holy Name : O Lord
vouchsafe us to defend
From sin this day : have mercy Lord,
have mercy on us all :
And on us as we trust in thee,
Lord let thy mercy fall.
O Lord I have reposed all
my confidence in thee :
But to confounding shame therefore,
Lord let me never be.

The Song of Zacharias called Benedictus.

THe only Lord of Israel
be praised evermore :
For through his visitation,
And mercy kept in store,
His people now he hath redeem'd
That long have been in thrall :
And spread abroad his saving health
Upon his servants all.

In Davids house his servant true,
According to his mind :
And also his anointed King,
As we in Scripture find.
As by his holy Prophets all
oft times he did declare :
The which were since the world began,
His waies for to prepare.

That we might be delivered
From those that make debate:
Our enemies, and from the hands
Of all that do us hate.

The mercy which he promised
Our Fathers to fulfil :
And think upon his covenant made,
According to his will.

And also to perform the oath
which he before had sworn,
To Abraham our Father dear,
For us that were forlorn.

That he would give himself for us,
And us from bondage bring
Out of the hands of all our foes,
To serve our heavenly King.

And that without all manner fear,
And etc in righteousness :
And also for to lead our lives
In steadfast holiness :
And thou (O Child) which now art borne,
And of the Lord elect :
Shalt be the Prophet of the Highest,
His waies for to direct.

For thou shalt go before his face

Magnificat. Nunc dimittis.

For to prepare his waies:
And alfo for to reach his will,
And plesure all thy daies.
To give them knowledg how that their Salvation is near:
And that remission of their fins
Is through his mercy mere.

Whereby the day spring from on high
Is come us for to visit:
And those for to illumine,
Which do in darkness sit.
To lighten those that shadowed be
With death and eke opprest:
And alfo for to guide our feet
The way to peace and rest.

The Song of the blessed Mary, called Magnificat.

MY soul doth magnifie the Lord,
My spirit eke evermore
Rejoyceth in the Lord my God,
Which is my Saviour.

And why? because he did regard,
And gave respect unto
So base estate of his hand-maid,
And let the mighty go.

For now behold all nations,
And generations all,
From this time forth for evermore
Shall me right blessed call:
Because he hath me magnified,
Which is the Lord of might:
Whose name be ever sanctified,
And praised day and night.

For with his mercy and his grace
All men he doth ename:
Throughout all generations,
To such as fear his Name.

He shewed strength with his great arm,
And made the proud to start,
With all imaginations
That they have in their heart.

He hath put down the mighty ones
From their supernal seat:
And did exalt the meek in heart,
As he hath thought it meet.

The hungry he replenished
With all things that were good:
And through his power he made the rich
Of times to want their food.

And calling to remembrance
His mercy every deal:
Hath holpen up assidually
His servant Israel.

According to his promise made
To Abraham before:
And to his seed successively,
To stand for evermore.

The Song of Simeon, called Nunc dimittis.

O Lord because my heart desire
Hath waited long to see:

The Lament of a Sinner

My only Lord and Saviour,
Thy Son before I die.

The joy and health of all mankind,
Desired long before:
Which now is come into the world,
Of mercy bringing stove.

Thou sufferest thy servants now
In peace for to depart,
According to thy holy Word,
Which lighteneth my heart.

Because mine eyes which thou hast made
To give my body light,
Have now beheld thy living health,
Which is the Lord of might,

Whom thou mercifully hast set (Of thine abundant grace)
In open sight and visible
Before all peoples face,

The Gentiles to illumine,
And Satan over-quel:
And eke to be the glorie of Thy people Israel.

The Lamentation of a sinner

O Lord turn not away thy face
From him that lies prostrate:
Lamenting sore his sinful life,
Before thy mercy gate:

Which gate thou openest wide to those
That do lament their sin:
Shut not that gate against me Lord,
But let me enter in.

And cal me not to mine account
How I have lived here:
For then I know right well O Lord,
How vile I shall appear.

I need not to confess my life,
I am sure thou canst tell,
What I have been and what I am,
I know thou know'st it well.

O Lord thou know'st what things be past
And eke the things that be:
Thou know'st also what is to come,
Nothing is hid from thee.

Before the heavens & earth were made
Thou know'st what things were then:
As all things else that have been since,
Among the sons of men.

And can the things that I have done,
Be hidden from thee then?
Nay nay, thou know'st them all O Lord,
Where they were done and when,
Wherefore with tears I come to thee,
To beg and to intreat:
Even as the child that hath done ill,
And feareth to be beat.

So come I to thy mercy gate,
Where mercy doth abound:
Requiring mercy for my sin,
To heal my deadly wound.

O Lord I need not to repeat,
What I do beg and crave:
Thou know'st (O Lord) before I have

The Lords Prayer.

The thing that I would have.

Mercy good Lord, mercy I ask,
This is the royal summe,
For mercy Lord is all my suit,
Lord let thy mercy come.

The Lords Prayer, or Pater Noster.

Our Father which in Heaven art,
Lord hallowed be thy Name,
Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, even as the same in Heaven is. Give us O Lord, our daily bread this day.
As we forgive our debtors, so forgive our debts we pray.

Into temptation lead us not,
from evil make us free :
For kingdom, power and glory thine
both now and ever be.

The Lords Prayer, D. ver.

Our Father which in heaven art,
And mak'st us al one brother-hood,
To call upon thee with one heart,
Our heavenly Father and our God.
Grant we pray nor with lips alone,
But with our hearts deep sigh & grone,

Thy blessed Name be sanctified,
Thy holy Word, might us inflame,
In holy life for to abide,
To magnifie thy holy Name,
From all errors defend and keep
The little flock of thy poore shep.

Thy kingdom come even at this hour
And henceforth everlastingly :
Thine Holy Ghost into us poure,
With all his gifts most plentifully.
From Satans rage and filthy band,
Defend us with thy mighty hand.

Thy will be done with diligence,
Like as in heaven, in earth also :
In trouble grant us patience,
Thee to obey in wealth and wo.
Let not flesh, blood, or any ill
Prevail against thy holy will.

Give us this day, our daily bread,
And all other good gifts of thine :
Keep us from war and from bloud-shed,
Also from sickness, dearth and pine.
That we may live in quietness,
Without all greedy carefulness.

Forgive us our offences all,
Relieve our careful conscience :
As we forgive both great and small,
Which unro us have done offence.
Prepare us Lord for to serve thee
In perfect love and unity.

O Lord into temptation,
Lead us not when the fend doth rage,
Nor withstand his temptation,
Nor power and strength to every age,
To make strong thy feeble body,
And with the Holy Ghost

The X Commandments.

O Lord from evil deliver us,
The deins and times are dangerous
From everlasting death save us,
And in our last need comfort us.
A blessed end ro us bestoweth,
Into thy hands our souls receive.

For thou, O Lord, art King of kings,
And thou hast power over all :
Thy glory shineth in all things,
In the wide world universal.
Amen, let it be done, O Lord,
That we have praid with one accord.

The ten Commandments of God.
Exod. 20. W. W.

Heark Israel, and what I say
give heed ro understand :
I am the Lord thy God that brought thee out of Egypt land, Even from the house wherein thou didst
in thraldom live a slave :
None other Gods at all before,
my presence shalt thou have.
No manner graven image shalt thou make at all ro thee :
Nor any figure like by thee
shall counterfeited be,
Of any thing in Heaven above
nor in the earth below :
Nor in the waters beneath the earth,
ro them thou shalt not bow.
Nor shalt them serve, the Lord thy
a jealous God am I : (God)
That punish parents faules, unro
the third and fourth degree,
Upon their children that me hate,
and mercy do display
To thousands of such as me love,
and my precepts obey.

The Name thou of the Lord thy God
in vain shalt never use :
For him that takes his Name in vain
the Lord will not excuse.
Remember thar thou holy keep
the sacred sabbath day :
Sevdayes thou labour shalt, and do thy needfull works alway.

The seventh day the Lord thy God
hath set to rest upon :
No work then shalt thou do in it,
ne thou nor yet thy son,
Thy daughter, servant, nor thy maid,
thine ox, nor yet thine asse,
Nor stranger that within thy gates
hath his abiding place.

For in six dayes, God heaven and earth
and all therein did make :
And after those, his rest he did
upon the seventh day take.
Wherefore he blest the day that he
for resting did ordain :
And sacred ro himself alone
appointed so remain.

The X Commandments

Field honour to thy parents, that prolong'd thy dayes may be Upon the land, the which the Lord
thy God hath given thee.
Thou shalt not murder. Thou shalt not commit adultery.
Thou shalt not steal. Nor witness false against thy neighbour be.
Thou shalt not cover house that to thy neighbour doth belong :
Ne cover shalt in having of his wife to do him wrong.
Nor his man-servant nor his maid,
nor ox nor asse of his :
Nor any other thing that to thy neighbour proper is.

Another of the same by W. W.

Attend my people and give ear,
Of ferly things I will thee tell :
See that my words in mind thou bear,
And to my precepts listen well.

1 I am thy sovereign Lord and God,
Which have thee brought fro careful thrall
And thee reclaim'd from Pharaohs rod.
Make thee no gods on them to call.

2 Nor fashioned form of any thing
In heaven or earth to worship it :
For I thy God by revenging
With grievous plagues this sin wil finit.

3 Take not in vain his holy name,
Abuse is not after thy will,
For so thou might'st for purchase blame
And in his wrath he would thee spill.

4 The Lord from work the seventh day
And brought all things to perfect end :
So thou and thine that day take rest,
That to Gods hefts ye may attend.

5 Unto thy parents honour give,
As Gods commandments do intend :
That thou long dayes & good maist live
In earth, where God a place doth lend.

6 Beware of murder and cruel hate.

7 All filthy fornication fear.

8 See thou steal nor in any rate.

9 False witness against no man bear.

10 Thy neighbours house with not to have
His wife, or ought that he calls mine :
His field, his ox, his asse, his slave,
Or any thing which is not thine.

A Prayer.

The spirit of grace grant us O Lord
To keep these laws our hearts restore,
And cause us all with one accord,
To magnifie thy Name therefore.

For of our selves no strength we have To keep these laws after thy will :
Thy might therefore O Christ we crave,
That we in thee may them fulfil.

Lord for thy Names sake grant us this

The Complaint of a sinner

Thou art our strength O sinner's Christ,
Of thee to speed how should we miss,
In whom our treasure doth consist :

To thee for evermore be praise
With the Father in each respect,
And with the holy Spirit alway,
The comforter of thine elect.

The Complaint of a sinner.

Where righteousness doth say,
Lord for my sinful parts,
In wrath thou shouldst me pay Vengeance for my desert.
I can it not deny,
But needs I must confess,
How that continually
Thy laws I do transgress.

But if it be thy will
With sinners to contend :
Then all thy flock shall spill,
And be lost without end.
For who lives here so right,
That rightly he can say,
He sins not in thy sight,
Full oft and every day?

The Scripture plain tells me,
The righteous man offendeth
Seven times a day 'gainst thee
Whereon thy wrath dependeth
So that the righteous man
Doth walk in no such path,
But he falls now and then
In danger of thy wrath.

Then sith the case so standeth,
That even the man right wife
Falls oft in sinful hands,
Whereby thy wrath may rise,
Lord, I that am unjust,
And righteousness none have Whereto then shall I trust,
My sinful soul to save?

But truly to that point,
Whereto I cleave and shall :
Which is thy mercy oft,
Lord let thy mercy fall,
And mitigate thy mood,
Or else we perish all :
The price of this thy blood,
Whereto mercy I call.

The Scripture doth declare
No drop of blood in thee :
But that thou didst not spare
To shed each drop for me.
Now let those drops most sweet,
So moist my heart so drie,
That I with sin replenish,
May live, and sin may die.

That being mortified,
This sin of mine in me,
I may be sanctified,
By grace of thine is there
So that I never fall
Into such mortal sin,
That my soul be in peril.

Songs

Relieve my death therein
 But vouchsafe me to keep
 From those infernal foes:
 And from this lake so deep,
 Where no mercy grows,
 And I shall sing the songs,
 Confirmed with the just:
 That unto thee belongs,
 Which art my only trust.

A Song to be sung before Morning
 Prayer. T. B.

Praise ye the Lord ye Gentiles all,
 which hath brought you into his light:
 O praise him all people mortal,
 as is most worthy and right.

For he is full determined
 on us to pouse out his mercy:
 And the Lords truth be ye assur'd,
 abideth perpetually.

Glory be to God the Father,
 and unto Jesus Christ his Son:
 With the Holy Ghost in like manner,
 now and at every season.

A Song to be sung before
 Evening prayer.

Behold now give heed such as be the Lords Servants faithful and true,
 Come praise the Lord every degree,
 with such songs as to him are due.

O yetther stand in the Lords house,
 even in our own Gods mansion:
 Praise ye the Lord so bounteous,
 which worketh our salvation.

Lift up your hands in his holy place,
 yea and that in the time of night:
 Praise ye the Lord which gives all grace,
 for he is a Lord of great might.

Then shall the Lord our of Zion,
 which made heaven and earth by his Give to you and your nation, power,
 his blessing mercy, and favour.
 Glory be to the Father, &c.

The twelve Articles of the Christian Faith.

All my belief and confidence
 is in the Lord of might:
 The Father which all things hath made
 the day and eke the night.
 The heavens and the firmaments,
 and also many a star,
 The earth and all that is therein,
 which with manns reason far.

And in like manner I believe
 in Christ who Lord his son:

Who for our sakes was crucified,
 and buried in the earth:

Who shall come again to judge
 the living and the dead:

The Creed

And of his mother Mary born,
 yet like a Virgin pure.

Because mankind to Satan was
 for sin in bond and thrall:
 He came and offer'd up himself
 to death to save in all.
 And suffering most grievous pain,
 then Pater being judge:
 Was crucified on the Cross,
 and thereat did not grudge.

And so he died in the flesh,
 but quickened in the spirit:
 His body then was buried,
 as is our life and rite.
 His soul did a fter this descend
 into the lower parts:
 A dread unto the wicked spirits,
 but joy to faithful hearts.

And in the third day of his death
 he rose to life again:
 To th' end he might be glorifi'd,
 out of all grief and pain.
 Ascending to the heavens high,
 to sit in glory still:
 On Gods right hand his Father dwells,
 according to his will.

Until the day of judgement come,
 when he shall come again
 With Angels power (yet of that day
 we all be uncertain)
 To judge all people righteously,
 whom he hath dearly bought:
 The living and the dead also;
 which he hath made of nought.

And in the holy Spirit of God,
 (my faith to satisfie)
 The third person in Trinity,
 believe I steadfastly.

The holy and Catholick Church,
 that Gods Word doth mainmain:
 And holy Scripture doth allow,
 which Satan doth disdain.

And also I do trust to have
 by Jesus Christ his death:
 Release and pardon of my sins,
 and that onely by faith.
 What time all flesh shall rise again,
 before the Lord of might:
 And see him with their bodily eyes,
 which now do give them light.

And then shall Christ our Saviour
 the sheep and goats divide:
 And give life everlastingly,
 to those whom he hath tri'd.
 Within his Realm celestial,
 in glory for to rest:
 With all his holy companie
 of Saints and Angels blest.

Which serve the Lord omnipotent
 obediently each hour:
 To whom be all dominion,
 and praise for evermore.

De Pacem.

A Prayer to the holy Ghost, to be said
before the Session.

Come holy Spirit the God of might comforter of us all :

Teach us to know thy Word aright,
that we may never fall.

O Holy Ghost visit our coast,

defend us with thy shield :

Against all sin and wickedness,
Lord help us win the field.

Lord keep our King and his Council,
and give them will and might

To persevere in thy Gospel,
which can put sin to flight.

O Lord that giv'st thy holy Word,
send Preachers plenteously :

That in the same we may accord,
and there alive abide.

O holy Spirit direct aright
the Preachers of thy Word :

That thou by them maist cut down sin,
as it were with a sword.

Depart not from thy Pastors pure,
but aid them in their need.

Which break to us the bread of life,
whereon our souls do feed.

O blessed Spirit of truth keep us
in peace and unity :

Keep us from sects and errors all,
and from all Papistry.

Convert all those that are our foes,
and bring them to thy light,

That they and we may well agree,
and praise thee day and night.

O Lord increase our faith in us,
and love so to abound :

That man and wife be void of strife,
and neighbours about us round.

In our time give thy peace O Lord,
to nations far and nigh :

And teach them all thy holy Word,
that we may sing to thee.

All glory to the Trinity,
that is of mighties most :

The living Father and the Son,
and eke the Holy Ghost.

As it hath been in all the time
that hath been heretofore :

As it is now, and so shall be henceforth for evermore,

De Pacem, Domine.

Give peace in these our daies O Lord,
Great dangers are now at hand :

Thine enemies with one accord,
Christ's name in every land,

Seek to deface,

Root out and rase

Thy true right worship in deed :

Be thou the stay,

Lord we thee pray,

Thou helpe alone in all need.

Give us that peace that we do lack

The Lamentation

Through misbelief and ill life :

Thy words to offer them dost not lack
Which we unkindly make slaves,

With fire and sword,

This healthful word,

Some persecute and oppress :

Some with the mouth,

Confess the truth

Without sincere godliness,

Give peace, and us thy Spirit down send
With grief and repentance true,

To pierce our hearts, our lives to
And by faith in Christ renew.

That fear and dread

War and blood-shed,

Through thy sweet mercy and grace,

May from us slide,

The truth may reach,

And shine in every place.

The Lamentation.

O Lord in thee is all my trust,
give ear unto my woful cry,

Refuse me not that am unright,

But bowing down thy heavenly eye,

Behold how I do still lament,

my sins wherein I do offend :

O Lord for them shall I be thank :

fish thee to please I do intend.

No, no, not so thy will is bent,

to deal with sinners in thine ire :

But when in heart they shall repent,

thou grantst with speed their suit desire.

To thee therefore still shall I cry,

to wash away my sinful crime :

Thy blood O Lord is not yet dried,

but that it may help me in time.

Haste thee, O Lord, haste thee I say,

to poure on me thy gifts of grace :

That when this life shall sit away,

in heaven with thee I may have place.

Where thou dost reign eternally,

with God which once did down send

Where Angels sing continually,

to thee be praise world without end.

R. W.

Preserve us Lord by thy dear word,
From Turk and Pope defend us Lord

Which both would thrust out of his throne

Our Lord Jesus Christ thy dear Son.

Lord Jesus Christ shew forth thy might

That thou art Lord of lords by right

Thy poor afflicted flock defend,

That we may praise thee without end.

God Holy Ghost our Comforter

Be our patron, help, and succour

Give us one mind and perfect peace,

All gifts of grace in us increase.

Thou living God in person dwell

Thy name be praised in unity

In all our need to us succour

That we may praise thee without end.

A FORME OF PRAYER TO be used in private houses every Morning and Evening.

anted Morning Prayer. enable

A Almighty God, and most merciful Father, we do not present our selves here before thy Majestie, trusting in our own merits or worthiness, but in thy manifold mercies, which hast promised to hear our prayers, and grant our requests which we shal make to thee in the name of thy beloved Son Jesus Christ our Lord: who hath also commanded us to assemble our selves together in his name, with full assurance that he will not onely be amongst us, but also be our Mediator and Advocate towards thy Majesty, that we may obtain all things which shall seem expedient to thy blessed will, for our necessities. Therefore we beseech thee (most merciful Father) to turn thy loving countenance towards us, and impute not unto us our manifold finnes and offences, whereby we justly deserve thy wrath and sharp punishment: but rather receive us to thy mercy, for Jesus Christs sake, accepting his death and passion as a just recompence for all our offences, in whom onely thou art pleased, and through whom thou canst not be offended with us. And seeing that of thy great mercies we have quietly passed this night, grant (O heavenly Father) that we may bestow this day wholly in thy service, so that all our thoughts, words, and deeds, may redound to the glory of thy Name, & good ensample to all men, who seeing our good works, may glorifie thee our heavenly Father. And so much as of thy sweet favour and love, thou hast not onely created us to thy own similitude and likeness, but also hast chosen us to be heirs with thy dear Son Jesus Christ, of that immortal kingdom, which thou hast prepared for us before the beginning of the world: we beseech thee to increase our knowledge, and to lighten our hearts with thy holy Spirit, that we may at all times live in godly conversation, and innocentie of life, knowing contentions persons, drunkards, gluttons, and such like, shall not inherit the kingdom of God.

And because thou hast commanded us to pray one for another, we do not onely make request (O Lord) for our selves, and them that thou hast already called to the true understanding of thine heavenly wil, but for all people and nations of the world, who as they know by thy wonderful works, that thou art God over all, so they may be instructed by thine holy Spirit to believe in thee their onely Saviour & Redeemer. But so far as they can not believe except they hear, nor cannot hear but by preaching, and none can preach except they be sent: therefore (O Lord) raise up faithful distributors of thy mysteries, who setting apart all worldly respects, may both in their life and doctrine onely seek thy glory. Contrarily confound Satan, Antichrist, with all hirings and Papists, whom thou hast already cast off into a reprobate sense, that they may not by sects, schisms, heresies, and errors, disquiet thy little flock. And because (O Lord) we be fallen into the latter dayes and dangerous times, wherein ignorance hath gotten the upper hand, and Satan by his ministers seeks by all means to quench the light of thy Gospel, we beseech thee to maintain thy cause against those ravening wolves, and strengthen all thy servants whom they keep in prison and bondage. Let not thy long suffering be an occasion either to increase their tyranny, or to discourage thy children, neither yet let our sins and wickedness be an hinderance to thy mercies; but with speed (O Lord) consider their great misery. For thy people Israel many times by their sins provoked thine anger, and thou punishedst them by thy just judgments; yet though their sins were never so grievous, if they once returned from their iniquity, thou receivedst them to mercy. We therefore most wretched sin-

gale

Prayers.

Lord, bewail our manifold sins, and earnestly repent us for our former wickedness & ungodly behaviour towards thee: and whereas we distrust of our selves purchase thy pardon, yet we humbly beseech thee, for Jesus Christs sake, to shew thy mercies upon us, and receive us again to thy favour. Grant us (dear Father) these our requests, and all other things necessary for us and thy whole Church, according to thy promise in Jesus Christ our Lord. In whose name we beseech thee, as he hath taught us, saying, Our Father which art, &c.

Prayer to be said at all times.

O Lord God, Father everlasting and full of pity, we acknowledge and confess that we be not worthy to lift up our eyes to heaven, much less to present our selves before thy Majesty, with confidence that thou wilt hear our prayers, & grant our requests. If we consider our own deservings. For our consciences do accuse us, and our sins do witness against us, and we know that thou art an upright Judge, which dost not justify the sinners and wicked men, but punishest the faults of all such as transgress thy commandments. Yet most merciful Father, since it hath pleased thee to command us to call on thee in all our troubles and adversities, promising even then to help us when we feel our selves (as it were) swallowed up of death and desperation, we utterly renounce all worldly confidence, and flee to thy sovereign bounty as our onely stay and refuge: beseeching thee not to call to remembrance our manifold sins and wickedness, whereby we continually provoke thy wrath and indignation against us: neither our negligence and unkindness, which have neither worthily esteemed, nor in our lives sufficiently expressed the sweet comfort of thy Gospel revealed unto us: but rather to accept the obedience and death of thy Sonne Jesus Christ, who by offering up his body in sacrifice, once for all, hath made a sufficient recompence for all our sins. Have mercy therefore upon us, O Lord, and forgive us our offences. Teach us by thine holy Spirit, that we may rightly weigh them, and earnestly repent for the same: and so much the rather, O Lord, because that the reprobate, and such as thou hast forsaken cannot praise thee, nor call upon thy name: but the repenting heart, the sorrowful mind, the conscience oppressed, hungry and thirsting for thy grace, shall ever set forth thy praise and glory.

And albeit we be but worms and dust, yet thou art our Creator, and we be the work of thine hands: yet thou art our

Father, and we thy children: thou art our Shepherd, and we thy flock: thou art our Redeemer, and we the people whom thou hast bought: thou art our God, and we thine inheritance. Carry us not therefore in thine anger, (O Lord) neither according to our deserts punish us, but mercifully chastise us with a fathers affection, that all the world may know that at what time soever a sinner doth repent him of his sins from the bottom of his heart, thou wilt put away his wickedness out of thy remembrance, as thou hast promised by thine holy Prophets.

Finally, forasmuch as it hath pleased thee to make 5 night for man to rest in, as thou hast ordained him the day to travel in, grant (dear Father) that we may take our bodily rest, that our souls may continually watch for the time that our Lord Jesus Christ shall appear for our deliverance out of this mortal life: and in the mean season that we, not overcome by any fantasies, dreams, or other temptations, may fully set our minds upon thee, love thee, fear thee, and rest in thee: furthermore, that our sleep be not excessive or overmuch, after the insatiable desires of our flesh, but only sufficient to content our weak nature, that we may be the better disposed to live in all godly conversation, to the glory of thine holy name & profit of our brethren. So be it.

A godly Prayer to be said at all times.

Honour and praise be given to thee, O Lord God Almighty, most dear Father of heaven, for all thy mercies & loving kindnesses shewed unto us, in that it hath pleased thy gracious goodness, freely and of thine own accord to elect and chuse us to salvation before the beginning of the world. And even like continual thanks be given to thee, for creating us after thine own image, for redeeming us with the precious blood of thy dear Son, when we were utterly lost; for sanctifying us with thy holy Spirit, in the revelation & knowledge of thy holy word: for helping and succouring us in all our needs & necessities: for saving us from all dangers of body & soul: for comforting us so farthly in all our tribulations & persecutions: for sparing us so long, and giving us so large a time of repentance. These befits, O most merciful Father, like as we acknowledge to have received them of thy only goodness, even so we beseech thee for thy dear Son Jesus Christs sake, to grant us always thy holy Spirit, whereby we may continually grow in thankfulness, and be led into all that thou wilt increase them and our lightning, that we may not, most dear Father, receive thy word any more, but thou grant us alwaies the presence of thy precious holy Spirit,

that our heart, word and deed, we may fan-cise and do worship to thy Name; help us to increase & increase thy kingdom; and wherever thou sendest, we may be hear-thy, well content with thy good pleasure and will. Let us not lack the thing of Father, without the which we cannot serve thee, but bless thou so all the works of thy hands, that we may have sufficient,
and not be chargeable, but rather helpful to others. Be merciful, O Lord to our debts: and seeing our debts is great;
that thou hast forgiven us in Jesus Christ, make us to love thee and our neighbours to much the more. Be thou our captain and defender in all temptations: hold thou us by thy merciful hand, that we may be delivered from all inconveniences, and end our lives in the praising and honouring of thy holy Father, through Jesus Christ our Lord and only Saviour.

Let thy mighty hand and out-stretched arm, O Lord, be still our defence: thy clemency and loving kindness in Jesus Christ thy dear Son our salvation, thy true and only word our instruction, thy grace and holy Spirit our comfort and consolation, unto the end, and in the end. So be it.
Lord increase our faith.

Prayer to be said before a man begin his work.

O Lord God, most merciful Father and our Saviour, seeing it hath pleased thee to command us to travel that we may show our need, we beseech thee of thy goodness to bless our labour, that thy blessing may extend unto us, without the
which we are not able to continue; and that this great favour may be a witness unto us of thy bountifulness & assistance,
that thereby we may know the Fatherhood that thou hast over us.

Moreover O Lord, we beseech thee that thou wouldst strengthen us with thy holy Spirit, that we may faithfully travel in our time and vocation without fraud or deceit, that we may commend our selves unto thee with confidence, rather than with fear, and affliction, and doubt. Give us a good conscience, O Lord, and a good conscience, O Lord,
and a good conscience, O Lord, and a good conscience, O Lord, and a good conscience,

may humble our selves to our neighbours
as not by any means lift our selves above them which have not received so large a portion of thy mercies as thou hast given us, and it shall please thee O Lord to trye & exercise us by greater poverty and necessity then our flesh would desire, that thou wouldst yet (O Lord) grant us grace to know that thou wilt nourish us continually through thy bountiful liberality, that we be not so tempted, that we fall into distrust, but that we may patiently wait till thou fill us not onely with corporal graces and benefits, but chiefly with thine heavenly and spiritual blessings, to the intent that we may always have more and more to give thee thanks, and wholly to rest upon thy mercies. Hear us (O Lord) of mercy, through Jesus Christ
thy Son our Lord, Amen.

A Confession for all estates and times.

O Eternal God and most mercifull
Father, we confess and acknowledge here before thy divine Majestie, that we are miserable sinners, conceived and born in sin and iniquitie, so that in us there is no goodnes: For the flesh evermore re-belleth against thy Spirit, whereby we continually transgress thy holy precepts and commandements, and so purchase to our selves through thy just judgment, death and damnation. Notwithstanding (O heavenly Father) so much as we are displeased with our selves, for the sins we have committed against thee, and do unfained-ly repent us of the same, we most humbly beseech thee for Jesus Christs sake, to shew
thy mercie upon us, to forgive all our sins,
and increase thy holy Spirit in us, that we acknowledging from the bottom of our hearts our own unrighteousness, may from henceforth not onely mortifie our sinful lusts and affections, but also bring forth such fruits as may be agreeable to thy most blessed will: nor for the worthiness thereof, but for the merits of thy dearly beloved Son Jesus Christ our only Saviour, whom thou hast already given an oblation and offering for our sins and for whose sake we are certainly perswa-ded, that thou wilt denie us nothing that we shall ask in his name, according to thy will. For thy Spirit doth assure our consciences, that thou art our mercifull
Father, and so lovest us thy children
through him, that nothing is able to remove thy heavenly grace and favour from us. To thee therefore (O Father) with thy Son and the holy Ghost, be all honour
and glory, world without end. Amen.
